WHILE Old Fellowship with its poble pluciples is steadlly advancing, the interest of its members in parades and street pageants is decreasing, as was evidenced at Malanoy City on Saturday last, and it requires some thing unusual to work up enthusiasm enough to draw the crowds of a few years ago. Our courts cannot throw too many safeguards around this privilege.

Term amount of figuring upon the probable strength of candidates in the Republican National Convention that is now being done should make the stationary business brisk. Particularly noticeable in this respect are the adherents of Major McKinley, who issue a new list of estimates daily and keep their candidate's name continually before the public. This, of course, has its effect upon the multitude which in many respects is comparable to a flock of sheep which is easily stampeded, so that the londest shouters are apt to draw the unthinking crowd. Why Major McKinley's supporters claim the sole credit for the tariff bill bearing his name is difficult for any reasoning man to understand, except upon the principle of claiming everything. No one who knows muything about the matter believes for one minute that Major McKinley was the author of the bill bearing his mose. It was the work of the party, not of an individual, and while Major McKinley is deserving of great praise for the part he took in usging it through the various stages in the House of Representatives, Speaker Reed had a greater duty to perform and did it unffinehingly, receiving the above of his opponents in the most vehenant language for so doing, while in the Senate M. S. Quay performed yeoman service, as did also Scuator Allison, of Iowa. All of these statesmen deserve honor and credit for their services in passing the tariff bill named after the then chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, and to claim the sole credit, or even the major portion of it for him is trying to close people's eyes by a false claim. While our proference for the Presidential nomination is M. S. Quay, still should the nomination go to Ohio's favorite son we shall accept it as good Republicans but we do not think his managers are justified in making the claims they do and therely belittle the services of others equally meritor ions, some his superiors in statecraft and not diestimi atmosphi.

THE PICKLER PENSION BILL

The House Declues to End Debute on the Measure WASHISGTON, April 28.-After spending two bours on the District of Columbia the house yesterday adopted a special rule for a final vote today on the Pickler pension There was an animated debate over the adoption of the rule. Mr. Crisp charged that its purpose was to destroy the right of amendment and Mr. Hepburn protested against the interference of the committee on rules. Mr. Dingley and Mr. Henderson defended the rule, the purpose of which they asserted was to bring to a vote a bill on which there had already been ample Thirty-four Republicans voted with the Democrats against the adoption of the rule, but it was agreed to—119 to 88. But one amendment was adopted, that of Mr. Hopburn requesting the pension office to construe the pension laws liberally in the interest of the claimant, and requiring decisions in accordance with the preponderance of evidence, The naval appropriation bill was before the senate throughout the day. An amendment offered by Mr. Chandler, making it unlawful for retired naval officers to enter the service of contractors furnishing armor, etc., to the government, occasioned an animated debate, which gradually broadened into a discussion of the entire subject of armor plate. Mr. Tillman was among the most active in support of the amendment, speaking of the efforts to cheat and rob the government and the tendency of millionaire contractors to "thrust their hands into the pocket of Uncle Sam." Mr. Chandler and Mr. Hale supported the amendment and Mr. Gray orted the amendment and Mr. Gray and Mr. Gorman opposed it. The amendment was not disposed of when the senate

THE BERMUDA OFF AGAIN.

Cleared for "Honduras" with a Cargo of Arms and Ammunition.

JACKSONVILLE, April 28.- The steamer Bernuda crossed the St. John's river bar at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. Seventyfive men came over from Fernandina on an early morning train, getting off at Trout Creek. There they were met by the steamer Kate Spencer, which they at once boarded, and were taken down the river and transferred to the Bermuda. The latter ship entered and cleared regularly at the custom house last Sunday night, bound for Port Cortez, Honduras, via Key West. She cleared with a large cargo of arms and munitions of war. Dr. Jose Castillo, the treasurer of the Cuban government, is here again after several weeks' absence. He came to the United States several months ago, bringing $80,000 with him and the engineer of the first Bermuda expedition. The Spanish vice consultalled on the government officials yesterday and obtained a copy of the manifest of the cargo of the vessel, but took no steps in the matter. The collector of customs says the clearance papers are all regular, and nothing could have been done to stop the sailing of the steamer.

Valuable Vessel and Cargo Lost, but All the Crew Were Saved.

NEW YORK, April 28.— The firm of Charles R. Flint & Co. yesterday received information that their four masted steel sailing ship Charles R. Flint, the only merchant vossel flying the flag of Nicara-gua, was burned off the coast of Brazil on Tuesday last. The ship caught fire last August, and later Charles R. Flint & Co. purchased the wreck and made repairs costing $50,000. The government refused to grant an American register, however on the ground that the firm had spent only one-half, and not two-thirds of the cost of the vessel, as required by law. The Flint was once the English ship Cairne-

My memory was almost gone and every little thing worried me until I was almost distracted I really feared I was becoming a maniac. I imagined all sorts of evil things and would cry over nothing. I commenced taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and four bottles of this wonderful remedy completely cured me, and I am as well now as I ever was."

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on guarantee, first bottle will benefit or money refunded.
