FILIBUSTERS' APPEAL.

The Horse Case Before the United States Supreme Court.
DECISION IN THE CASE RESERVED.

Counsel for the Cavalry Men Assert That They Were Engaged in a Lawful Enterprise, and That Had the Forces Reverted They Would Have Been Mutineers.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The case of the filibustering members of the steamer Horsu expedition, Messrs. Wilson, Peterson and Johnson, was submitted to the supreme court for its decision yesterday on printed briefs, without arguments. Mr. W. Hallet Phillips, the attorney for the plaintiffs, stated to the court that the lateness of the session and the importance of an early decision had impelled the attorney general to agree to submit the case on the printed briefs.

Mr. Phillips submitted to the court his brief for the appellants, the government's brief having been filed Saturday. The principal point on which the characters of the Horsu rest their case is that the expedition was organized merely to carry munitions of war to Cuba, and was not an expedition to wage war. The latter construction, it is held, would put an end to any traffic in arms and ammunition, which has always been considered lawful by this government.

It is held that under any aspect of the case there was no proof of knowledge on the part of the plaintiffs that this was a military expedition, and that a refusal by the mates, Peterson and Johnson, to proceed on a voyage would have been mutiny. Secretary Fish is quoted to prove that the so-called neutrality act cannot apply where there is no belligerency, and it is contended that this government was in a position to prescribe the duties and enforce the rights of a neutral only when it has recognized that a state of public war exists in Cuba. Until this is done there is nothing to prevent Spain from fitting out and sending a military expedition to Cuba to put down the rebellion, provided there is no violation of the law as to enlistment. The brief continues:

"Under the present state of affairs it is impracticable for Cubans who desire to join their countrymen to take passage in the regular lines. They must then seek other means of transportation, and it is not unlawful for a number of them to undertake to cover the expense of transportation, or to go in a vessel carrying arms to those whom they desire to join."

In reply to the judge's comments that secrecy was an indication of a mutual understanding sufficient to prove the crime, it is said that it is not expected that a blockade runner shall advertise her departure.

"The present state of affairs it is impracticable for Cubans who desire to join their countrymen to take passage in the regular lines. They must then seek other means of transportation, and it is not unlawful for a number of them to undertake to cover the expense of transportation, or to go in a vessel carrying arms to those whom they desire to join."

It is asserted that Judge Butler assumed to decide the most important controverted question of facts and left the jury in a verdict, the opinion of the judge. Many decisions of the court are quoted by the brief, particular stress being laid upon the Whitcomb case. It further says:

"If it is held for individuals to leave this country for the purpose of enlisting in a foreign force it cannot be allowed to transport them. It is lawful to ship arms and lawful to ship these men the mere fact that they go on the same steamer cannot bring them within the purview of the statute."

"The passengers on the Horsu were not armed when they left this country, and did not proceed to the scene of the insurrection as an organized body, capable of levying war. The statement of the judge that they were armed is a finding of fact not warranted by any evidence. They left our soil without engagements to enter the service of a belligerent. There was no military organization, no authority or subjection."

The court reserved its decision. It is believed that the case will be decided within two or three days.

The Ideal Panacea.
James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last few years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at A. Waseley's drug store.

Tortured His Nephew to Death.
SEATTLE, Wash., May 19.—In jail at Juniper, waiting trial on the charge of murder, is Chief Ye Testhok, the type of the Hoonan Indians, a small tribe occupying Chickakoff Island, about a hundred miles south from Juneau. The old chief is charged with the murder by most brutal tortures of his nephew, whom he accused of witchcraft. The chief had a disease affecting his right leg, which had gradually eaten the greater part away. He dreamed that his nephew had bewitched him.

Lockout to Avert a Strike.
BUFFALO, May 19.—The proposed strike of carpenters yesterday for the eight hour work day was met by a lockout. As the men presented themselves at their respective shops they were required to answer a question as to whether they were for eight hours. If the reply was in the affirmative they were allowed to enter the shop. By noon they were all discharged. A protracted struggle between employers and journeymen is anticipated.

To Be Pensioned Despite the Veto.
WASHINGTON, May 19.—The house committee on invalid pensions yesterday authorized a favorable report to be made on the bill vetoed by the president which granted a pension of $50 to Francis E. Hoover. The report, which recommends the passage of the bill over the veto, was adopted by a vote of 11 to 2.

Five Houses Destroyed by Forest Fires.
ATLANTIC CITY, May 19.—The homes of William Hohenseiter, J. P. Messer, W. Mittlefelder, Mrs. C. L. Auro and another family, at Egg Harbor, were burned to the ground yesterday afternoon. The fires were caused by the burning forges in that vicinity. There is also a forest fire near Pomona.

"THE TRIUMPH OF LOVE IS HAPPY, FRUITFUL MARRIAGE."

Every Man Who Would Know the Grand Truths, the Plain Facts, the New Discoveries of Modern Science as Applied to Married Life, Who Would Atone for Past Errors and Avoid Future Pitfalls, Should Secure the Wonderful Little Book Called "Complete Manhood, and How to Attain It."

