FATAL TEXAS CYCLONE.

It Leaves in Its Trail a Long List of Killed and Injured.

PROBABLY OVER A HUNDRED DEAD

In the City of Sherman Alone the Death List is from Thirty to Forty, and the Search for Bodies Progresses—A Portion of the City Wiped Out.

SHERMAN, Tex., May 16.—A most disastrous cyclone struck Sherman at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, wiping out the entire western end of the town. The loss of life is appalling. The number of missing is large, and it is quite probable that the most of them are dead. It is very conservative to estimate that the list of fatalities in this city will reach sixty, while the injured will reach 100. At least fifty houses are totally wrecked. The property loss will reach at least $150,000.

The number of persons wounded will reach not less than 100, and it will be several days before the exact number of fatalities can be given, as many persons, especially children, are missing, and many of the injured are in such a critical condition that a score may die.

It is reported this morning that forty people have been killed south of town, in addition to the city's death list. Wagons are unloading the dead and injured every moment.

The list of killed so far reported by the authorities is as follows: Mrs. Otto Baldwin and two children; Mrs. L. L. Burns and two boys, aged 10 and 3 years; John Ames, wife and two children; Rev. J. S. Shearer; Mrs. Luke Montgomery and three children; William Hamilton, farmer; Mrs. George Anderson and infant daughter; Mary Belle Jenkins; D. L. Pierce and son Tom, aged 14; Mrs. Dave Horning and two children; an unknown lady and two little white children, about 4 and 6 years of age, who have not been identified.

The list of colored people killed so far as learned is as follows: James Walker, James Brown and wife, Lucy B. Alinger and daughter, Charlie Cox (a child), Mary Lake and three children, and many others as yet unidentified.

No accurate estimate can yet be placed on the loss of life and property. The work of rescue and search for the missing goes on. The business part of the town is deserted and the greatest excitement prevails. The Western Union office is overflowing with anxious ones sending messages and inquiring the fate of other towns.

Every available wagon, buggy and horse is in use by searchers and workers on the field of death. As time grows later reports of greater loss of life and property arrive. Many stories of miraculous escapes are told.

As the Sherman court house is insufficient to hold the dead and wounded, the vacant Moore building, on the South square, was utilized, fifteen colored people, dead or dying, being placed there at 6 o'clock last evening. All kinds of vehicles continued to come in with dead bodies. Around the Moore building the highest excitement prevails and the greatest difficulty is experienced in getting the names of the victims and accurate reports.

The storm struck Sherman without warning on the southwest corner of the city and cleared a path 100 yards wide along the west end of the town. Houses, trees, fences and everything went before the terrible force of the cyclone. The negro part of the town suffered the most severely. There are probably thirty negroes killed. Ten bodies have been picked up in Post Oak creek.

From the point where the cyclone seems to have first descended to where it suddenly arose from the ground, just north of the city, not a house in its pathway escaped, not a tree or shrub is left standing, or that is not twisted and torn out of shape. The iron bridge on Houston street is completely wrecked and blown away, notwithstanding its hundred thousands of pounds of steel and material.

Captain T. F. Ely's house was demolished and his wife and two children had miraculous escapes. Captain B. B. Erges' residence was also leveled to the ground, but fortunately the family was away from home. Frank Ryan, manager of the Sherman baseball team, had his house blown off its foundation and completely turned around. His wife and two children escaped serious injury.

The flood of rain which attended the storm was severe. The town is a mass of mud and floating debris. There is much difficulty in finding the dead and injured.

Storm Damage in Western Pennsylvania.
PITTSBURGH, May 16.—Smithton, a mining town on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, about forty miles east of here, was visited by a wind storm and cloudburst. The storm came up without the slightest warning and houses were unroofed, trees uprooted and small outbuildings demolished. The mines of the Waverly Coal company were badly flooded, and nearly two miles of the railroad track belonging to the coal company were washed away. Three bridges were wrecked completely, and 100 miners who were working in the mines were compelled to flee for their lives, the water rising the mines to a depth of three feet before the men were able to get out. The loss is estimated at between $50,000 and $75,000.

