BIG FORGERS CAPTURED

Robbed a San Francisco Bank of Twenty Thousand Dollars.

ONE OF THE GANG HAS CONFESSED.

A Check for Twenty-two Dollars Raised to Call for Twenty-two Thousand, and the Work Was So Skillfully Done as to Escape Detection by the Bank Officials.

NEWARK, N. J., May 14.—Two men alleged to be noted check raisers, forgers and swindlers were arrested here yesterday. They are two of a gang of four, the other two members being under arrest in San Francisco. The two arrested yesterday are James Cregan and Charles Becker, the specific charge against them being that they raised a check for $22 to call for $22,000, in conjunction with Forger A. H. Dean and another now in custody. They secured the money, Cregan and Becker making their escape. This was in December of last year.

The check was presented at the Bank of Nevada by "A. H. Holmes," a merchandise broker, who had been doing business with that bank, depositing and withdrawing large sums of mony for many months previous. The check was made to his order on the Crocker-Woodland bank, of San Francisco, and $20,000 of the sum was paid over in gold without question, $2,000 being left on deposit. The raising of the check had been done so skillfully as to defy experts, and it was not discovered until many hours afterward, when the record of the original $22 check was searched out. Shortly afterward Dean and one of the others were arrested, but it has not been definitely ascertained whether he or Becker was the original Holmes.

Search has been made all through the country for Becker and Cregan, and in April last they were arrested in Philadelphia, but were allowed to go before the importance of the arrest was found out. They were located in Newark a few days ago, and have been under surveillance ever since. Yesterday afternoon they were followed and were taken into custody before they had a chance to resist or to make their escape. On the way to police headquarters Cregan tried to drop an envelope, but was prevented from doing it. When the men were searched they were found to be well supplied with money and valuables. Cregan had a $1,000 bill, twelve $100 bills, a number of smaller bills and a valuable diamond ring. Becker had several hundred dollars and a valuable diamond scarf pin.

The envelope which Cregan tried to drop contained a typewritten affidavit, which sets forth that "Charles Becker, one of the defendants, being duly sworn, deposes that the defendants did not have at any time in their possession a draft for the sum of $22, dated Sept. 17, 1895, drawn upon the Crocker-Woodland bank, nor did they ever have any knowledge that such a draft was in existence; that these defendants deny that they, or either of them, raised said draft from $22 to $22,000, or any other sum." The affidavit also denies the receiving of $20,000 in gold upon the draft.

After the arrest several bank presidents and representatives of banks visited police headquarters and had consultations with the police authorities.

Becker and Cregan were arraigned and held in $15,000 each, as fugitives from justice. They have been committed until May 20 for extradition.

A San Francisco dispatch says: Friday last the grand jury found true bills against two men whose names and crimes have thus far been kept secret. The men indicted are Charles Becker, known for twenty years as the "prince of forgers," and James Cregan, who has no equal as a negotiator of spurious paper. Bail was fixed in each case at $20,000, and bench warrants were issued by Judge Slack for the arrest of the two expert criminals. The men were captured yesterday at Newark, N. J. The man now in jail here charged with the Nevada bank forgery, by which a Woodland draft for $22 was cashed for $22,000, and who is known as A. H. Dean, Frank L. Seaver and otherwise, has turned state's evidence.

Two Killed by a Falling Scaffold.

ERIE, Pa., May 14.—The scaffolding on St. Mary's Catholic church, upon which several decorators were at work, fell with disastrous results to three of them and injury to several others. The scaffolding, which was built to the ceiling, went down a distance of fifty feet, and crushed Louis Maranelli and Alex Lee, killing them instantly, and seriously injuring M. A. Johnson. The men had just mounted the scaffolding after the noon hour, and a little added material caused the braces to give way.

Perhaps a Royal Challenger Next Year.

GLASGOW, May 14.—Emperor William's new yacht, Meteor, was launched at the Hendersons' yard at Patrick yesterday. After her spars have been set she will be towed to Gourock for the purpose of rigging her and placing her sails on board. After the launching Lord Lonsdale, who will represent the emperor on board the racer, said that Meteor would possibly challenge for the America's cup next season, if she proves to be faster than Valkyrie III.

A Judgeship for Tarsney.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The president yesterday sent to the senate the nomination of John C. Tarsney, of Missouri, to be associate justice of the supreme court of the Territory of Oklahoma. Mr. Tarsney was a member of the Fifty-first, Fifty-second and Fifty-third congresses, and received a certificate of election to the present congress, but was unseated in a contest by Robert C. Van Horn, Republican.

Tried Train Wrecking for Revenge.

RACINE, Wis., May 14.—Heinholte Dunsey and Michael Reider have been arrested on the charge of placing ties on the tracks of the Chicago and Northwestern road for the purpose of wrecking a train. Dunsey acknowledged that Reider and himself placed the ties on the track. Reider also confessed to having placed the ties on the track on the night of April 23 when a locomotive and several freight cars were ditched. The men narrowly escaped being run down by a train on the road some time ago, and then swore to get even with the company.

An Interesting Young Murderess.

ST. LOUIS, May 14.—The most interesting murderess ever locked up in St. Louis is 22-year-old Sarah Bunn, better known as "Fascinating Sarah Bunn," said by the police to be the most expert thief and all round female crook in the city. She shot her lover, a colored man named Alex Howard, in the stomach, and he died at the city hospital. She claims the deed was committed in self defense.

