Evening Herald

MONDAY, APRIL 27, 1896.

The hunt for a Democratic presidential candidate has taken the form of a rainbow chase. And the skies remain cloudy.

AMONG the Democratic state conventions so far held we have failed to find a single one that has declared for Mr. Cleveland for a third term.

The Democratic party has sustained a crushing defeat in New Orleans and has suffered set-backs throughout the state of Louisiana which show that the party there is in anything but an encouraging condition.

THERE is promise of a big fruit crop, if the frost only keeps away. It might also be added that the army of statesmen seeking a job is just as large, and before the county convention assembles the ranks will be increased two-fold.

ALL eyes are now on Allentown, where the Democratic state convention will be held this week. It is probable that Robert E. Wright will succeed himself as state chairman, the platform will declare for a gold standard, endorse Robert E. Pattison for the Presidency and adopt the unit rule. That is the program laid out for the delegates by Ross Hattery, and what he says goes in Pennsylvania. The Schuylkill Democracy is favorable to the Pattison boom.

THE Chief Burgess of Girardville has given notice to all property owners and tenants to remove all rubbish and ashes that has accumulated in the alleys during the winter, and not to obstruct the thoroughfares by boxes, barrels, wagons or carriages. A similar order rigidly enforced in this town by the officials would have a salutary effect and add greatly to the appearance of the alleys and streets. The officials cannot be too strict in a matter of this kind.

THE RIGHT MAN.

With the adjournment of the state convention, the Republican leaders are turning their attention to the preliminaries of the campaign work. The issues in the struggle to be fought out by the two political parties in this state, as well as the nation, are such that require the ablest, leaders and wisest counselors in command.

Whether chairman (they decide to continue at the head of the state committee)—which is not at all probable—or someone else is called to that position, it is imperative that the members of the state committee shall be chosen from that section of the state where missionary work is most needed and the members selected because of their fitness for the position. A state chairman is placed at great disadvantage when surrounded by advisers who are deficient in executive ability and who are wanting in the minor qualities necessary for a thorough organization.

This county is entitled to and should have a representative on the state executive committee, and among all the Republicans in Schuylkill we know of no one who is better fitted by training and experience than Hon. D. D. Phillips, of Gordon. He is especially fitted for the position because of his acknowledged ability as an organizer; he is an adept in the details of political warfare; is a tireless and active worker, and those who know him best know that his aggressive character and political shrewdness has won many battles for his party in this section.

Having the organization of the party in the state in their own hands—by choice of the Republican voters of the commonwealth—the friends of Senator Quay will naturally select as members of the state executive committee those who have shown their preference for the Junior Senator and have attested their loyalty in his battle against the Cummins by the results of their labors.

In the memorable campaign of last year, when the Philadelphia and Pittsburg combine, aided by the state administration with the party machinery in their own hands, formed an unholy alliance to destroy the political career of M. S. Quay, it was under the leadership of Mr. Phillips that the Republicans of the county expressed their contempt for such base means, and delegates were sent to Harrisburg pledged to support the Junior Senator for state chairman. Far be it from us to say that victory was alone due to the work of Mr. Phillips. There were many leading Republicans, together with the party press of the county, with one or two exceptions, who greatly contributed to the magnificent victory, but we do not think it is saying too much to state that Mr. Phillips, more than any one man, was instrumental in having a true expression of the opinion of Republican voters on the issue involved.

The recent county convention, called for the selection of national and state delegates, and the hearty endorsement of that body of Senator Quay for the presidential nomination, is still another strong reason why Mr. Phillips should be placed upon the state executive committee. He was in the thickest of the fight, and led the Quay forces on the floor of the convention.

We do not know that Mr. Phillips would accept the appointment if tendered him, but we believe that he should be prevailed upon to do so. His past achievements entitles him to recognition, far above the position named, while there is a strong sentiment as to his fitness among Republicans, which is growing daily, that he can hardly ignore. Being especially fitted for the position, the choice of the Republicans of the county, having the distinction of being numbered among the state leaders, there can be no mistake made in selecting Hon. D. D. Phillips as a member of the state executive committee.

I cannot express what I suffered. Only one of my sex knows what a woman can suffer in my condition. I was prostrate with nervousness and weakness. The least noise would drive me frantic. ### WOMAN CONVICT'S CONFESSION.

Committed a Murder for Which Others Are Serving Life Sentences.

WAUPION, Wis., April 27.—Minnie Allen, a convict, 30 years old, serving two years for burglary, has confessed that on the night of April 26, 1894, at Buffalo, N. Y., she shot and killed Montgomery Gibbs, a lawyer. The woman says she makes the confession to clear Clarence Robinson and wife, who are serving life sentences for the murder. At the expiration of her sentence she will go to Buffalo and plead guilty to the charge of murder. She will be released in a few weeks.

The confession has been repeated by Miss Allen before the state board of control. A letter from W. W. Superston, of Buffalo, says he has been retained as attorney for the Robinsons, serving life sentences for the crime, to secure their release. The Robinsons. It will be remembered, were variety performers, and they narrowly escaped a death sentence.

The confession of Minnie Allen is that she met Gibbs in California, and was seduced. Gibbs refused to marry her, and she lost track of him. In April, 1894, she was at the new Tiff House in Buffalo, and in that city met Gibbs. On the night of the murder he took her to the theater. They left early, and while on Delaware avenue she again asked him to marry her. He refused and she asked him for his revolver. He handed her the weapon and she shot him, threw the weapon beside his body and went to the hotel, going from there to New York.

At the Imperial hotel in that city she left her trunk. She came west, was arrested in Laporte, Ind., for theft, was released because she was found to be insane, went to Racine and was there arrested and sentenced. She went to Buffalo after the arrest of the Robinsons to confess, but thinking they would not be convicted she came west. She did not learn of their sentence until in Waupion prison.

THE TREASURY DEFICIT.

IT WILL BE $12,000,000 for the Past Year and $136,861,812 for Three Years.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The treasury deficit for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1896, will be approximately $12,000,000. This is the opinion of officials and others best qualified to make an intelligent estimate of the result of the fiscal operations of the year. In his annual estimates sent to congress at the beginning of the present session the secretary of the treasury estimated the receipts from customs during the fiscal year at $172,000,000. So far, with nearly ten months of the year gone, the customs receipts have reached about $137,000,000, with a fair prospect of increasing to $165,000,000 by the close of the year. The estimate of the receipts for internal revenue sources was $155,000,000. Up to this time they have reached $139,000,000, and it is expected that the figures for the completed year will be about $148,000,000.

The receipts from miscellaneous sources are expected to slightly exceed the estimates of $15,000,000, making the total receipts for the year about $337,000,000. The secretary's estimate of the year's expenditures was $352,000,000, which, according to his figures, would leave a deficiency of $17,000,000.

The actual expenditures, however, it is now thought, will aggregate about $352,000,000 or $10,000,000 less than Mr. Carlisle's estimate in December last, so that the deficiency at the close of the year, it is believed, will not show any very material change from Saturday's figures—$25,165,423. This makes the total deficit for the three fiscal years ending June 30, 1896, $136,861,812.

The secretary's estimates at the time they were made were believed by those of long experience in the department to be extremely conservative. The receipts from both customs and internal revenue sources, however, have been surprisingly low, and there does not seem to be any immediate prospect of material improvements.

Will Wood will be recalled and subjected, no doubt, to a fierce ordeal of cross examination. It is thought the policy of the defense will be to rely upon chances of error upon taking the case to the court of appeals.