Six Injured by the Cyclone.
NEWTON, Tex., May 16.—Six persons were injured, one of them fatally, by a cyclone which passed near Mound Ridge, a station on the Missouri Pacific, twelve miles north of here, yesterday. A stretch of country about eight miles in length and a hundred yards in width was devastated. Samuel Bass, a farmer, was fatally injured and his house demolished. Five others, whose names are unknown, were more or less seriously injured. Torrents of rain fell after the cyclone had passed. Outside of the damage done in the narrow strip mentioned nothing was injured.

Death and Destruction at Howe.
HOWE, Tex., May 16.—Yesterday's terrible cyclone struck this town, leaving death and ruin in its wake. The path of the cyclone at this point was a quarter of a mile wide. Ten farm houses and as many barns were wrecked. Eight persons were killed outright and many injured. Bark was ripped from trees and much stock was killed.

Four Killed, Five Fatally Injured.
DENTON, Tex., May 16.—A cyclone struck the town of Gribble Springs, eight miles north of Denton, yesterday afternoon. Four persons were killed and five others so badly wounded they cannot live. The property damage is great. Particulars are yet unobtainable.

DEVASTATION OF CUBA.

An English Correspondent's View of the Conflict.

SPAIN ACTING ON THE DEFENSIVE.

The Government Has Lost the Power to Protect Life and Property in Cuba—Havana Cigar Factories Must Soon Close Down.

LONDON, May 16.—The Times publishes a three column letter this morning from a correspondent in Havana, under date of May 2. In the course of the letter this correspondent says: "It is quite useless to hide the real situation. The whole island is in revolt, and the Spanish troops are merely acting on the defensive. Even the position of Maceo's forces, confined in Pinar del Rio, is not of a desperate nature, as the Spaniards make believe. Only a few isolated rebels have taken advantage of Captain General Veyler's offer of amnesty. Spain has lost the power to protect life and property in Cuba."

"Widespread inquiries fail to justify the charges of cruelty against Captain General Weyler, but the rebels' destruction of property cannot be justified. The wanton burning of some $1,000,000 worth of property belonging to inoffensive people is not war."

"The letter proceeds to dilate upon the economic ruin wrought by the break-down of the sugar crop, which has rendered thousands destitute, while the tobacco trade is in a still worse condition."

"The cigar factories of Havana," the correspondent continues, "only have material for a few weeks, and the closing of their doors means the throwing out of employment of 50,000 persons. The total exports from Cuba are estimated at $15,000,000, compared with $60,000,000 for 1895. But for the trading involved by the war every merchant would be compelled to suspend business."

"One of the most prominent merchants here says that Cuba has received its death blow, but in my opinion an immediate peace would still leave a chance for the return of prosperity."

"The Times says editorially: 'A more melancholy picture would be impossible to imagine than our Havana correspondent draws, but it is doubtful whether any demonstration of the desperate nature of the case will induce the Spaniards to acquiesce in an arrangement so gallant to their national pride as that which our correspondent suggests—namely, autonomy guaranteed by the United States.'"

"Taking the dismal picture as it is presented, we see but one hope for the maintenance of the Spanish position, and that is a speedy and thorough reconquest, followed by a redress of grievance, the abolition of corruption and an honest government of Cuba for the Cubans, instead of for the official classes in Spain."

Go to Join the Cuban Insurgents.

BALTIMORE, May 16.—It was learned here today that the sons of three of Maryland's most prominent families, called from New York last Saturday on the filibustering steamer Laurada for Cuba, where they will join the army of the insurgents as officers of high rank. The young men are Osmin Latrobe, son of Stewart Latrobe and nephew of ex-Mayor Latrobe; Stewart Janney, a well known young society man, and Dr. Smith McKim, a young medical graduate of the University of Virginia, and a brother of McKim Brothers, the Baltimore bankers. The young men are all about 22 years of age, and were prominent members of the Baltimore Athletic club and several other social organizations. The cause of the young men embarking on such a dangerous undertaking is said to have been simply a love of adventure and strong Cuban sympathy.
