ILLINOIS IS FOR M'KINLEY.

The Ohio Statesman Overwhelms the Forces of Senator Cullom.

THE LATTER YIELDS GRACEFULLY

He Declares That the Illinois Delegates, Having Received Their Instructions, Will Loyal Support McKinley at the National Republican Convention.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 1.—William McKinley, Jr., of Ohio, is the choice of the Republicans of Illinois for president of the United States. He was so declared at the state convention here yesterday. While Senator Cullom and his backers met with defeat, they met it gracefully, and announced their determination to lend their heartiest co-operation for the election of Major McKinley.

The greatest interest began when Charles Fuller, of Boone county, introduced the following:

Resolved, That the delegates to be elected by this convention to the Republican national convention be and are hereby instructed to present to said national convention the name of Hon. Shelby M. Cullom as Illinois' candidate for president of the United States, and to use all honorable means to secure his nomination.

The reading of this was the cause of the most uproarious applause that had occurred in the convention. For fully five minutes there were cheers from the galleries and by delegates. The chairman rapped his gavel in vain to restore order, but in spite of all he could do the applause continued. When order was finally restored and the resolution was read by the secretary there followed another uproar.

Mr. Fuller's speech in support of the resolution was followed by long and furious cheering.

When it had abated Sol Bethen, of Leo county, arose and moved that the name of William McKinley, Jr., of Ohio, be substituted for that of Shelby M. Cullom. At this the cheering broke out with even more force than before. By actual time the applause lasted four minutes. W. J. Calhoun then took the platform to speak in behalf of McKinley, and his speech was liberally punctuated with applause. William McKinley, he concluded, "is the leading man of the hour."

The uproarious cheering was renewed as he ceased to speak. Delegates and visitors in the galleries got upon the chairs, threw their hats in the air and yelled like wild men.

A delegate offered an amendment instructing the delegates for Reed or Allison in case McKinley failed of the nomination, but this was voted down.

An attempt to lay the resolutions on the table was then made by the Cullom men, but this was defeated by a vote of 563 yeas to 322 nays.

Furious cheering followed the announcement. Then Mr. Fuller moved that the resolutions instructing the national delegates at large for McKinley be made unanimous.

Upon hearing this motion from the leader of Cullom's forces the McKinley followers broke out again. Martin B. Madden, in behalf of the delegates from Cook county, seconded the motion, which was carried unanimously.

Following is the ticket chosen in the convention: For governor, John R. Tanner of Clay county; lieutenant governor, W. A. Northcott of Bond county; secretary of state, J. A. Ross of Pope county; state auditor, J. R. McCullough of Champagne county; treasurer, Henry L. Hertz of Cook county; attorney general, E. C. Alken of Will county; state university trustees, Mrs. Mary Turner Carriel of Jacksonville, F. M. McCay of Chicago, and T. J. Smith of Champagne.

Delegates-at-large, William Penn Nixon, R. W. Patterson, ex-Governor Joseph W. Fifer and ex-Governor Richard J. Oglesby.

Presidential electors-at-large, Rabid C. Hirsch and Hon. Horace D. Clark.

Senator Cullom gave out the following statement today regarding the result of the convention:

"The Republicans of Illinois, in their state convention, have shown that they want the delegates-at-large to support Major McKinley for president. That action is binding and conclusive. It is not to be construed as unfriendly to any of the other candidates, but as an expression of their preference. Every Republican in Illinois will accept it. Personally I have no fault to find. That some of my friends gave the preference to Major McKinley was perhaps natural, as he has been in the minds of the people as a candidate for the last two years. If Major McKinley should be nominated it will be because of the popular belief that he most thoroughly typifies these cardinal principles of the Republican party which are embodied in our platform."

McKinley's Arizona Supporters.

PHOENIX, A. T., May 1.—Despite the adjournment sine die of the opposing faction on Wednesday night, the McKinley convention met yesterday and perfected an organization with seventy-two members, and proceeded with the work. Delegates to St. Louis were elected, the candidacy of McKinley was endorsed, and the delegates were instructed to vote for him upon the first ballot and upon all other ballots. Statehood and home rule were advocated. The money plank favors the free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1.

Cyclist Killed by a Trolley Car.

PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—While attempting to steer a passageway on his bicycle along a pile of lumber, several wagons and a trolley car last evening, L. A. Conway fell from his machine and the wheels of the car passed over his neck, causing instant death. Conway was hurrying to join his wife and two children at a family tea party in his mother's house.

THE EIGHT HOUR DAY.

New York Carpenters Expect No Trouble in Its Inauguration.

NEW YORK, May 1.—The movement for the eight hour work day which was inaugurated seven years ago by the American Federation of Labor will be duly celebrated in this vicinity today and tomorrow. The United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of the trans-Harlem and Westchester districts, numbering about 1,400, have completed all their arrangements for the celebration and enforcement of the eight hour law, and expect that a big majority of the members in that territory will get shorter hours without any difficulty. No trouble is expected to be anticipated, and the movement above the Harlem river will be directed by the carpenters' district councils under the personal supervision of General President of the Brotherhood C. E. Owens, who is a resident of Westchester.

It was expected that the horsehoofers of this city, Brooklyn and Jersey City would take part in the short day movement, but it is claimed that they are not in a position to make a stand through insufficient organization. During the past few years the horsehoofers made by cable, electric and other horseless means of transportation have thrown a large number of horsehoofers out of employment, and the men are therefore very careful not to take any action which might prove unsuccessful.

