The State League.

Local opinions of the State League of base ball clubs are not very favorable, especially since John J. Relily has been laid off the staff of umpires. It is claimed that the Hazleton, Philadelphia and Shamokin managements control the entire league and any one who dares oppose their views must expect decapitation. The case of Reilly illustrates the power of the triumvirate. Reilly and Milligan, of the Shamokins, had an exchange of words and the latter said he would fix the umpire. A few days later Reilly was laid off without any assigned
