DEATH PENALTY FOR TREASON

That is the Sentence Pronounced on the Transvaal "Reformers."

COMMUTED BY PRESIDENT KRUGER

The British Government and Members of Congress Appealed to President Kruger for Leniency—Our Government Working to Save the Life of Hammond.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

PRETORIA, April 29, 1:30 p. m.—President Kruger, of the Transvaal Republic, has commuted the sentence of death passed yesterday upon John Hays Hammond, Francis Rhodes, Lionel Phillips and George Farrar, the Uitlanders who pleaded guilty to high treason in connection with the raid of Dr. Jameson.

LONDON, April 29.—The secretary of state for the colonies, Joseph Chamberlain, announced in the house of commons yesterday that the five leaders of the reform committee of Johannesburg, J. H. Hammond, Francis Rhodes, George Farrar, Lionel Phillips and Charles Leonard, have been condemned to death.

Mr. Chamberlain added that upon hearing the news he cabled to the governor of Cape Colony, Sir Hercules Robinson, to communicate the following to President Kruger:

"The government have just learned that the sentence of death has been passed upon JOHN HAYS HAMMOND, the five leaders of the reform committee. They can feel no doubt that your honor will commute the sentence, and have assured parliament of their conviction that this is your honor's intention."

W. J. Galloway, Conservative, member for Southwest Manchester, asked whether the law under which the leaders of the Johannesburg reform committee were tried does not provide for the confiscation of their property in the event of conviction, and not for the imposing of the death penalty.

Mr. Chamberlain said he was unable to answer the question. While Mr. Chamberlain's announcement is thought to have increased the gravity of the situation in South Africa, there is an inner ring of politicians who are inclined to think that the whole matter is the result of a deal between the prisoners and the Boer authorities, and that the former obtained the assurance that their sentences would be commuted before they pleaded guilty to the charge of high treason.

The Chartered South Africa company has received a cable dispatch from Johannesburg, giving further details of the judgment of the high court at Pretoria in the case of the members of the national reform committee. This dispatch states that in addition to the sentence of death passed upon the leaders of the reform committee sixty other members have been sentenced to two years' imprisonment, a fine of £2,000, and three years' subsequent banishment. The dispatch adds: "There is great excitement here, and unless the sentences are speedily commuted trouble is expected."

The Daily News (Liberal) says: "The sentences inflicted on the rank and file are a greater surprise to African circles in London than were the death sentences. It is understood that one motive of the leaders in pleading guilty was the desire to secure greater leniency in the treatment of the rank and file. The latter include all the leading men on the raid—Barney Barnato's nephew, Josi; the Turkish consul, Bettelheim; ex-attorney general of the cape, J. W. Leonard; and the following Americans: Captain Mein, J. S. Curtis, Clement Lawley, Lingham and H. J. King. What is more significant is that they mostly have relations with other South African states."

The Chronicle says that it believes the value of the property of the men who have been condemned to death will amount to $50,000,000.

THE EFFORT TO SAVE HAMMOND. Senators and Representatives Appeal to President Kruger.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—When Senator Stewart, who is a personal friend of John Hays Hammond, heard of his sentence to death he immediately prepared a petition in Mr. Hammond's behalf, which he had circulated among senators and members of the house. The petition was signed by all to whom it was presented. It is addressed to President Kruger, and is as follows:

"The undersigned, members of the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, respectfully represent that John Hays Hammond is a citizen of the United States and a man of high character, connected with the best families of this country, and an engineer of ability. We regret exceedingly his unfortunate connection with the troubles in your country, for which all our people enertain feelings of kindness and respect. In view of the unimpeachable character of Mr. Hammond in his own country, and the high standing of his friends and relations, we earnestly ask for him your most kindly consideration. If your excellency would extend to him a pardon for his offenses against your government we would esteem it an especial compliment to us, as well as to the people of the United States. Hoping that you will relieve Mr. Hammond from the penalty of his associations we are your most obedient servants."

Hammond's case was referred to yesterday's cabinet meeting, and although the state department authorized no statement concerning the case further than making public a cablegram from Mr. Knight, our vice consul at Capetown, predicting a commutation of his sentence, it cannot be doubted that the government will do all within its power to secure an amelioration of Hammond's sentence, inasmuch as he is regarded as rather a victim of circumstances than as a deliberate conspirator against the Boer government. It is believed, however, that even before the machinery of the department can be set in motion Hammond's sentence will have been commuted.

It is felt at the state department that it has been criticized rather unjustly in congress and elsewhere upon its conduct of Hammond's case. The United States has no diplomatic representative whatever in the Transvaal, nor can it have so long as the foreign relations of that country are confined by treaty to Great Britain, and it would be a manifest violation of propriety and international law for the United States to ignore Great Britain in this matter, and particularly so in view of the alliance with which the British government has responded to our request for the protection of Americans in the Transvaal. Mr. Hammond graduated from the scientific department of Yale in 1879, and afterward pursued his studies in mining in one of the German universities. Returning to the United States, he had a very successful career in the western states and territories as an expert mining engineer. Several years ago, while in London, Mr. Hammond was engaged by Cecil Rhodes to go to the Transvaal and take charge of his large engineering operations at a salary of $50,000 a year, which was afterwards increased to $100,000. Mr. Hammond has the reputation of being one of the foremost mining engineers in the world.

