There is something of a panic manifest among the burghers, who have appealed for arms with which to protect themselves. The threatened spread of the disturbance along the Transvaul border makes the situation at Buluwayo and in Matabele much more appearance. serious. The authorities have felt that Buluwayo was reasonably safe if the food supply should hold out, but the danger has been that the Matabeles would stop the wagon roads through the Matoppo hills and to the south, and thus prosupplies from getting through from Mafe

It is believed that the white settlers scattered through Matabeleiand are in places of safety by this time, in Buluwayo or Gwelo, and the missionaries do not feel that they run any risk from the natives to whom they are known, though might be danger from strange wandering

Only a part of the 500 reinforcements designed for Buluwayo have been dis-patched from Mafeking, the nearest point available for that purpose. It takes four weeks' hard traveling by ox wagons to reach Buluwayo from there, and it is said that the journey cannot be done in that time except with very light loads. Transportation of supplies of ammunition, which are needed at this time in Matabeleland, must therefore be slow, and the new developments in the situation threaten to cut off, or at least to interrupt communieation between Buluwayo and the only source to which it can look for a renewal of its supplies. It has been discovered that some of the Matabeles who are employed as servants at districts. One of these traitorous natives was shot yesterday.
