question often asked,

A Path addition woman, in her will, gave her two unmarried daughters the income of her $12,000 estate for life as long as they remain unmarried. Marriage may be a lottery, but a sensible woman who invests therein ought to be able to draw a prize worth more than the interest on $6,000. But, alas! how many have drawn worse than blanks.

How the cause of temperance is to be promoted by the introduction of free silver as one of the objects to be advocated by the Prohibition party is a question which the leaders of the organization may possibly understand; but which to outsiders is certainly a mystery.

For cowred the saidede of a man in Pittsbarg over the failure of the Combine, a. person in New York has become insane through worrying over the X rays. The nomination of a Domescratic county ticket and the selection of a water commissioner for this borosigh are yet to hear from, and no man can foretell the disastrous results.

Is the opening part of his sermon at the funeral of the late Hamilton Disston, of Philladelphia, Dr. Colfelt said: "We have made many wonderful discoveries in our age. We have climbed the sky and plucked thence the lightning. We have penetrated the earth and last bare many a secret. But what discovery have we made about death? A thousand years ago a great Druid King held a solemn council as to whether his nation should accept or reject Christianity. While they were delating the subject a bird flew in at one of the great windows, flashed across the half amid the glare of terches, and then flew out of the opposite window and disappeared in the darkness from whence it came. The king said sadly : 'Our life is just like that; the flatter of wings across a lighted hall, a memerstary flight between two circuities; out of the darkness we came, back into the darkness we disappear. Who can explain whence we are, wither we get?"

The delegates were evidently pleased when the question was finally disposed of, Roy. Dr. J. M. Buckley, editor of the New York Christian Advocate, speaking of the like that; the flatter of wings across a Altogether the evening was a most enjoy-able one. A very large audience listened to the speakers with rapt attention.

THE WOMEN DELEGATES.

Methodists Will Now Vote on a Proposed Constitutional Change.

es the Methodist general conference de-cided yesterday that the four women dele-gates might retain their seats. This does not mean that the women have won a complete victory. The decision was reached simply as the result of a compromise, and with the undestanding that it should not with the understanding that it should not projudice the claims of women in the future or establish a precedent for future conferences to follow. But by the same vote by which the women were given seats the conference also decided to submit to.

BANK ROBBERS FOILED.

The Burglar Alarm Summoned a Posse of Armed Citizens.

Lacon, Ills., May 3.—The little town of Washburn, Woodford county, was the scene of a raid by bank robbers on Wednesday night, and as a result one of the desperadoes is lying in the county jail at Metamora, severely shot in the neck and back. The private banking house of Ireland & Son was entered by the back win-dow, but the moment they got inside the building the burglar alarm started song ringing in the house of Charles Ireland, the junior member of the firm, and he armed himself immediately and started out to raise a posse. He gathered a dozen men and surrounded the bank, arriving there in time to hear an explosion the robbers made on the vault door.

The explosion blew out the tumbler to the lock only, and while the men were making ready for another blast the possi-made a noise and three men dashed our the back door, to be mot by a volley of shot and bullets. They held the first crowd at buy with a volley from their revolvers, but as they turned the corner of the bank another squad fired into them, and one rob ber fell with nineteen large shot in his back and neck. The other two men got away, although the trall of blood showed that one of them was wounded. The cap-tured robber says his name is Bill Wilson. Further than that he will not speak
