REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

To the Republican electors of Pennsylvania: The Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in State convention Thursday, April 22, 1896, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the opera house, city of Harrisburg, for the purpose of nominating two candidates for representative-at-large in Congress and thirty-two candidates for Presidential electors, the selection of eight delegates-at-large to the Republican National convention, and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.

By order of the State Committee.
M. S. QUAY, Chairman.
J. B. REEK, Secretary.
W. R. ANDREWS, Secretaries.

FRIDAY will be observed as Arbor Day, in accordance with the proclamation issued by Governor Hastings. Let every one plant a tree on that day.

The fight for state chairman is a spirited one, and may the best man win. But, seriously, can any one tell the name of the little man who sought that position last year?

A FORMER Shenandoahian, now located at Shinnock, writes: "Send me the HERALD. I have been used to it for years and cannot do without it. It beats the dailies down here by long odds." That is what they all say.

THE announcement in the HERALD last evening that the collieries would suspend operations this evening for the balance of the week, was somewhat of a surprise. The condition of the coal market warrants the curtailment of the supply, it is said by the officials.

ANTHRACITE trade circles are very quiet. Retailers are not in need of immediate supplies and are far from ready to begin stocking. These conditions are liable to continue during the balance of the month. The market will be relieved about the latter part of April through the opening of lake navigation. If there were any disposition to cut prices it would be manifest now. There are absolutely no signs of it.

ADVISES from Harrisburg indicate that Senator Quay will be asked to retain the state chairmanship and thus stop the fight now being waged between Leach and Elkins. The former appears confident, although the Deputy Attorney General is making a strong canvass. The files is for Quay to hold over until the two candidates cool off, and then make Mr. Leach chairman. The latter is quoted as saying that if he could not have the office to-morrow he did not want it at all.

At Hazleton the police are made to earn their salary. Besides the unpleasant duty of chasing "chippies" and raiding wedding celebrations, these overworked guardians of the peace must keep a strict lookout for wandering vehicles. If they find standing in the alleys such means of locomotion as wheelbarrows, carriages, wagons, sleighs, etc., they must remove them to the city pound where a fine will be imposed for their release, and if not released within a certain time they will be disposed of at auction sale. The order has grown out of the difficulties complained of by people who are compelled in many instances to use the alleys at night. Such a rule put in force in Shenandoah might not be the worst thing our officials could do.

ARBITRATION CONVENTION.

One of the most prominent members of the arbitration conference is Frederick R. Couderc, Esq. In an interview with the New York Advertiser he thus expresses himself:

"I am unable to give any details as to what is likely to be done at the coming International Arbitration Convention to be held in Washington this week. I am familiar, of course, through the press with what is generally intended to effect, namely, to bring the question of arbitration, with all its advantages to mankind, prominently before our people and before the world. To effect this purpose some of the leading men of the Union—men whose national reputation and private character entitle them to weight when they open their lips on public questions—have been invited to be present to lend the dignity of their personal presence to the occasion.
"Senator Edmunds, one of our most eminent jurists and a Senator who has rendered valuable service to the people, will probably be the prominent chairman. No man is entitled to speak with more authority on the question of arbitration than he.
"Judges of the United States Supreme Court and of other tribunals, members of Congress of the various states and prominent men generally are to testify their belief in the peaceful methods of arbitration by attending the convention. Addresses will, no doubt, be delivered by some of our most prominent leaders of thought, and I anticipate permanent and most beneficial effects from this reunion.
"Arbitration is undoubtedly growing in favor of the world over. It has made great progress in Europe not only because of its own intrinsic merits, but because the new agencies of warfare are so fearful that all thoughtful men shrink with horror from the probabilities of slaughter and destruction that will accompany the next great war. If it could ever be said 'If peace is the peace-makers' it may be said most truly now, for with the recent improvements in murderous machinery the destructive effect of a long war may now be crowded into a few days, not to speak of the destruction of property in the accumulated earnings and investments of millions of innocent people. It is a matter of legitimate pride with us Americans that, considering as we do that we are able to cope with any nation of the world, we should always have been and are now most earnestly desirous of securing a lasting foundation of the gentle, intelligent and reasonable methods of settlement by arbitration.

