REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE,
GALUSHA A. GROW,
Of Susquehanna.
SAMUEL A. DAVENPORT,
Of Erie.

BECAUSE the editor of a paper in Tamaqua wore patched trousers a woman poked fun at him, and the editor retaliated by suing her husband for $40 unpaid subscription. The moral would seem to be that the editor is the last man in the world for a delinquent to have fun with.

THE blood-thirstiness of General Weyler has received a check in the case of the alleged filibusters captured on the Competitor, the Spanish authorities at Madrid having yielded to Secretary Olney's demand for time to inquire further into the cases of the American citizens who were captured on the unlucky vessel.

MAJOR JAMES WELLS, of Boyertown, formerly of this county and a first defender, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in Berks county. A few years ago this nomination did not count for much, but the Democratic majority in "Alt Barrieks" has been dwindling at the same rapid rate it has been going elsewhere, so that many people will be surprised to learn there is a fighting chance for a good Republican there.

DOUBT is expressed by gentlemen learned in the law whether the latest act of President Cleveland, in placing some 20,000 additional offices within the scope of the CIVIL Service act, is binding on his successor. It is held in some quarters that what one President can do another can undo, and that not only the first but the second batch of offices that Mr. Cleveland has transferred from the "spoils" to the competitive system may be restored by his successor to the arena of political contest. Whether those who hold the affirmative of this proposition or their opponents are in the right this much is obvious: Mr. Cleveland made the change of relation and method of appointment from purely Clevelandian motives, which no amount of humbug or hypocrisy can obscure. For many years to come, unless Congress shall decree otherwise, the public service will be staffed with Mugwumps, and of the army of Federal office holders those who are in full political sympathy with succeeding Administrations will be a minority.

SOUND MONEY PLATFORM.

While the question as to who will be the presidential nominee at St. Louis, when the Republican caucus gather at that city, is still in doubt, it appears to be a settled fact that the platform will declare for the single gold standard. Leaders in the various states who are not supporters of Major McKinley, and who decline to concede his nomination in advance of the national convention, may within the next two weeks concentrate their forces upon some particular candidate; and it is more than likely to be Pennsylvania's "favorite son." He is sound on the money question, where McKinley is weakest. If the lines are drawn sharply on the financial question, and the anti-McKinley people concentrate their forces, as suggested above, some one besides the Ollivan will head the ticket.

Strenuous politicians, as well as prominent business men, assert with much positiveness that McKinley's great danger lies in his continued silence on the financial question. The gold standard is an issue which the practical politician must recognize, and it is threatening the Napoleon of Protection more seriously than his friends have any notion of. The New York Advertiser says: "The strongest possible effort will be made to have the convention declare for it. It will be the great fight at the convention. It can only be won by aggressive organization. That same organization which champions it will name the candidate. It will only name one whose views are steadily in harmony with the issue. It will not accept silence, for it will demand something more than mere acquiescence. Mr. McKinley has thus far been silent. His danger is real. His silence has given to his opponents their great opportunity. Should that silence continue for another two weeks the leaders believe they can defeat him, and they have substantial reasons for their belief."

This week all but two or three of the states will have held their state and congressional conventions, and then will come the windy. Notwithstanding the assertion of Dave Martin that McKinley will have twenty-seven votes from Pennsylvania, our telegraphic despatches of yesterday showed that Senator Quay will receive 60 votes out of a total of 61 from the Keystone state. Martin, Magee and Flynn are for McKinley, not that they love him more, but because they hate Quay for thwarting them in their attempts to rule this state as they did Philadelphia and Pittsburg. Were they influenced by honest motives they would be respected for their action, but as it is they command neither the respect of those they profess to serve nor the friends of Senator Quay. Pennsylvania has spoken, and every loyal son, who has a spark of state pride in his breast and who is not influenced by dishonorable motives, will support the "favorite son" of Pennsylvania until it is shown conclusively that he cannot be acquitted.

CONFERENCE AT SHAMOKIN.

Proceedings of the Primitive Methodist Delegates Yesterday.

SHAMOKIN, May 12.—Matters relative to work in the western part of the conference received the consideration of the Primitive Methodist delegates in session here yesterday and after some deliberation was referred to the attending and missionary committee. The Pottsville society and property was taken up and steps taken toward making the society there more permanently efficient.

The book room agent read his report, which was a very gratifying one. Rev. W. H. Acourley, of Plymouth, has been very successful the past two years in this department and received hearty thanks by a standing vote of the conference. The profits from sale of books, &c., were large, far exceeding any former year.

The publishing committee's report showed fair profits. After the reading of the bible and tract report Dr. Baileman made an address in favor of the American Bible and Tract Society, emphasizing the work of that grand old society, also urging our churches to greater interest in their work by some tangible means, saying he was afraid there was a danger of our being lax on this line. He asked permission that an offering be taken to help that work. Permission being granted the offering was taken and a neat little sum was at once sent to the secretary of the society.

After a few pleasant remarks from the pastors desiring the conference a vote was taken and the favor of entertaining the conference on the first Thursday of May, 1897, was given to Scranton.

