QUAYI

Pennsylvania has spoken. The Keystone state, the Gibraltar of Republican majorities. is unanimously for Matthew Stanley Quay as ton her presidential candidate-first, last and all

The instinct which attracts Pennsylvania to Mr. Quay with so much force as to make him her choice is perfectly natural. No eminent American statesman has escaped bitter attacks; their motives have been misunderstood, and their public acts have been subjected to criticism.

Senator Quay, like all other leaders, has not escaped the partisan rancor and factional prejudice. But loyally to friendship; recogfor the success of his party and its policies, for the success of his party and its policies, completed yesterday between the Soven-foot whether upon the restrum or in the halls of and the Skidmore veins. It is about 45 feet Congress; unexcelled executive ability; teadership were shown to great advantage had made combined to destroy him.

Sonator Quay's record as a statesman Is as consistent as his loyalty to friends. Alone he fought the Wilson bill in defense of his state, and extorted from the Senate due consideration for Pennsylvania's interests; he placed himself at the head of the reform movement, good city government and honest legislation, the cardinal principles of which are embedied in the platform adopted to-day. Upon every public question his record is spotiess, and he is a Pennsylvanian to the backbone.

The hearty endorsement of Senator Quay to-day removed all doubt as to the sincerity of his canvass, and he will go before the American people and the St. Louis convention on a platform that breathes Republican sentiment in every line.

Truly, this is Quay's day,

QUAY stock was above par to-day. In Ohio the quotations were away up, and caused consternation among the McKinley holders.

THE pure food law in force in Philadelphia has developed the fact that many grocers are selling coffee in which there is no trace of coffee, and mineement in which ment is entirely lacking. The health of the community demands from the legislators of this state the enactment and enforcement of a law to prohibit such tricks. Philadelphia, perhaps, is not the only place in which such practices are played upon customers.

GREATER NEW YORK AGAIN.

The Convolidation littl Passed Over Opposing Sinyors' Vetous. ALBANY, April 23.—The assembly yes-terday afternoon passed the greater New York hill over the vetoexof Mayors Strong of New York and Wurster of Brooklyn by a vote of 78 to 60. The senate has already passed the measure over the vetoes, and it now goes to Governor Morton. The opinion is general that the governor will sign the bill.

Such pont up excitoment as was witnessed in the assembly chamber during the taking of the vote has rarely been seen in the annals of the assembly. There was very little heated debate, but a nervous excitement, a pent up feeling of insecurity that made men's hands unsteady and their faces flushed. Not until the 147th vote on the ballot was reached did the feeling of insecurity on the part of either the adherents or opponents of the measure find a rest and even then the fear that changes of votes might alter the result made Speaker Fish leave the chair and threaten the lobby with vengeance if they approached members, while others sought out some absentees and tried to persuade them to

Even when it was known that there were seventy-eight votes for the bill, two more than enough to pass it, the anxiety of the members was apparent until the clerk in a trembling voice began to read a detailed statement of the vote. When Mr. Kinne's name was read he changed from the affirmative to the negative.

The situation was desperate and the strain upon the members intense. Then in came the sergeant-at-arms from the speaker's room with Mr. Bondy, of Syracuse, who upon a former passage of bill had voted against it. There was in-tense excitement as Mr. Bondy arose and explained that he would vote with a majority of his party and cast his vote Then Mr. Goodsell arose and as the members hushed the tumult said; "I desire to change from the negative to the affirmative.

This left the vote 78 ayes to 69 mays, but Mr. Stanchfield, who led the minority, Mr. Stanchnold, who led the minority, was clamoring for recognition, and Mr. O'Grady was shouting, "The clerk will announce the vote." Every member was on his feet when the vote was announced: Ayes, 78; nays, 69.

RIOT BETWEEN WORKINGMEN.

Cleveland Union and Non-Union Lumber Shovers in Beadly Combat.

CLEVELAND, April 23.—Rioting began between the union and non-union lumber shovers yesterday. The men were armed with knives and revolvers and came to-gether at Pack, Gray & Co.'s docks. Two men were seriously wounded, one perhaps fatally. Many have bruised faces and fatally. Many have bruised faces and black eyes. A ressel was to be unloaded at the dock and 223 union men were on hand to do the work. They claimed the captain had given them the job. While they were getting ready for the work a large growd of non-union laborers put in an appearance and their leaders, John Powitski and August Swezo, claimed the work belonged to them. A wrangle im-mediately followed and in a few minutes the men were throwing bricks and in various ways endeavoring to annihilate ach other. Swezo, the non-union leader, pulled a revolver, but before he had time to use it one of the other gang stabbed him in the neck. As he fell he was grabbed by the police and hustled toward the patrol wagon. There were but three officers on the ground at the time, one of whom re-ceived a serious wound in the head. Henry Bedilham, a non-union man, was kicked insensible and is considerably injured. About this time Captain Madigan with forty officers arrived on the scone. The police soon succeeded in scattering the crowd, and both the union and non-union men were ordered away. Five men were placed under arrest, including the leaders of both sides. Three were non union men. About twenty men were cut and bruised, seven being counted lying insensible on the ground just as the fight terminated with the arrival of the police. Swezo's wound is the most serious, but is not dangerous. Apparently
