REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

To the Republican electors of Pennsylvania: The Republics of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in State convention Thursday, April 23, 1896, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the opera house, city of Harrisburg, for the purpose of nominating two candidates for representative-at-large in Congress and thirty-two candidates for Presidential electors, the selection of eight delegates-at-large to the Republican National convention, and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.

By order of the State Committee.

M. S. QUAY, Chairman.

W. R. ANDREWS, Secretaries.

That McKinley meeting in Philadelphia only needed the name of one man to touch off the enthusiasm, and he was sojourning in Florida.

The McKinley demonstration arranged for Saturday evening last in Philadelphia, resulted in a flat failure. The disgruntled leaders of that city have been desecrated by the people on several occasions and their advocacy of any candidate will work to the latter's detriment.

It looks as though spring had come to remain with us for a while. She is perfectly welcome to stay her time out, if she will promise not to allow winter to again sit down in her lap. Such conduct on her part would be very judicious, and would subject her to the social ban. She has already done too much of this kind of unseemly flirting, and if she would preserve a vestige of her good name she must believe herself from this time on.

The action of the Health Officer of Pottsville in notifying teamsters who are accustomed to pass through the streets with wagon loads of manure, of which half is dropped on the thoroughfares, that in order to conform with the rules and regulations of the Board, they will not be allowed to drive through the town unless the wagons are covered or side streets selected as the route, is an example that can be emulated with much benefit by every similar officer in the county. The disagreeable odor is not conducive to the pleasantness of the atmosphere and the effort, to say the least, is not needed in keeping the main thoroughfares in good condition.

The right of Hon. "Jack" Robinson to flop to McKinley says the Pittsburg Leader, can be questioned by no man. Flopping is a fundamental privilege of American citizenship, and there need be no limit to its exercise. But there is much in the interpretation that can be placed upon a flop, and now that Mr. Robinson's performance is construed far and wide as meaning that Senator Quay has flopped, too, the time has clearly come to judge a protest against the popular conception of the dignity that hedges the flopper. In the present case Robinson carries Robinson with him, and no more, and he cannot say so too emphatically for the benefit of an inquiring public.

APPARENTLY everything is not serene in the McKinley camp. An Ohio Republican, who is a close friend of ex-Governor Foner, heard the latter make this statement: "We have had enough towards and ingrates in the White House. I would much rather see Senator Quay President than any other candidate mentioned for the office. Of course my state is for McKinley, and I shall go to the St. Louis Convention and do all in my power to nominate him. We ought to have a President who will recognize party leaders, and not close the doors of the White House against the rank and file of the party, as many of our Presidents in the past have done."

It ought to be ascertained, once for all, whether the stories of Spanish outrages in Cuba—such, for instance, the burying alive of two men supposed to be in sympathy with the patriots—are true. That being done, if the tales prove true Cuban independence ought to be recognized by this country inside of 24 hours. The Cubans declared in the most emphatic manner that the half has not been told concerning Spanish cruelty and inhumanity. On his side Weyler denies it as a solemnity. It is very easy, however, to disclaim responsibility for outrages that unscrupulous do by the assertion that they exceeded orders and the commanding general regrets it greatly, etc. That seems to be what Weyler does. But this ought not to be allowed to serve as an excuse for continued butcheries.

YESTERDAY marked the golden jubilee of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and the event was fittingly celebrated yesterday in the Academy of Music, Philadelphia. In the fifty years of its uninterrupted prosperity, the company has grown from a small road covering a limited territory to a vast network of rails encompassing a large section of the country. Pennsylvania is proud of the railroad bearing its name, and justly so. The company is closely bound up with the interests of the state and nation, and accordingly with all that is best for the people. It has given the public a service second to none; as a factor in peopling the west and promoting the general wealth it has been all-important, and in the example in enterprise which it has set for kindred corporations, it has rendered service that will never be fully realized nor, perhaps appreciated. It was a fitting celebration held yesterday in Philadelphia, participated in as it was by distinguished men in all branches of trade.

POLITICAL "PAP."

Minor has it that Amos Wallbridge of Mahanoy City, is an aspirant for the Representativeship nomination on the Republican ticket. John W. Phillips, of the same town, also wants the nomination. As between the two, give us the former by all means. James H. Deagan is deservingly re-nominating. He would again lead his Democratic opponent a lively chase. Candidates for the Legislative nomination in this district are bobbing up sorely, but the genial Joe Wyatt is pursuing the even tenor of his way, with little fear of the result. Politics make strange bed-fellows, it is said. The contest in the 29th Senatorial district is a practical example. Congressman "Dad" Conkley is a candidate for chief Burgess. It is hardly necessary to say that he is seeking the nomination on the Democratic ticket. E. A. Griffiths, of Mahanoy City, is working a string canvas and wants to succeed Hon. Joseph Wyatt, through Democratic channels. The friends of Daniel Brennan, of town, are daily receiving assurances of that gentleman's nomination as County Commissioner by the Democratic convention. The Silverites are still connecting the name of Don Cameron with the Presidential nomination. That is the nearest he will ever come to the coveted prize. Who will receive the Congressional nomination, is a question that is causing the Democracy considerable uneasiness.

Wood's College Notes. Two hundred and seventeen students have entered and the number will probably reach 300 before April 15th. Nine teachers have been employed and personal instruction will be given all persons who need it. No preparation is needed. Students may enter who can not read and will be carefully taught by experienced teachers in a department arranged especially for them. Thirty scholarships were written on Friday. New tables and furniture have been ordered to accommodate the large number of students. The College is now ahead of any in Schuylkill county.

