When the bill was in the sensite Sonator Daly charged that it was introduced in the interest of the railroad companies. Senator Voorhess, its author, declared that the bill was directed against lawyers who charge prove clouds exactly lawyers who charge poor elients exorbitant frees

Among the other bills which the govera among the other hills which the gover-nor prevented from becoming laws were: Compelling non-resident gummers to ob-tain a license from county hoards of fish and game wardens; amending the natur-alization law by providing that the act prohibiting the granting of papers within thirty days of election shall apply only to fail elections; reducing the number of fish and game wardens from twant-five re-and game wardens from twant-five re-and game wardens from twant-five re-and game wardens from twant-five re-served. and game wardens from twenty-five to fifteen; providing that official election en-velopes shall be some other color than white; compelling the giving of prisoners two days' notice of trial; making it a misdemoanor to pick huckleberries other than by hand; prohibiting the sale of eigenstes to minors; compelling the stamping of spools of thread with the number of yards thereon; establishing a colony for epilep-tics and founding a separate home for the blind

Tillman's South Carolina Convention.

COLUMBLA, May 20.-The state Demo-cratic convention meets today at noon. Of the 320 delegates there are not more than fifteen who favor the single gold standard, so the convention is sure to, adopt the strongest kind of declaration in favor of free silver. Senator Tillman has declared his intention of leading the South Caro-lina delogation in a bolt from the Chicage convention if its platform dosenot contain a flat footed declaration for free silver. Sen-ator Irby, the state Democratic chairman.)s opposed to this policy. A majority of the members of the convention adhere to Till man as against Irby, but the convection will vote down resolutions instructing either for or against a bolt.

Troops to Suppress Indian Depredators. WASHINGTON, May 20.-Upon the repre-sentations of Indian Agent Stouch, at Tongue River, Mont., transmitted through and indorsed by the interior department, the war department has sent orders to General Brooke, commanding the depart-ment of Dakom, to send troops from Fort Custor to the agency to preserve order and stop the killing of earthe by the Indians. Probably two recepts of the Tenth cavulry will be sent, but General Brooke is al-lowed to use his discretion on that polot.

Elsie Kreglo's Murderer on Trial.

Ease Kregio's Muturerer of Trial. WASHINGTON, May 20.—The jury in the case of Irwin I. Ford, on trial for the brutal murder of Elsle Kregio, a young white girl here a short time ago, was com-pleted yearerday. Three of them are colored men. Eleven witnesses for the prosecu-tion were examined, and it became appar-ace the defines has no butantian of ent that the defense has no intention of relying upon the claim of insanity. The prisoner listened to the testimony without giving evidence of the slightest emotion beyond that of fear.