"THE TRIUMPH OF LOVE"

IS HAPPY, FRUITFUL MARRIAGE.

Every Man Who Would Know the Grand Truths, the Plain Facts, the New Discoveries of Medical Science as Applied to Married Life, Who Would Atone for Past Errors and Avoid Future Pitfalls, Should Secure the Wonderful Little Book Called "Complete Manhood, and How to Attain It."

"Here at last is information from a high medical source that must work wonders with this generation of men."

The book fully describes a method by which to attain full vigor and manly power.

A method by which to end all unnatural drains on the system.

To cure nervousness, lack of self-control, despondency, &c.

To exchange a jaded and worn nature for one of brightness, buoyancy and power.

To cure forever effects of excesses, overwork, worry, &c.

To give full strength, development and tone to every portion and organ of the body.

Age no barrier. Failure impossible. Two thousand references.

The book is purely medical and scientific, useless to curiosity seekers, invaluable to men only who need it.

A despairing man, who had applied to us, soon after wrote:

"Well, I tell you that first day is one I'll never forget. I just bubbled with joy. I wanted to hug everybody and tell them my old self had died yesterday, and my new self was born to-day. Why didn't you tell me when I first wrote that I would find it this way?"

And another thus:

"If you dumped a cart load of gold at my feet it would not bring such gladness into my life as your method has done."

Write to the ERIE MEDICAL COMPANY, Buffalo, N. Y., and ask for the little book called "COMPLETE MANHOOD." Refer to this paper, and the company promises to send the book, in sealed envelope, without any marks, and entirely free, until it is well introduced.

SPIRITUALISM AND MURDER

The Singular Testimony Introduced in a Baltimore Murder Trial.

BALTIMORE, May 14.—Henry Ritter, a barber and a spiritualist, gave some extraordinary testimony yesterday in the course of the trial of Jerome Counsell, the boy who is accused of the murder of Captain Lang and wife. Counsell's adopted parents. Ritter testified that Counsell attended a seance at Ritter's house on the Friday preceding the murder, and consented to act as the medium.

According to Ritter, the spirit of Jerome's father manifested a desire to communicate with his son. Jerome was persuaded to take the pencil, and the spirit of his father, according to Ritter, guided his hand to form the word "money." Then Jerome jerked his hand away, rubbed his arm and swore he would not have anything more to do with it. Then Ritter asked the spirit if it would communicate through him. The spirit replied, "No," with one distinct rap. Jerome was then persuaded to take the pencil again, and these words were written on the paper:

"Lang. Murder. Two men will do it. Will in your favor."

After the manifestations had been concluded Ritter said that Counsell was dazed, and like a man coming out of a mesmeric trance. They asked the spirit whether the Langs could not be warned, and then the table replied with one distinct rap. They asked whether the murder would occur within a month, and the spirit gave three raps, meaning "yes."

"Within a week?" they asked.

"Yes," replied the spirit again.

Ritter produced in court the paper on which the words were written. The words were in a shaky handwriting, with a hard pencil. The jury and the judge gazed at them curiously.

The case is still in progress.

Lively Fight at a Council Meeting.

HAMMOND, Ind., May 14.—Free fights followed the meeting of common council Tuesday night. A mob of angry citizens invaded the council chamber, became aroused to a pitch of fury by the councilmen's action on a political measure, and at the end precipitated a hand to hand battle in which the following persons suffered most severely: Ex-Councilman Fred W. Newell, scalp wound, caused by a heavy cane; Theodore Ahlendorf, ex-township officer, two teeth knocked out and back injured; Andrew Kowalski, left hand lacerated; Frank Bonler, head cut and internally injured; Charles Speichert, eyes gouged and otherwise disfigured.

The Alleged Bermuda Filibusters.

NEW YORK, May 14.—John D. Hart, Captain John O'Brien, Mark Edward Murphy and Colonel Emilio Nanez, who were recently arrested in Philadelphia for violating the neutrality act in connection with the first trip of the steamship Bermuda to Cuba, appeared before Judge Benedict yesterday. Since their arrest the prisoners have been indicted. Judge Benedict fixed bail in each of the cases at $2,500. The alleged filibusters will not be brought to trial, it is believed, until the United States supreme court decides the appeal in the Horsa cases, which are to be argued next Monday.

Will Indorse Senator Teller.

PUEBLO, Colo., May 14.—Present indications are that Senator Teller will be indorsed by formal resolution this afternoon by the Rebublican state convention and will be chosen by acclamation to head the delegation to St. Louis. Free coinage and protection will be declared the cardinal principles of the Republican party in this state, but no instructions for any candidate for the presidency will be given. There is little likelihood that the convention will instruct the Colorado delegates to bolt the St. Louis convention if a gold standard plank is adopted.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at A. Wasley's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

Stabbed His Wife Twenty-one Times.

OTTAWA, Ills., May 14.—James McGuire, a kiln setter employed at the Utica Tile works, stabbed his wife twenty-one times and then plunged the knife into his own breast five times. The woman was literally hacked to pieces. McGuire is in jail. His injuries, although severe, are not fatal. Jealousy was the cause of the act.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding Nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents per bottle at A. Wasley's drug store.

To Investigate the Liquor Traffic.