A good many of the new agreements of labor organizations in this city go into effect today, among them being several sections of the building trades, painters and laborers. The mineral water bottlers and drivers may strike for the enforcement of the new agreement, but nothing definite has been announced as to their intentions.

Heavy Sentences for Assault.

PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—Wallace McGee and Joseph Dinsmore, ex-employees of the Union Traction company, were on trial before Judge Yerkes yesterday for aggravated assault on several non-union men. They pleaded guilty, and were sentenced to pay a fine of $500 in each case, to undergo an imprisonment of three years at hard labor in the Eastern penitentiary, and to enter bail in the sum of $500 each to keep the peace for five years from the date of commitment. James Campbell, for assault on a non-union conductor, was sentenced to the Eastern penitentiary at hard labor for two years.

Philadelphia Strike a Failure.

PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—The strike of street car men in this city has proved a disastrous failure. The men generally refused to obey the order to quit work, though it is claimed by some of the leaders that the strike order was not looked upon as official. Of 1,307 cars, 1,243 were in operation, and when it was seen, during the early morning, that the men were seeking to their cars many who had intended to strike reported at their regular times. About 800 men have lost their situations through the strike failure. There were only two or three slight disturbances.

A Hundred Miners Entombed.

LONDON, May 1.—An explosion occurred in the Micklefield colliery, in Yorkshire, yesterday, cutting off the escape of 100 men who are now entombed in the mine. Searching parties are endeavoring to find and rescue them. Twenty injured persons were taken out by the rescuers, but the searchers since have not been able to find signs that any others are alive. The explosion is ascribed to the use of naked lights.

ODD FELLOWS CELEBRATE!

Large Gathering in Ferguson's Theatre Last Evening.

MUSICAL AND LITERARY EVENT!

Addresses Made by R. A. Davenport and H. E. Dengler, of Town, and Rev. H. G. Main, of Cumbola.—The Program a Pleasing One.

The celebration of Odd Fellowship anniversary in Ferguson's theatre last night, by Shenandoah Lodge No. 591, J. W. Stokes No. 513 and Plank Ridge No. 889 proved a very pleasing, entertaining and instructive affair and the large audience was evidently thoroughly satisfied with the evening spent. The program was of a musical and literary character and a couple of addresses were introduced with good effect, in that they served to bring out some points on the objects and principles of Odd Fellowship and kindred organizations that were perhaps new to many in the audience. One of the addresses was by Mr. H. E. Dengler, of town. He spoke of the advantages to be gained socially and morally through the influence of such organizations and the good that can be done in many ways by members among suffering humanity. In this connection he gave his interpretation of the true spirit of charity and indicated the manner in which benevolently society should exercise it. One of the most important steps in an organization, he said, is to have every member receive a full conception of the objects and principles.

Rev. H. G. Main, of Cumbola, was the second speaker and devoted considerable time to a consideration of the motto of Odd Fellowship, "Friendship, Love and Truth." Mr. Main's talk was exhaustive, but interesting. He spent some time in explaining the full weight and significance of each term in the motto and refuted the statement that it is impossible for one to live a life in strict accordance with the motto.

The entertainment opened with the singing of an Odd Fellows ode by the audience and Rev. H. G. Main followed with prayer. R. A. Davenport, the chairman, followed with a few remarks of welcome. The following, with addresses referred to, constituted the program for the balance of the evening: Singing, "The Lord's Prayer," J. J. Price and party; recitation, "Jim Root's Ride," Lewis Lehe; vocal solo, "Turkham Toll," Miss Katie Jones; violin solo, Miss Eva Gable; recitation, "Annie Laurie," Miss Mahala B. Fairchild; trio, "Mark the Merry Elves," Misses Kate and Emma and William Jones, of Wm. Penn; piano solo, Miss Emma Zimmerman; quartette, "Friendship, Love and Song," Misses Lizzie and Gwendolyn Reese and Messrs. Walters and Price; recitation, "Ode to Joe," Miss Annie Williams; overture, "The Light Keeper's Daughter," recitation, "Peter Long Pocket," Miss May I. Seltzer; "Solomon Levi," Amusement Glee Club; solo, "Autumn Longing," Miss Annie Kline; cornet solo, Miss Sallie Beddall; recitation, "Nobody's Child," Miss Lizzie Smith; glee, "Ambella," J. J. Price and party; "Michael Roy," Amusement Glee Club; recitation, "Our Presidents," John Bitler; "Ye Breccas of Morning," Price and party.

At Breen's Rialto Cafe.

Delicious clam chowder will be served as free lunch to-night during and between the acts.
Free hot lunch every morning.
Meals served at all hours.

The Wages Basis.

The miners and mine workers of the Shenoykill region will be paid their wages at the $2.50 basis for the last half of April and the first half of May. This is the second consecutive month that the wages will be at the basis rate, showing a steady condition of the market. The collieries drawn to ascertain the rate of wages for the current month fixed the average at 2.49-7, and the rate of wages will be at the $2.50 basis.

Kendrick House Free Lunch.

Clam chowder to-night.
Hot lunch to-morrow morning.

Must Make Returns.

The Assessors throughout the county have been notified by the County Commissioners that they must insist upon sworn returns from taxables as to money at interest and if no return is made the Assessor is to make one according to his own judgment, with a penalty of 50 per cent. added. These orders have been issued in pursuance to instructions received from the state's Attorney General.

Eye Removed.

John McCormick, of East Centre street, had his right eye removed at the Wills' eye hospital in Philadelphia yesterday. About five months ago Mr. McCormick felt an itching sensation in the eye, but paid little attention to it. Inflammation set in and the eye grew worse so rapidly that only an operation could save the other eye.