Colonel Francis Rhodes, another of the Johannesburg "reformers" who has been condemned to death, is a brother of Mr. Cecil Rhodes, the ex-premier of Cape Colony and the head and front of the South African propaganda. Colonel Rhodes has long been active in South African affairs, and is only less distinguished than his better known brother.

Dr. Jameson's Trial Again Postponed.

LONDON, April 29.—The trial of Dr. Jameson, the Transvaal raider, and his associates, was resumed at the Bow street police court yesterday. The court was crowded, among those present being Ladies Foley, Methuen, Chesterfield and Sheppard and Mrs. Bayard, wife of the United States ambassador. After immaterial evidence had been presented the trial was again adjourned until June 11 to permit the arrival of important witnesses from South Africa.

The P. O. S. of A. Anniversary.

A meeting of Washington Camp No. 112, P. O. S. of A., was held last evening and final arrangements were made for the celebration of the camp's 27th anniversary, which will take place in Ferguson's theatre next Monday evening. Invitations for the event were given to members present for distribution and members who have not received any can procure them of the committee, B. J. Yeat, A. B. Lamb, George H. Krick, Joseph Lehmer and L. A. Bamberger. The program for the celebration will not be so lengthy as to become tiresome and will have many sparkling features, prominent among them being an address on "Immigration" by Clarence F. Ruth, State President of the P. O. S. of A. The Schuppe orchestra will render selections for half an hour before the opening and also at intervals during the evening.

Draper Colliery Resumes.

The Draper colliery, which suspended operations on the 2nd inst. to allow a change in the location of engines and the connection of the new rope hole with the second lift of the Mammoth slope, resumed operations yesterday and everything worked satisfactorily. Two cars are now hoisted from the fifth lift, instead of one, and this materially increases the production of the colliery.

If you want a fine wedding cake, let Otto make it for you.

MURDER TRIALS LOOMING!

Making Preparations to Try Eisenhower and Minella.

THE FORMER TO BE TRIED FIRST

He Has an Array of Counsel—Congressman Brumm and Dyson and Haughwout Will Make the Battle for Him—Photographs Taken of the Scenes.

The attaches of the District Attorney's office in Pottsville are busy getting ready to try two Shenandoah murder cases. One is the case of Theodore Eisenhower, who shot and killed John Schwandt in mistake for his brother, William. The other is the case of Mike Minella, the Italian charged with shooting and killing Joe Zukowski in the fight on West Coal street.

The case which will arouse the greatest interest is that of Eisenhower, as it is expected that the defense will try to wash considerable dirt upon in court to show that the victim's brother brought about the tragedy by relations with Eisenhower's wife, and that the prisoner was really insane and not responsible for his act.

It is quite evident that a strong fight will be made in behalf of the accused. He will be represented at the trial by Congressman N. Brumm, George Dyson and E. W. Haughwout, Esqs. This far District Attorney Bechtel is the only one slated to prosecute the case, but it is quite likely that he will be assisted by private counsel. It is expected that the case will be tried on the 11th of May.

This afternoon Deputy District Attorney McLaughlin came to town with a photographer and went over the scenes of both crimes. Two large views were taken of each and they will be used by the prosecution on the trial of the case. People at the place where the views were taken were used to designate the assailants and their victims. They were placed by Mr. McLaughlin, who acquainted himself with the details upon a visit to town a few days ago, and was assisted by Detective Amour, who has been doing special work in connection with the cases.

While the District Attorney is pushing his arrangements to try Minella, the Italian, it is not likely that the case will be tried during the May term. M. M. Burke, Esq., represents Minella and will probably have additional counsel.

The bridal couple received numerous and handsome presents. There were in attendance at the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Broughall, Mr. and Mrs. James Broughall, Mrs. William Broughall, Messrs. William and Edward Broughall, Miss Lizzie Broughall, Mr. and Mrs. William Kerslake, Mrs. Mary Kerslake, Messrs. Thomas and Walter Kerslake, Mr. and Mrs. William Loucks, Mrs. Isaac Davies, Messrs. Among the numbers will be an address by Rev. H. G. Main, of Cambria. All Odd Fellows residing in Shenandoah and vicinity, not members of the local lodges, are cordially invited to attend.

Hammer Recovering.

W. Louis Hammer, the fireman of the Lost Creek civil engineering corps who was taken ill in the Primrose colliery, Mahanoy City, a few days ago, has recovered sufficiently to go to Pottsville and will spend two weeks there with his parents. He suffers from congestion of the kidneys, which Dr. W. N. Stein, of town, says was brought on by a strain received in a fall.

A Drop in Glass.

About a third of the plate glass in one of the large windows of the First National Bank has dropped out. A new pane has been ordered. The old pane was cracked in a curious manner several months ago. During the evolutions of a drum major's baton in the parade of a theatrical company the knob of the baton flew off and shot through the pane of glass that has now collapsed.