Duel on a Depot Platform.
MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 22.—Five hundred Democrats here to attend the Democratic convention were horrified by a tragedy at the depot. The platform was crowded when Bob Kennedy, sheriff of Dallas county, Alabama, stepped out with a double barreled shotgun and opened fire on two brothers, Percy and Mardis Wood, both citizens of Selma. Percy Wood was shot through the back, inflicting a fatal wound. Mardis Wood drew his pistol and fired at Kennedy five times without hitting him. Kennedy reloaded his gun twice, firing in all six shots at Mardis Wood, shattering his right shoulder and breaking his left arm. The trouble grew out of relations said to exist between Mardis Wood and the wife of Kennedy. Mardis Wood two years ago was the nominee of the Democratic party in the Fourth district for congress, but withdrew before the election, and Gaston Robbins, recently unseated, took his place. Kennedy is in jail here.

Kentucky's Special Elections.
LOUISVILLE, April 22.—Elections were held yesterday to fill the vacancies in the state senate caused by the expulsion of Dr. C. J. Walton, of Hart county, and Dr. James G. Greenlee, Republicans, at the last session of the legislature. These gentlemen were re-nominated by the Republicans of their districts. Specials indicate that Hon. W. J. Bale, Democrat, was elected over Walton by about 300 votes. Bale is a free silver man, and had considerable Populist support. Dr. James, whose only opponent was R. T. Pender, a Populist, is returned by a vote of 800 majority.

Waiking Delegate Held for Murder.
CHICAGO, April 22.—John M. Ryan, a walking delegate for the Painters' and Decorators' union and sergeant-at-arms of the Building Trades council, was held to the grand jury without bail by the coroner's jury as one of the two men who murdered John T. Smith, secretary and treasurer of the Patek-Smith company, painter and decorator, Saturday afternoon at his place of business in the downtown district, by hitting him in the head with a piece of gaspipe.

New Laws Signed by Governor Griggs.
TRENTON, April 22.—Governor Griggs yesterday signed the bills codifying the corporation laws of the state and legalizing borough governments formed under laws since declared unconstitutional, and also Assemblyman Austin's bill prohibiting non-residents from gathering oysters and clams. This latter bill does not go into effect until July 4.

Exploding Shell Kills a Soldier.
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 22.—While Light Battery F, Third United States Artillery, was firing a salute at Fort Sam Houston, commemorating the day Texas achieved her independence from Mexico, the premature explosion of a shell in the open breach of the cannon instantly killed private George A. Parkhurst and wounded three other soldiers. Parkhurst's right side and arm were blown away. He was a nephew of Rev. Dr. Parkhurst, of New York.

Citizens' League Carries New Orleans.
NEW ORLEANS, April 22.—The Citizens' league has won the fight by a majority of 10,000 to 15,000. There never was such excitement in the city on election day, and thousands are on the streets ready to answer any call. The negroes gave the league a heavy vote. Governor Foster will probably carry the state by 10,000 to 15,000.

Political Murder in Louisiana.
TANGIPAROA, La., April 22.—A deplorable tragedy occurred here yesterday. Mr. A. H. Goss, the Populist-Republican candidate for coroner of this parish, was shot and instantly killed, and S. C. Hyde, a Democrat and highly respected man, was mortally wounded. The trouble between the men grew out of politics.

Scoundling Banker Indicted.
ST. JOHN'S, N. F., April 22.—The grand jury in the bank cases finished the consideration of the indictments against the directors of the Commercial bank yesterday. They throw out the indictments against the directors, but found a true bill against Manager Cook.
