THE BURDEN DIAMONDS!

They Were Stolen by Two Servants of the Household.

RECOVERED BY LONDON POLICE

The Thieves Endeavored to Dispose of the Jewels in a Bond Street Jeweler. Who Promptly Reported—The Burdens Going to England.

LONDON, April 13.—The arrests made on Bond street of William Dunlop, described as a valet, and William Turner, said to be a footman, are important ones. The prisoners said they left the employment of a gentleman in New York recently. In Dunlop's pocket the police found diamonds valued at $15,000, believed to have been stolen, and a search of the room occupied by the prisoners resulted in the discovery of bracelets, tiaras, rings, scarfpins set with diamonds, emeralds and other jewelry estimated to be worth $75,000.

There is no doubt that the men are the persons guilty of robbing Mr. Burden, of New York, in December last. The officials of the United States embassy have called Secretary Olney to this effect, and have asked for extradition papers.

Streeter, the Bond street jeweler, called at the United States embassy during the day in reference to the Burden jewels. He said the prisoners called on him last Wednesday and he immediately saw that many of the stones they wanted to sell had been torn from their settings, while others were black with dirt. He told the men he would have them cleaned and make an offer on Thursday. Turner and Dunlop left the jewels with Streeter, and the latter communicated with the police. Consequently when the prisoners called at Streeter's store the detectives were outside waiting for them. Streeter handed them back the jewels, the men left the store, the jeweler having informed them that he did not wish to buy the stones, and on reaching the street they were arrested.

Today Ambassador Bayard received a cablegram from Secretary Olney announcing the fact that requisition papers will be forthcoming, and asking the London authorities to hold the suspected men.

NEW YORK, April 13.—William Turner and William Dunlop were in the employ of L. Townsend Burden at the time of the great diamond robbery. Two weeks ago Mr. Burden reported to Captain O'Brien, at police headquarters, that a woman servant had made what she called a confession. The said Turner, who was the butler, had stolen the jewels and had kept them in the house for some time afterwards. Turner left Mr. Burden's employ seven weeks ago, and Dunlop left four weeks later. Mr. and Mrs. Burden sailed for Europe today for the purpose of identifying the jewels.

HONORING THE FIRST DEFENDERS. WASHINGTON, April 13.—The First Defenders have been enjoying the freedom of Washington for the past two days. Yesterday they were received by the president, who greeted them with a brief speech of welcome and congratulation. At the Capitol they were given an ovation. Speaker Reed received them in the lobby back of the speaker's desk. Then they marched into the hall of the house with the "first flag of the war" at their head. There they were greeted with prolonged cheers by all the members present on both sides of the house, the ex-Confederates joining in the ovation. They will leave for home at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Pitzel May Get Holmer's Money. PHILADELPHIA, April 13.—It is the expressed belief of District Attorney Graham that Mrs. Pitzel, whom Holmer defrauded of thousands of dollars, has an excellent opportunity of recovering the money which he is said to have received for his confession. Mr. Graham says that Holmer's position is exactly the same as that of any other individual dying and leaving an estate, and if Mrs. Pitzel can prove she was defrauded she stands in the same position as any other creditor. It is probable that Lawyer Fahy will institute proceedings to restrain any one from handling the money.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Good Weather Makes a Temporary Boom in Business.

NEW YORK, April 13.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: The sudden change from sleighing to mid-summer heat, with fair skies in most cities, has tested the prevalent idea that good weather only was needed to bring general improvement of business. Everywhere there has been more retail buying, and in some branches better demand at wholesale and at the works has resulted, but not as yet in most lines. There is no abatement of the almost universal disposition to deal with unusual conservatism, and not to anticipate future wants, and this has been especially conspicuous where combinations have been formed or prices advanced. The comparative infrequency of serious failures, with money markets less disturbed since gold exports began than might have been expected, helps to give encouragement, but does not kindle speculative fires, so that such improvement as appears is mainly of a healthy sort.

Bradstreet's review says: Favorable weather, except in some northwestern states, has stimulated demand for seasonal merchandise, notably light summer clothing. On the whole, the week presents a distinct gain. This is not so much apparent at eastern centers, except Baltimore and Pittsburgh, as in the central Mississippi river valley. At some northwestern cities the movement of merchandise has declined, but at a number east of it unchanged, while southern cities in most instances report business quiet, and others less favorable.