An important piece of legislation discussed was the removal of the time limit, which is five years at present. It was evident that the conference was in favor of the removal. It was, however, finally decided that the matter be submitted to the societies and a vote taken early in July.

Last evening a public meeting of the Wesley League convention was held. Rev. J. Proude presided.

Jackson White, of Shenandoah, spent two days at the conference.

Mrs. C. Parrish, of Shenandoah, was a Sunday attendant at the conference.

Rev. Bath's family arrived here Saturday to spend a few days.

CHILD BAPTIZED.

The holy ceremony of baptism according to the rites of the Jewish faith was performed upon the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Goldin, who will henceforth be known as Wolf Goldin, by Revs. Joseph Ballin, of Mahanoy City, and Isadore H. Mitnick, of town, this morning. M. R. Alpoon, the oldest Jewish resident of town, acted as godfather, with Harry and Jennie Goldin as alternates. The ceremony was witnessed by about 50 people, who afterwards partook of an elegant repast in honor of the event. Speeches were made by Revs. Joseph Ballin and Isadore H. Mitnick, M. R. Alpoon, and L. Refowich, president of the Kabbalah Israel congregation.

A Big Parade Promised.

The Red Men of Schuylkill Haven are receiving many replies from lodges all over Eastern Pennsylvania, expressing their intention of being present to participate in the parade of the order to take place in that borough on Memorial Day, May 30th. The indications point to a big demonstration.

Pay Day.

The employees of the P. & R. C. & I. Co., in the Ashland and Girardville district, will be paid to-morrow.

Broken by a Ball.

A large sheet of plate glass at Smith's grocery on West Centre street was broken this morning by some young men engaged in playing base ball.

The Brooklyn Premium Winner.

DELAWARE BREAKWATER, May 12.—The new cruiser Brooklyn was given her unofficial trial trip yesterday. She accomplished the splendid speed of 21.07 knots an hour on a run of three hours under forced draught. This is over a knot faster than the speed called for in the contract, and insures a premium for her builders, the Cramps, of over $200,000, at the rate of $50,000 for each quarter knot in excess of twenty knots, there being no room for reasonable doubt that she will at least equal yesterday's speed on her official trial.

Possible Split in Illinois.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The report is in circulation here that the Democratic outcome in Illinois may be two delegations to the national convention and two Democratic state tickets. John C. Black, expansion commissioner, heading one, and Governor Altgeld the other.

Sentenced to Life Imprisonment.

RUFFALO, May 12.—Ex-Police Captain Michael Sammon, found guilty of the murder of Police Sergeant Timothy Cantlin, was yesterday sentenced to imprisonment for life in Auburn prison.

Senator Wallace Still Unconscious.

NEW YORK, May 12.—The condition of ex-United States Senator William A. Wallace was reported as extremely critical at midnight. He is still unconscious.

Big Carpet Mills Burned Down.

MOUNT HOLEY, N. J., May 12.—The Amber Carpet mills operated by C. S. Masland & Son, of Philadelphia, and covering three acres of ground here, were totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The loss will aggregate $300,000, covered by insurance. The plant consisted of four large buildings, only one of which was saved. This contained $100,000 worth of made up carpets. Five hundred hands are thrown out of employment.

Attacked at Her Own Home.

ALTOONA, Pa., May 12.—Mrs. Thomas Gates, wife of a city passenger railway motorman, was assaulted on her own premises, in the southern suburbs of the city, Sunday night by Thomas Cox, a neighbor. Her screams frightened Cox away. An angry mob surrounded Cox's house and threatened to lynch him, but he was rescued by the police and sent to jail to await trial.

Storm Damage in Maine.

AUGUSTA, May 12.—Reports from surrounding towns show that Sunday night's wind and rain storm caused extensive damage. More than fifty barns in this vicinity were wrecked, and the total loss upon property, it is thought, will reach $50,000. The wind blew with hurricane velocity, accompanied by thunder, lightning and heavy rain.

Carpenter's Trial Fixed.

BELVIDERE, N. J., May 12.—Samuel Carpenter, of Easton, charged with murdering Ray Blackwell at Phillipsburg in April, 1895, pleaded not guilty before the court, and his trial was fixed for July 7. Carpenter is now in jail here, having surrendered himself voluntarily.

Addicks Defeats Higgins.

WILMINGTON, Del., May 11.—J. Edward Addicks scored a signal victory on Saturday at the election for delegates to the Republican state convention, and will now head the Delaware delegation to St. Louis. While he has been silent as to his preference for president, and has been credited with inclinations toward Quay, there is little doubt that he will drop in with the general drift to McKinley. The Higgins leaders are making claims of success, but the returns do not sustain them. Addicks will control the convention by at least twenty majority.

Terribly Beaten by Footpads.

RETHLEBEM, Pa., May 11.—Owen Maloney was held up while walking on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western tracks at Delawanna and frightfully beaten by two men. Maloney had been visiting friends in Passaic, and started from that place at 10 p. m. to walk to his home in Delawanna. Maloney fought desperately when assaulted, and finally drove the two men off, but he was so terribly beaten that when he arrived at his home he became unconscious. His condition is critical.