The charter member scholarship will be withdrawn on Tuesday morning, April 14th, and in its place a combined scholarship will be issued at $150.

The College office will be open Saturday evening and all who wish a charter member scholarship at $75, worth April 14th $150, should call at the College on or before Tuesday morning.

If you have not the ready cash call to see Prof. Wood and he will suggest some plan by which you may take advantage of the charter membership.

Students who wish to enter the college at any future time may get the charter member scholarship now and come to the college at any time.

The college has come to stay, and is one of our great educational and financial institutions.

McKinley's Maryland Supporters. WESTMINSTER, Md., April 14.—County conventions were held in this state in Carroll, Montgomery, Charles and Garrett counties yesterday. Montgomery and Garrett declared for McKinley for president and Wellington for delegate-at-large. The others were divided, but local interests prevented state or national attitudes.

An immense dam of logs and ice formed at this place, and the water rose five feet behind it and then forced the mass down the river, tearing up booms and doing much damage. People living on the small levee north of the city were driven from their homes at midnight, their houses being surrounded by water and floating ice. More damage is expected.

He also denies other statements of Ballington.

Marysville Results. From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at River Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at A. Wasley's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

OUR DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.

Japan's Victorious Military Chieftain Arrives in New York City.

New York, April 14.—The most distinguished guest at the Waldorf hotel last night was the Count Yamagata, Japan's field marshal and minister of war, whose recent services gained for his country such a decisive victory from China. General Yamagata arrived at the Grand Central depot on a special car early in the evening. His suit consisted of the following distinguished officials: K. Taniuchi, grand chancellor of the imperial archives; Dr. Bral, court physician; Major Oshima, Y. G. Terasaki and H. Kawasaki, secretary to the minister of foreign affairs. It is likely that while the general is in New York he will be tendered the freedom of the city and probably be entertained at a public banquet by leading Japanese merchants.

General Yamagata is on his way to Russia as the special ambassador of the Japanese empire to attend the coronation exercises of the czar at St. Petersburg. One of the reasons why the general is making his journey to Russia by way of the United States is to express the feelings of his government for the friendly regard in which the United States has regarded the Japanese.

Electric Bitters. Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the spring, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. Only fifty cents per bottle at A. Wasley's drug store.

The Women Delegates Win. PITTSBURGH, April 14.—The question of the admission of women delegates to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church has been practically settled in their favor. Ten of the 123 annual conferences have not yet voted, but when they do it cannot effect a change in the present status of the movement. The vote to date is 6,877 in favor of the amendment and 2,187 against it. This gives the required majority, with 575 votes to spare.

Trying to Secure Commissioner Roosevelt. NEW YORK, April 14.—A package addressed to "Theodore Roosevelt, police headquarters," and marked "medicine," was brought to the general postoffice yesterday by some one of the many collectors of mail from down town. Investigation showed it to be an infernal machine, though not so dangerous as it was made to prove. The contrivance was clumsily made, though it would have exploded had it been carefully opened.

During the winter of 1895, F. M. Martin, of Long Reach, West Va., contracted a severe cold which left him with a cough. In speaking of how he cured it he says: "I used several kinds of cough syrup but found no relief until I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved me almost instantly, and in a short time brought about a complete cure." When troubled with a cough or cold use this remedy and you will not find it necessary to try several kinds before you get relief. It has been in the market for over twenty years and constantly grows in favor and popularity. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by Grubler Bros., druggists.

Coming Event. April 16.—Musical and dramatic entertainment by the Guilds of the All Saints' church in Ferguson's theatre.

April 10.—Grand phantom dance under the auspices of the Clover Club of Shenandoah at Robbins' opera house.

April 22.—Annual supper under auspices of Welsh Congregational church, in the church building.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros., druggists.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

Patent Office Gazette Publication Opened to General Competition.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—At the instance of Mr. Gorman the senate yesterday determined to open the publication of the Patent Office Gazette to general competition. Reference was made during the discussion to the investigation some months ago into the circumstances by which a friend of the then assistant secretary of state, Mr. Josiah Quincy, was awarded the contract. Mr. Gorman carried his amendment for an open competition, although Mr. Platt, chairman of the committee on patents, was in opposition. The rest of the day was given to the Dupont case, Senators Burrows of Michigan and Brown of Utah supporting Mr. Dupont's claim.

The house spent the day transacting business relating to the District of Columbia. Several bills were passed. It was the intention of Mr. Bartlett, of New York, to call up his bill to authorize raising in the District of Columbia, but he was given no opportunity to do so. It is expected that he will ask unanimous consent for the consideration of the bill today.

Veterans "Play Ball." ROCKFORD, Ill., April 14.—Over 2,000 people witnessed the game between old time players in this city yesterday afternoon for the benefit of the Harry Wright monument fund. A special train from Chicago brought a big delegation headed by A. G. Spaulding, with many of the old Forest City club in the party. A parade over a mile long preceded the contest, and was participated in by bands, militia, cyclists, equestrians, old players, civic societies and citizens. Two teams were made up from the veterans, Spaulding and King being the battery on one side and Fisher and Larue on the other. Only one inning was played, in which the score was 4 to 0 in favor of Spaulding's team, runs being made by Spaulding, King, Barker and Buckman. A terrific rain storm then stopped the game.

A parade over a mile long preceded the contest, and was participated in by bands, militia, cyclists, equestrians, old players, civic societies and citizens. Two teams were made up from the veterans, Spaulding and King being the battery on one side and Fisher and Larue on the other. Only one inning was played, in which the score was 4 to 0 in favor of Spaulding's team, runs being made by Spaulding, King, Barker and Buckman. A terrific rain storm then stopped the game.
