REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE, GALUSIA A. GROW, OF SUSQUEHANNA. SAMUEL A. DAYVENPORT, OF ELIZ.

The old soldiers of the country will not fail to keep the fact in their minds that only six Democratic votes were cast in the House for the Pickler pension bill.

Old soldiers are making the usual preparations for Memorial Day. There are fewer of them than there were last year, but the day will be remembered just as generally as in years gone by.

As a rule the bicycle riders of Shenandoah use discretion and judgment in riding about the streets of the borough. There are a few, however, who reflect upon the whole body of bicyclists by "wheeling" about town in evenings.

The Republican party is committed to the policy of protection, and it cannot be made the permanent issue. Some money will be the battle cry in the presidential campaign, and the platform and the candidates must be committed to that issue. No straddlers are wanted.

By putting the screws upon delinquent corporations Auditor General Mylin has succeeded in collecting over $500,000 back taxes that the state might have never collected. If a corporation is subject to taxation, it ought to pay the tax. That is all there is to it.

GEO. LONGSTREET is being criticised in the South for his recent Grant speech at Boston, and particularly for his allusion to the Old Commander as the man "who broke the chains of slavery." But the speech was a good one, nevertheless, and ardent in line with historical facts.

There are more millionaires in New York and Brooklyn than in all the other parts of the Union. These two cities now have more than 4,000 men worth over $1,000,000 each. New York is not a great manufacturing city. It is not in the heart of a heavy agricultural district. These millionaires have simply got rich on the real estate and off the toll of the test of the country.

THOMAS V. PLATT, of New York, states the case in a nutshell when he says "The Republican candidate for the Presidency must be a man who, instead of occupying an equivocal position on the currency question, stands out firmly as an advocate of a sound and thorough reform of the currency, with gold as the standard of value." This question overtops even the tariff question at the present time.

The young czar has displayed great activity before the crown has been placed upon his head, and we may expect greater things after the coronation. He has seized as his own, in contravention of existing laws and treaties, the disputed territory in Chofeo, and the British Lion is roaring savagely at the bear. He doesn't seem to regard England in the matter at all. There is apparently trouble ahead.

There are many school districts in the state that will be unable to accommodate the increased attendance at the schools by the enforcement of the compulsory education law. Even the schools of Philadelphia are already overcrowded, and it is said the new law cannot be enforced for that reason. There are many districts in the county affected in the same manner. Shenandoah, however, will be in a better position than our sister boroughs after the completion of the new school building.

A RECENT writer on the subject of proper sanitation of homes and workshops says that nothing would pay a larger dividend. "If the mass of the people," runs the argument, "must live in a way which interferes with physical strength and soundness, the productivity and commercial value of labor are lessened. The health of a nation is its wealth." These are the words of wisdom pointing to a higher civilization, but they are not very strongly impressed as yet on the average mind.

Two fragments of the Combine—Magge and Martin and their two-side-partners—are playing a great game of bluff. The claim of Martin that twenty-seven votes from this state would be recorded for McKinley having been refuted by the delegates themselves, Chris Magge, the Pittsburg boss, has subjected himself to an interview in New York and makes a similar prediction, even in the face of the avowed preference of the delegates. To a question as to how many delegates the Ohio will get, he said: "About a dozen. Yes, I think Senator Quay will control the remainder, either for himself or some other candidate. Am I still fighting Quay? Why, I am for him for Vice-President." Magge's political star is apparently waning, and his grip on Pittsburg is gradually being loosened.

Don't Get Excited

Was what the doctors told me, and they said I must not run, on account of heart.

My heart was very weak. I was sick over a year with dyspepsia, could not sleep at all in comfort, was generally miserable.

Hood's Sarsaparilla gave me refreshing sleep, steady nerves and better health than ever. I have great faith in Hood's. H. H. Pines, Reading, Pa.

FIRE AT HAZLETON.

For the Second Time Within Four Years the Hill Block is Destroyed.

HAZLETON, May 15.—For the second time within four years the Hill block, on East Broad street, was destroyed by fire at 1:40 o'clock this morning. At this hour Night Watchman Slatery was making his rounds, and when he came to the front door of the Hill block he observed a fire in the rear of the store. The fire had evidently been burning for some time, and before the fire companies arrived large volumes of smoke and flames were issuing from the rear of the building. The neighbors in the vicinity of the fire responded quickly and aroused the family of Harry Lake and Mr. Blumenfeld on the east, and Mr. Weinhorn and August Volkmann on west. The Weinhorns, whose building adjoined that of the Universal, escaped in their night clothes, but lost everything else.

The firemen succeeded in confining the flames to the Hill building which is totally ruined. The total loss aggregates about $30,000, partly insured. The Hill building was valued at $22,000. About $15,000 is covered by insurance. A. J. Haire, who conducted the Universal, sustaining a loss of perhaps $20,000, partly insured. The first National bank lost a few books and some furniture, but all valuable documents are saved. They resumed business to-day. Mr. Brill lost all his household goods, and the valuable library and all documents belonging to Attorney Sharpless were destroyed, covered by insurance. The third story was occupied by the P. O. S. of A. camp and other secret orders and they are heavy losers.

Foster's Election Ratified.