Both Held for Trial.

LANCASTER, Pa., May 11.—Miss Bertha McConnell, who shot Harry Thompson at the Keystone House, this city, on the morning of March 31, and later in the day shot herself at her home in Contoosville, had a hearing before Alderman Cummins on Saturday, and was held in $500 bail for trial, her father becoming security. Thompson was also held for unfaithfulness, and he too furnished bail.

I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and before I had taken a fourth of a bottle I was very much better. I also used Hood's Pills and found them splendid, very mild, yet effective. I cannot say enough in praise for what they have done for me. Since using two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills occasionally I feel almost like a new person. A Kentucky Lynching.
FULTON, Ky., May 12.—One of the three negroes implicated in the cutting of City Marshal Walker here Saturday was arrested by a telegraph operator at Arlington, Ky., a few miles north of Fulton. In arresting him the operator shot the negro above the left lung. The negro was brought to Fulton and taken in charge by Sheriff Purdie, but the mob which had gathered at the depot rushed madly upon the negro and swung him up. He confessed his guilt while under arrest at Arlington. The other two negroes implicated are still at large.

Schoolhouse Struck by Lightning.
RETHLEBEM, Pa., May 12.—During yesterday afternoon's storm the schoolhouse at Rethlebens, near here, was struck by lightning. The school was in session at the time. The bolt struck the roof and ran down the wall. The ceilings of the school rooms were broken and the doors rent. Nearly 40 children were in the building at the time, but only slight injuries were sustained by a small number. The presence of mind of the teachers averted a panic among the little ones, and all were safely dismissed.

EXECUTIONS DELAYED.

The Spanish Government Yields to Secretary Olney's Demand.

TO REVIEW THE COMPETITOR CASES

Even Should General Weyler's Desire for Vengeance Prevail the Executions Would be Delayed Several Weeks—There Will Probably be a Civil Trial.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Concerning the sentence of death imposed by the court martial at Havana on the prisoners captured on the American schooner Competitor, it can be authoritatively stated that at the request of the United States the Spanish government will postpone execution of the death sentences upon American citizens until the views of the United States government respecting the application of their cases of the treaty of 1765 and the protocol of 1877 can be presented and considered.

The above announcement means a delay of some weeks, at least, in the attempt to carry out the sentences. The matter will be made the subject of correspondence on the interpretation to be given the treaty provisions, and meanwhile popular excitement both here and in Spain will have time to become allayed. It is stated here on the highest authority that the Spanish minister has advised his government to commute the sentences of the Americans captured on the Competitor, and that there is good reason to believe that his advice will be followed. It is expected that in the end the Americans will be fully pardoned, unless, after a civil trial, fairly and dispassionately conducted, they shall be found guilty. In that event the sentence of the civil court will probably be carried out without protest from our government.

AS VIEWED IN LONDON.

The Graphic Compares the Competitor Case to the Jameson Raid.

LONDON, May 12.—The Graphic, commenting upon the question at issue between the United States and Spain over the men sentenced to death at Havana, compares the Competitor cases to the Jameson raid, and says: "England sympathizes with the United States, looking at the scandalous misgovernment in Cuba. But the analogy collapses when the attitude of the United States to its own raiders is compared with England's to hers. What would Europe have said if Mr. Chamberlain had talked to President Kruger as Mr. Olney talks to Spain? We trust, however, that Spain will show clemency to the filibusters, for the knowledge that she will not do so twice may help to put Mr. Olney on his guard and to moderate the enthusiasm of the Florida Cubanophiles."

The Times says in an editorial: "Spain is well advised in yielding to Mr. Olney's demand for delay. She has thus averted an explosion of popular indignation in the United States which no administration, however pacifically disposed, could have resisted. It is extremely fortunate that the sentences have not been summarily executed, so that Spain is able to avert an unappeasable quarrel. It will not be denied that Spain has the right on her side, but to insist upon the letter of her rights would be in the highest degree impolitic. The United States can make a strong case on merely technical grounds. Captain General Weyler's attitude could be better understood if he had had any success in dealing with the insurgents. Whatever the explanation may be, circumstances seem to be rapidly settling the Cuban question, and very unfavorably for Spain."

FRESH CLAIMS AGAINST SPAIN.

Uncle Sam Wants Indemnity for Losses to American Sugar Planters.

MADRID, May 12.—The Spanish premier, Senor Canovas del Castillo, and the United States minister at Spain, Mr. Hannis Taylor, had an important conference yesterday, the result of which is not known. It is reported that Captain General Weyler has cabled the Spanish government that it is impossible for him to proceed with the war as he should do, as the Spanish authorities at every moment are hampered by the "irritating meddling of America in Cuban affairs."

It is understood that the United States government has presented fresh claims for heavy indemnities through losses on sugar plantations belonging to Americans, which have been burned by the insurgents. It is expected that these demands will lead to further complications.

The impartial, referring editorially to the strained relations between the United States and Spain, says: "The United States intend to wear out the patience of Spain or themselves declares war. It is preferable to hasten events, as the inferiority of Spain will increase with time."
