An Unwelcome Guest.

David Morris, a young man of Pottsville, was a visitor to the Morris house on South Bowers street and a room mate of James Morris for a night. He claimed the relationship of cousin to the latter. Early the next morning he arose, took $75 in cash and a check for $100 from James' pockets and left the house. The affair was kept quiet, but became noised about the streets to-day. It is said the fugitive has left the state.

Thrown From the Track.

At about eight o'clock last evening a Schuylkill Traction car, in charge of Martin Dixon, motorman, and Albert Howard, conductor, was thrown from the track at a point between Holmesville and Girardville. Fortunately the car was not running at a high speed, but the four wheels left the rails and the jarring broke several window panes. There were fifteen passengers and one of them, a woman, fainted. The accident was caused by barrel staves and other pieces of wood being placed on the track. It took four hours to replace the car and traffic on the line was kept up meantime by a transfer system.

Mischievousness of Boys.

Henry L. Jones, the West Oak street grocer, has his stable on West Oak street. The distance between his residence and stable is considerable and Mr. Jones is unable to guard the latter properly. The boys residing in the vicinity of West Oak street know this and furnish great fun for themselves by making targets for stone throwing of the windows in the stable and the canvas covers of the wagons. This sport put Mr. Jones to considerable expense and once he was obliged to get a team to haul one of the wagons up a steep embankment over which the boys had pushed the vehicle. Yesterday the grocer learned that Freddy James, no relative of the complainant, and Eddie Flaherty, two boys about 11 years of age, were in a great measure responsible for his troubles and they were arraigned before Justice Williams last night by Constable Dando. Justice Williams says by dozens cases in which small boys and women are interested, because they generally commit a great deal of time and the result is never satisfactory to anybody concerned. Freddy and Eddie were willing and frank witnesses for Mr. Jones to the point of their own interest, and there they solemnly vowed they had nothing to do with the grocer's troubles. They knew Mr. Jones had a stable on West Oak street, that windows in it had been smashed and wagon curtains ruined, etc., but they, so they said, had no hand in the depredations. Flaherty's father and Jones' mother were present and furnished a little side play by throwing sarcasm at the grocer. Finally the Justice dismissed the boys with a reprimand and, adding that the parents would have to arrange the costs with the constable and if the boys didn't leave the grocer's property alone they would be sent to jail.

Saved Her Life.

Mrs. Mary Flaherty, an aged lady of Cole's patch, was picking coal from the railroad track with her back to an approaching coal train. The engine was backing eight loaded cars. Conductor Thomas noticed the woman when too late to stop the train, and he dropped down on the brake beam and with one foot gave the old lady a kick in the back that sent her rolling down the bank out of danger. When picked up she was faint and hardly able to utter a word from fright, but sustained no bodily injury. It was a narrow escape.

Received the Badges.

The Mahanoy Fish and Game Protective Association yesterday received 1000 badges to be distributed among the members. The badge is a neat design of workmanship, the body of a fish being used for a cross bar on which the word "Mahanoy" is in large letters, from which hangs a circle piece of gold plate metal on which is a fine lighting scene and the year 1896, while around the edge is the inscription, "Fish and Game Protective Association."

HOOD'S PILLS cure Liver Ills, Biliousness, Indigestion, Headache. A pleasant laxative. All Druggists.

Look Out for Them.

A neat swindle is being worked with great success in nearby towns, and Hazleton residents are hereby cautioned. A woman book agent appears and goes from house to house leaving books for examination. Next day a man calls to see if the books are wanted. A few days later the woman agent appears again, and on being told that the man has taken away the book weeps copiously, says the villain has been collecting her books all over town, pleads poverty and so on, and accepts the proffered compensation.—Hazleton Sentinel.

Prof. Day's Success.

Prof. Day, the hypnotist, gave another exhibition of his powers last night before a large audience and added to the excellent success of the preceding evenings. He had a number of subjects on the stage and his work was alternately exceedingly amusing and sensational. The human wood pile, the horse race, tapping the bee hive and other demonstrations were of a remarkable order and thoroughly enjoyed. The first named involves total catalepsy and is a remarkable feat. His exhibitions are commanding increased attendances nightly.
