MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC

Entertainment by the Guilds of All Saints Church Thursday Evening.

This entertainment, which will be given on Thursday night, the 16th inst., in Ferguson's theatre, will be of unusual merit. Those in charge and those participating in the varied numbers, have combined to arrange a most delightful evening for the lovers of home talent. Besides the well-defined duets, songs and marches and the May Pole Dance, by the girls and boys, there will be the Mandolin duets and quartettes, the glee by well-trained men's voices, two dramas; and, also, for the first time, will be introduced a "Human Melodion." The program of twenty-six numbers will close with a chorus of two hundred children and grown people.

Wanted.
A house with modern conveniences. Willing to pay from $18 to $20 per month rent. Address "House," care of HERALD office. 4-11-tf

At the Theatre To-night.
Dr. Stafford, at Ferguson's theatre this evening, promises to be one of the best paying engagements of the season. This reverent gentleman's ability being thoroughly established through the large cities, the people of our town should consider themselves favored by a visit from him. As an orator and lecturer he has no equal to-day before the American public, which is saying a great deal, and it was only after considerable correspondence that his services were secured by the management. In this respect Mr. Ferguson shows a desire to place the best attractions before his patrons in securing Rev. D. J. Stafford to lecture to-night, and he has made no mistake. The prices, 25c, 35c and 50c, being so low that no person can afford to be absent from it.

Local Teachers' Institute.
A regular meeting of the local Teachers' Institute was held in the High school building last evening. Prof. J. W. Cooper presiding. Prof. Craig of Wood's Business College was present. Miss Wasley led in singing. The program was opened with an instrumental solo by Miss Marie Wasley, a new feature highly appreciated. Misses Cavanaugh and Cogran favored the Institute with a vocal duet. Miss Lynch read a very interesting article from the School Journal and Miss Annie L. Williams read the critic's report.

If you want a fine wedding cake, let Otto make it for you.

Tax Collector Assaulted.
Tax Collector M. J. Scanlan last night went to the house of John Pokes, on South Emerick street, to collect taxes. He was accompanied by Special Officer Joe Anderson, to whom the occupants took exception. Joe Pokes, a brother of John, picked up a beer glass, and threatened to clear the tax duplicate. John told the boarders to bar the doors and stuff the mouths of the visitors with tax receipts. At the same time Mrs. Pokes gave the collector a poke on the head with a broom and attempted to strike him with a chair. All the Pokes family and one Mike Stenkawicz were arrested and held under $300 bail. Stenkawicz could not give the security and went to jail this morning. John Pokes was re-arrested and committed to the lockup in default of payment of three years' taxes.
