The 11th anniversary of Lydia Rebekah Lodge No. 112, I. O. O. F., was celebrated in Mellet's hall last evening, by the members holding a literary entertainment and serving refreshments. There was a large attendance and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The program was an interesting one. There was singing by the assembly, recitations by Misses Marcella Davis, Ida Mader, Mattie Price, Lillie Brooks, and Annie Williams, slugging by a glee club and Lathane and party, and solos by Misses Bella Brown, Alice Neels and Annie Kline. A charade entitled "The Windfall" closed the program.

Last Night's Ball.
The ball under the auspices of the Lithuanian band in Robbins' hall last evening was a big success. Prior to the dance two concerts were rendered by the Lithuanian band and the Mahanoy City band which was greatly enjoyed by those present. The attendance was so large that there was barely sufficient room for the merry dancers to tip the light fantastic. The band had as their guests the Mahanoy City and Mahanoy Plane bands, who advertised the event by giving short street parades.

General Superintendent Robert Nelson, of Williamsport, and several other officials of the Pennsylvania railroad left Sunbury early this morning and made a trip by way of Tomhickon to Hazleton and to Pottsville by way of Delano. At Pottsville Vice President Thompson and others left the party and went to Philadelphia and the rest returned to Sunbury via this town and Mt. Carmel. The Shamokin State League team played their first game yesterday, defeating the Cuban Giants by the score of 18 to 4.

A Saloonkeeper Charged.
As an outcome of the highway robbery case in which Michael Stanton and Thomas Cruschane are charged with taking a silver watch and chain from Sperto Jenoso, an Italian living at Turkey Run, Paul Wilivias, a Polish saloonkeeper of South Main street, was arrested by Detective Amour yesterday afternoon charged with violating the Brooks high license law by selling liquor on Sunday. The specific charge is that Stanton purchased beer there last Sunday with the proceeds of the watch he stole from the Italian and sold to John Chwonitz. The saloonkeeper was put under $500 bail. Stanton surrendered Jenoso's chain yesterday.

The Hypnotist.
Prof. Day's exhibition of hypnotic powers continues to draw large audiences to Ferguson's theatre nightly, and each succeeding evening his work seems to increase in marvellous development. When Prof. Day first opened his engagement here he had a great number of skeptics to contend with, but has made all of them admirers of his ability. To-night he will produce "Trilby," the subject being a young lady of town.

Odd Fellows' Day.

The celebration of Odd Fellows' day at Mahanoy City tomorrow will be an elaborate affair. The local lodges have exerted every effort to make the demonstration surpass anything of the kind yet held in the county, and there is little doubt but that their expectations will be realized. The decorations are elaborate, and the arches being erected show the work of experts. The parade will be held in the morning, and it is expected fully 2000 men will be in line. The Third Brigade band will accompany the Pottsville delegation. During the day a convention will be held, at which a proposition will be made to discontinue these demonstrations for a time at least. While it is claimed they have been the means of increasing the membership, it is thought unnecessary to continue them with the steady growth the order is experiencing.

Whitelock's Shoe Store (Egan Block) will bring the CENTURY SHOE, latest style for spring in the new shade of tan, long drawn out narrow toes, for styles. See them; $2.00 and $3.00.

To Prohibit Fishing.
The farmers of Barreville and vicinity are determined to stop fishing. Notices are being put up everywhere along the creeks and streams are being erected to prevent the fish from escaping. The action of the farmers is being severely criticised. The Supreme Court has decided that unless the fish have been propagated by a man living along a stream that stream is not private. Fish that are merely put in a stream to grow are not private. Neither is a pond private that is not wholly on a man's land. A man, whose ground only partly surrounds the pond, cannot claim the fish in it, and all his signs forbidding trespassers amount to nothing.

The Best of an Opportunity.
A woman passing along Jardin street this morning dropped a bag of sugar. The substance scattered over the pavement and the unfortunate owner left it there. A few minutes later two boys on their way to school dropped upon their hands and knees and attacked the sugar with the avidity of contestants in a pie-eating contest, to the great amusement of many spectators.

After His Money.
Yesterday morning three masked men entered the house of Jacob Couple, of Lewis-town, near Tanagus, and demanded his money. Upon a refusal the robbers bound him and placed a lighted kerosene lamp under his feet. He was burned and beaten until he finally disclosed a trunk containing $111 and a closet containing $26. Believing Couple had more money they again tortured him until Couple was insensible, and they departed. His cries were heard and he was released. Couple is a bachelor about 35 years of age and is thought to be wealthy. No trace of the robbers has been found.