The total business failures in the United States are 344 this week, against 331 last week, 319 in the corresponding week of 1895, 212 in 1894 and 217 in 1893, which is a smaller excess than the average increase weekly during the first quarter of the current year.

HARRISBURG, April 13.—Governor Hastings, Senator Quay and Mayor Warwick had a conference at the executive mansion last night to arrange for a meeting here next Thursday, when the Republican state convention will be held. The state committee will meet on Wednesday to receive the report of the executive committee. On Wednesday evening there will be a caucus of the delegates favorable to Quay for the presidency. The senator returned to Washington this morning, when Mayor Warwick went to Philadelphia. The result of the conference will show itself next Thursday, when the state convention assembles. Senator Quay will have a solid delegation from Pennsylvania to support his candidacy at St. Louis, with the exception of two delegates, Magee and Flinn. The latter are still out in the cold.

A POLICEMAN KNOCKED OUT

Lieutenant Lee Struck With a Pitcher in a Hall.

EIGHTEEN MEN WERE ARRESTED.

Fourteen Committed to the Lockup and Three of Them and a Woman Held for Assaulting the Officers—Policeman Lee's Face Badly Contused.

The police made a raid on a Lithuanian boarding house, on West Lloyd street, at about 12 o'clock last night to abate a nuisance complained of by neighbors and struck a hornet's nest. Lieutenant Thomas Lee was struck by a glass pitcher during the fight and momentarily stunned. He was also kicked while lying upon the floor and the left side of his face was badly contused. Eighteen men and a woman were taken from the house.

A warrant sworn out before Justice Williams was placed in the hands of Policemen Tush, Lee, Goodman and Foltz. About forty men and several women were in the house celebrating a wedding fixed for to-day. When the police arrived they arrested two of the most noisy men and put them in charge of Chief Foltz. Some of the men said he was not badly injured and remained until eighteen men and Mrs. Dolgala were arrested and taken out of the house. Among them was William Lebus, the West Lloyd street saloonkeeper, and Frank Dougal, the boarding boss. They and two others paid fines and costs and were discharged. Fourteen others were committed to the lockup in default of payment of costs and fines.

This morning Anthony Lukshemis, Enoch Kilgus and Mrs. Eva Dolgala were arraigned before Justice Williams on charges of creating a public nuisance and assaulting the police. On the former charge they paid the fine and costs and on the latter they were placed under $500 bail each for trial at court. Kilgus is said to be a desperate man and has served a term of 18 months for beating a man.

Attacked on the Highway.

While Hyman Fogel, who resides in one of John Robbins' houses, on West Centre street, was on one of his periodical trips with a horse and wagon collecting rags and bones, he was attacked by six overgrown boys at Connors' patch last evening, and used up pretty badly. Fogel says stones whistled around his head like bullets from a gatling gun, several of them striking him on the left side of the head, inflicting an ugly wound. When he arrived home he was covered with blood. He says the boys are known and that they will pay dear for their acts.

Will Recover.

Mary Barufski, the 34 year old child who was run over and lost her left arm on the Centre street line of the Lakeside Electric Railway, last Saturday, is still alive and it is believed she will recover. The parents of the child have announced that they will sue the railway company for heavy damages, but have not indicated the amount. It is stated that they have witnesses who will swear that the child was struck at the Emerick street crossing and dragged ninety feet by the car. Michael Graham, who was one of the eye witnesses of the accident, says such a statement is preposterous. Officials of the company have been in town looking into the circumstances of the accident. Supervisor Welch, of Mahanoy township, father of the motorman who had charge of the car, was also among the interested information seekers during the past few days. He was anxious to secure personal satisfaction as to his son's part in the matter.

Probably an Old Drift.

Engineer John H. Pallard and District Superintendent J. J. Bradigan have further investigated the cause of the surface disturbance at the Williams and Titman properties, on South Main street, and say they do not think it is a serious one, or that the properties will be damaged. They find from their maps that the fissures were not caused by workings of the Indian Ridge colliery, as at first supposed, and it is their opinion that they were caused by some drift driven from the Lehigh Valley railroad several years ago and not located at present. They claim that all the workings from Indian Ridge under the properties are in the lower, or Buck Mountain vein, and but very little coal has been taken out. It is probable that the officials will try and locate the old drift they believe exists.
