Higgins Mei, Bolt the Republican State Convention.

ADDICKS' FRIENDS IN CONTROL !

As a Result Two Sets of Delegates Will Apply for Admission to the St. Louis Convention-The Addicks Delegates Go Uninstructed.

DOVER, Del., May 13.-The Republican state convention met here at noon yester-day, and before the adjournment late in the afternoon one of the stormiest battles in the history of state Republican politics until it looked as if the convention would end in chaos. The war was between the factions respectively headed by J. Ed ward Addicks and ex-Senator Anthony Higgins. In the afternoon the Higgins men bolted the convention, and held a separate one in the state house, W. Hastings presiding. These national delegates were chosen: Anthony Higgins, John Pilling, Hiram Reedy, Dr. Paris T. Car-

Hilling, Hiram Reedy, Dr. Paris 1. Car-lisle, Cornelliss P. Swain and George H. Hall. They were instructed for McKinley. The regular convention selected J. Ed-ward Addicks, D. F. Stewart, J. Frank Allee, Dr. Hiram R. Burton, Dr. Caleb R.

The fight between the factions was precipitated by a motion for the chair to appoint the committee on credentials. The Higgins people fought for the naming of the committee by the district cancuses, and a bitter wrangle followed. The motion for the chair to appoint finally carried by a vote of 97 to 52, scoring first blood for the Addicks men. Mr. Addicks, who sat as a contestant from Brandy wine hundred, declared that he had been persecuted by the Higgins men and that he would stand their frauds no longer.

When recess time was reached nothing further than a temporary organization had been effected, with Dr. C. R. Layton, of Georgetown, as temporary chairman. After the recess the turmoil was continued, and the break came when the com-mittee on credentials reported in favor of unseating several Higgins delegates from Wilmington. The Higgins men protested in vain, and then left the convention.

The Addicks men applied the unit rule to nearly all questions, and carried everything before them.

The fight was precipitated after the ma-jority resolutions had been received. Mr. Morrow presented a minority report, which eulogized McKinley, condemned the "bold and open use of money as carried on by certain so called Republicans during the last campaign," and criticized Governor Watson for voting for a United States senator one year ago. This report was laid on the table by a vote of 97 to 54. Washington Hastings, leader of the anti-Addicks men, then spoke, saying: "These are the last words. The evident intention has been since morning to still the minority. The subsequent proceedings interest me no more." The anti-Addicks men then left the convention amid much excitement The resolutions offered by the Addicks people were then adopted, giving future conventions 200 instead of 160 delegates. The additions were made to bring in the two lower counties, which Addicks controls. The object was to strengthen him in the future. The state committee was then announced and the delegates were named for St. Louis. The report of the committee on creden-tials was then adopted, several anti-Addicks men being declared not elected. The platform adopted opposes the free and un-limited coinage of silver except after international agreement; declares that ships under the American flag in our constwise service should be built in American ship-yards; favors the construction of a strong and efficient may; applauds the McKin-ley bill; favors just and liberal pensions for soldiers and sallors who fought for the preservation of the Union, and expresses sympathy with the Cuban patriots. The platform proceeds: "We are in

The platform proceeds: "We are in favor of our delegates who may be elected this day to represent this state in the national convention to be held in St. Louis to vote for such person as a nominee for president as they may deem for the best interests of the nation."

The Methodist General Conference,

CLEVELAND, May 13 .- Yesterday's ses-CLEVELAND, May 13.—Yesterday's ses-sion of the Methodist general conference was brief, but breezy. Considerable ora-tory was indulged in over the headlines of one of the morning newspapers, which made it appear that a conforence delegate had denounced the Christian Endeavor society as idiotic, because it had prayed for the conversion of Colonel Ingersoll. The storm quickly blew over, however. The most important matter brought be-fore the conference was embodied in a resfore the conference was embodied in a resolution providing for the appointment of a commission to prepare a new constituthe fallure of the conference to transact much business was due to the delay of the committee in preparing their reports.