The majority report was as follows: "We have examined the returns as furnished by the secretary of state, and find the result to be as tabulated on the accompanying statement. We recommend that the presiding officers declare the result so ascertained—M. J. Foster to be elected governor and R. H. Snyder lieutenant governor." The minority report declares in favor of John N. Phair for governor "on an honest count." The majority report was adopted.

Careless Cost Him His Life.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Albert C. Kuttel, a German brewer employed on the steamship Normania of the Hamburg American line, was instantly killed yesterday in the engine room of the steamer. He was warned by the engineer that the engine might start up at any moment for a dock, but laughed at the warning, and told the engineer he had been working as a fireman long enough to be careful. Soon afterwards the crank of the main shaft was set in motion, and swinging around suddenly crushed Kuttel down under it into a shapeliness mass.

Another Big Diamond Robbery.

NEW YORK, May 15.—The police have just made public the facts of a robbery committed some time Monday night in the soda water and confectionery store of Eugene C. Akers, on Sixth avenue. Riedel had been cared for by Akers, and was looked upon almost as an adopted son until his manner of living made him unendurable to his benefactor.

A WORK-OUT PAD.

"Sipping Medicines," "Blood-purifiers" and "Tonics" an Out-Passaged Idea.

Pure blood, strong nerves and muscles, firm healthy flesh can only come from wholesome food well digested. "Blood purifiers" and "nerve tonics" do not reach the cause of the mischief. The stomach is the point to be looked after. The safest and surest way to cure any form of indigestion is to take after each meal some harmless preparation which will help itself digest food. There is an excellent preparation of this kind composed of vegetable essences, pure pepsin, Golden Seal and fruit salts, sold by druggists under name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and these tablets taken after meals assist digestion wonderfully because they will digest the food promptly before it has time to ferment and sour and the weak stomach relieved and assisted in this way soon becomes strong and vigorous again.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are superior to any secret patent medicines. Because you know what you are taking into your stomach. They are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package.

DUPONT CASE IN THE SENATE.

A Vote to be Taken This Evening—House Still Granting Liberal Fissions.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The Dupont case, involving the right of Henry A. Dupont in the senate from the state of Delaware, was taken up in the senate yesterday with a view to concluding the debate and taking a final vote at 5 p. m. today. A brief colloquy between Mr. Gorman and Mr. Mitchell developed that a difference of opinion existed as to the character of the vote. When Mr. Gorman spoke of the unanimous agreement to vote today Mr. Mitchell admitted the correctness of the statement, but added significantly that the character of the vote would be determined when the vote was reached, which was open to the meaning that the case would be postponed until next session. Two speeches against the bill proposing additional restrictions on immigration, by Mr. Gibson of Maryland and Mr. Nelson of Minnesota, were made early in the day. Mr. Gibson severely arraigned the A. P. A., declaring that it inspired this bill, and that the organization was seeking to invade politics. Mr. Nelson said the A. P. A. had had no part in inspiring the bill.

The house, under the special order adopted last week, devoted the whole day to private pension bills. They were disposed of at the rate of about one every five minutes, fifty-eight in all being favorably acted upon before adjournment. Among them were bills granting monthly pensions to the widow of General O. M. Poe, $50; the widow of General Jamison, $70; the widow of General John Newton, $50; the widow of United States Senator George E. Spencer, of Alabama, $50, and ex-Congressman Small, of South Carolina, $30. While the pension bills were being considered the committee of the whole rose informally and disagreed to the senate amendments to the river and harbor bill, and sent it to conference. Later Mr. Hepburn, of Iowa, raised the point that the action was irregular, and the speaker took the point of order under advisement.

Baltimore Without a Tax Collector.

BALTIMORE, May 15.—If Mayor Hooper is correct in his belief this city is now without a legal collector of city taxes on the levy of 1909. The situation, which dates from the opposition of city council to the executive, was rendered more than ever interesting yesterday afternoon when the council adjourned sine die without taking action on the mayor's nomination of John F. Parlett for collector of city taxes. The present incumbent of the collector's office is Lewis N. Hopkins, Democrat, to whom the payment of city taxes will be delayed until the mayor decides whether he can reappoint him. Meanwhile his honor is withholding his signature from the tax levy, which has been before him since Monday last.

Mr. Charles H. Wetzel, of Sunbury, Pa., was so much pleased with a remedy which cured him of rheumatism that he made affidavit to the fact for publication as follows: "This is to certify that on May 11th I walked into Melick's drug store on a pair of crutches, bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm for inflammatory rheumatism, which had crippled me up. After using three bottles, I am completely cured. I can cheerfully recommend it."

The house was occupied by twenty-five colored strawberry pickers, and when it was struck all but the two mentioned made their escape. It is thought they were stunned by the lightning.

Magistrate Connell held that there was not sufficient evidence on which to convict McCoy.

A prominent western newspaper recommends lax seed tea as an excellent remedy for whooping cough. It may be good but it is not to be compared with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This preparation will allay the violent fits of coughing and soothe the inflamed and sore throat. It also liquefies the tough mucus, making it easier to expectorate. Complete recovery is much quicker, too, when this remedy is given. There is no danger in giving it to small children, as it is a pleasant syrup and contains no irritating ingredients. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by Grubler Bros., druggists.