"Here at last is information from a high medical source that must work wonders with this generation of men."

The book fully describes a method by which to attain full vigor and manly power. A method by which to end all unwanted drains on the system.

To cure nervousness, lack of self-control, despondency, etc.
To exchange a faded and weary nature for one of brilliant, buoyant and power.
To cure forever effects of excesses, overwork, worry, etc.
To give full strength, development, and tone to every portion and organ of the body.
Age no barrier. Failure impossible. Two thousand references.

The book is purely medical and scientific, needless to curiosity seekers, invaluable to men only who need it.

A despairing man, who had applied to us, said:

"Well, I tell you that first day is one I'll never forget. I just bubbled with joy. I wanted to hug everybody and tell them my old self had died yesterday, and my new self was born to-day. Why didn't you tell me when I first wrote that I would end it this way?"

And another said:

"If you dumped a cart load of gold at my feet I could not bring such gladness into my life as your method has done."

Write to the ERIC MEDICAL COMPANY, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free copy of this wonderful book, "COMPLETE MANHOOD," which is mailed in a sealed envelope, without any name or address, until it is well understood.

DEMOCRATIC ROYALISTS.

The Duke of Orleans Defends the Use of the Ballot.
HE IS A CANDIDATE FOR ELECTION

To the Chamber of Deputies, and Insists That It Is Not Incompatible with Royal Dignity to Submit Himself for the Suffrages of His Fellow Countrymen.

PARIS, May 19.—A letter which the Duke of Orleans has written to Duke of Dauphin-Pasquier, who has just resigned the presidency of the royalist committee, has just been published. The letter shows that the Duke of Orleans is in part due to the committee disapproving of the Duke of Orleans' ideas of submitting himself as a candidate for election at Cholet, not in order to sit in the chamber of deputies, but to give an opportunity for a royalist demonstration, and also because the Duke of Orleans declines to disavow his cousin, Prince Henry of Orleans, for accepting the decoration of the Legion of Honor from the government in recognition of the travels in the far east.

The Duke of Orleans' letter is very blunt and dictatorial in tone. Referring to the question of the candidacy he said: "It is necessary to choose between playing at monarchy and making it a reality. If you think that the French monarchy, as it was constructed in the past, can be reconstructed in the future by an affection of inert and expectant dignity, standing motionless on distant shores, because of the greatness of its traditions and deeming itself too lofty to mix with men and things, we are not of one mind. Those from whom I descend confronted many troubles and many risks other than those at which your soul takes alarm."

"I remain the judge of the royal dignity. I hold that it will not be impaired—far from it—if in some French village, even were it the humblest, for all are alike dear to me, the electors designated me to serve my country in accordance with the example set by my ancestors. Do you wish that I should, by vain distrust of universal suffrage, justify the absurd legend of alleged incompatibility of the monarchical and elective right, when it is evident to my eyes that the two principles are constantly tending to combine and to blend in a system of compromise?"

To Dismiss Police Indictments.
NEW YORK, May 19.—Final disposition is to be made on Thursday of a number of indictments against police officials, the outgrowth of the senate investigation of 1893. District Attorney Feltows said today that it is probable that all of the untried cases will be dismissed except the one against former Building Superintendent Thomas J. Brady, who is charged with accepting a bribe in return for favors extended by him. Among the indictments which it is thought will be dismissed is that against Captain Max Schmittberger, who was in command of the "tenderloin" precinct at the time the investigation was begun. Schmittberger's confession of police corruption furnished a climax of that highly sensational inquiry which was passed in session only by Captain Creedon. Captain Schmittberger was promised immunity in consideration of his testimony. Others whose indictments will be dismissed are ex-Captain William S. Dewey and Captain John Seibert, and five or six wardmen.

Fatal Fire at Washington.
WASHINGTON, May 19.—A conflagration which resulted in the loss of almost $200,000, and in which two firemen were killed and four seriously injured by falling walls, occurred in this city about 8 o'clock last night. Twenty-one buildings, with their contents, were totally destroyed in the space of about two hours. The burned district extends almost entirely of commission and wholesale jobbing houses in the square bounded by B street, Louisiana avenue, Ninth and Tenth streets. The dead are Assistant Foreman Giles, Thomas Griffin and Daniel Conway. The three dead firemen went into the ruins voluntarily to assist in rescuing their imprisoned comrades.

Farms Damaged by Forest Fire.
Egg Harbor, N. J., May 19.—Gallopway township was visited by a destructive forest fire yesterday which up to a late hour last night was still burning. It started about 10 o'clock in the forenoon, as a result of the wind blowing a lot of burning brushwood from the Eckelohp farm into the timber land. William Fiedhoff's orchard, berry and vegetable plots were destroyed, and John Smith's and Edward Noth's farms badly damaged. A number of other places are threatened. The loss to lumber alone, it is thought, will exceed $2,000.
