Protecting Their Merchants.

A number of the clothing men of Maha-noy City intend to go to Council in a body and request them not to allow a certain New York bankrupt firm to open a store there. The merchants claim that they stay in town a few weeks and fake everybody that buy from them. In Mt. Carmel the same men were compelled to leave the town, as the Council of that place fixed the rate of license at $25 a day which they were unable to pay. Whitelock's is the cheapest shoe store in

Judge of the Supreme Court.

Congressman Powers Enthusiastic Over Paine's Celery Compound, the Greatest Spring Remedy.

Judge Powers, who to-day represents Ver- | ful charges to a jury: nont in Congress, entered the national house with a magnificent record as lawyer and judge of the supreme court of Vermont. He is a fine type of the careful, learned, New England lawyer.

Though but 56 years of age, he was a member of the Vermont legislature a third of a century ago, and again in 1874, when he was queaker of the house. He has been state censor, a member of the constitutional convention and of the state senate. In 1874 he became judge of the supreme court of Vermont, and remained on the bench until 1890,
