QUAY VISITS M'KINLEY!

The Ohio Leader Escorts the Senator to and From His Home.

THE MEETING A MOST CORDIAL ONE.

The Cleveland Leader Declares That They Discussed the Campaign Which McKinley Will Enter Against the Democratic Candidate for President.

CANTON, O., May 23.—Senator M. S. Quay, of Pennsylvania, accompanied by J. Hay Brown, of Lancaster, Pa., arrived in the city at 10 o'clock over the Pennsylvania railway.

THE PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY.

Adjourns in Confusion During a Discussion of Young People's Societies.

SALEMSBURG, May 23.—The Presbyterian general assembly broke up at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon in confusion, in the midst of the vote on the resolutions of the special committee on the relations of young people's societies to the church.

WILLIAM M'KINLEY.

of a statement. He did not appear to be in a cordial humor, and rather snapped at newspaper men.

It is understood that the visit of Senator Quay with Mr. McKimley was of the friendliest character.

Major McKinley left last night for Cleveland, where he will be over Sunday the guest of Mr. Hanna, returning on Monday with Mrs. McKinley.

ONLY A FRIENDLY VISIT.

The Leaders Discussed the Actual Campaign for the Presidency.

CLEVELAND, May 23.—The Leader, which perhaps better represents McKimley than any other newspaper in the United States, publishes to substance the following upon the visit of Quay to McKinley.

Quay came to Canton, not as the bearer of messages from any man or group of men, but as the leader of the Republican party in Pennsylvania. He did not come, as he facetiously remarked in Washington.

SENATOR QUAY.

ton, to question McKinley about his attitude on the money question. He was a Republican leader visiting the man who will certainly be the nominee of the Republican party for president.

One thing they did discuss was the campaign which McKimley will enter against the Democratic candidate for president.

The conference was most pleasant and cordial on both sides. The visit of Quay was such as will undoubtedly be made by many other Republican leaders both before and after the St. Louis convention.

Quay Still a Candidate.

PITTSBURG, May 23.—Senator Quay arrived at his home in Beaver, Pa., from Canton, O., last evening. An effort was made to induce him to talk, but he refused to say anything further than that his conference with Major McKinley was satisfactory.

The Senator broke his resolution not to talk the next morning, however, and to a solicited question as to whether he was still to be considered a candidate, emphatically replied: "Oh, yes. I am still a candidate for the presidential nomination and shall be voted for at the St. Louis convention."

TO IMPEACH CLEVELAND.

A Populist Member of the House Offered the Resolution To-day.

SPECIAL TO EVENING HERALD. WASHINGTON, May 23.—A scene of much excitement was enacted in the House of Representatives to-day, and the cause therefor came from the Populist side of the chamber.

Representative Howard, the Populist member from Alabama, arose in his seat this morning and offered resolutions to the House for the impeachment of President Cleveland. The grounds upon which Howard asked the House to consider the charges were that the President, by his direction, conducted an illegal sale of government bonds, illegal use of the proceeds therefrom, corruption in politics, and a refusal to enforce the anti-trust law.

The motion to consider the charges of impeachment, however, only received two or three votes. The mode of procedure of impeachment is for the House of Representatives to become the accusers, and appoint managers to conduct the prosecution at the bar of the Senate.

THE PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY.

Adjourns in Confusion During a Discussion of Young People's Societies.

SALEMSBURG, May 23.—The Presbyterian general assembly broke up at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon in confusion, in the midst of the vote on the resolutions of the special committee on the relations of young people's societies to the church.

Just at the hour of adjournment a motion was made to strike out the other recommendations of the committee and to discharge it. Action on this motion was only prevented by the abrupt adjournment of the vice moderator, Dr. Benjamin L. Agnew, of Philadelphia, that the hour of the session had expired and that the assembly stood adjourned.

One recommendation of the committee was entirely eliminated after an animated discussion and after a division. It related to the formation of Presbyterian unions of young people's societies in all of the Presbyteries.

The action in this direction was due to the belief that the plan as proposed would seriously interfere with present inter-denominational associations and cooperation.

Pennsylvania Odd Fellows.

PITTSBURG, May 23.—The seventy-third annual session of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Pennsylvania, closed yesterday afternoon after installing the new officers.

The resolution offered on Thursday regarding the saloonkeepers and gamblers occupied a greater part of the closing session.

MINE FOREMEN EXAMINATION

The Board in Charge Fixes the Days For the Work.

WILL BE GOVERNED BY OLD RULES

Members of the G. A. R. Will Attend Divine Service To-morrow Night—Rev. Robert O'Boyle, of the Trinity Reformed Church, to Preach the Sermon.

There was quite a distinguished gathering of mining officials in town this morning, the occasion being a call for a meeting of the Board of Mine Foremen Examiners for the Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Anthracite Districts for the purpose of making preparations for the next examination of applicants for mine foremen certificates and the formulation of the list of oral and written questions to be propounded.

The meeting was held in the office of Mine Inspector William Stein, in the Titman building, and was attended by Inspector Stein, Superintendent William H. Lewis, and Frank Wilcoxon and Michael Brennan, miners, of the Sixth Anthracite district; Edward Brennan, Mine Inspector, Andrew Robertson, superintendent, and Robert Muir and Adam Buchman, miners, of the Seventh district; John McGuire, Mine Inspector, Thomas Doyle, superintendent, and David Tucker and Thomas Hohlman, miners, of the Eighth district.

The meeting was called to order by Mine Inspector Stein, upon whose motion Superintendent Lewis was made chairman of the meeting. Mr. Stein was made secretary.

It was decided that the examinations shall be held at the court house in Pottsville on Thursday and Friday, next, and that the same rules which governed the examinations of last year, and in fact all the examinations held since 1890, will be adhered to this year.

One of the most important rules is that fixing the percentage to be attained by the candidates at 80 per cent of the whole examination.

It was decided to see Mine Inspectors, Messrs. Stein, Doyle and Brennan, constitute the board to formulate the questions to be propounded and they spent several hours succeeding the meeting in the work.

If you have carpet rags and wish them made into a good carpet send them to Fricker's carpet store. Carpet beaters of all kinds.

Knife vs. Revolver.

The displaying of a knife and revolver on West Centre street, in the neighborhood of the Greek Catholic church, about midnight caused intense excitement in that neighborhood. It was due to a difficulty between two parties named Brennan and Schmelker over the contents of a keg of beer.

A war of words ensued in which Schmelker became enraged and threw a knife, whereupon Brennan ran into the house and procured a revolver. Just as he was emerging into the street to meet his opponent, he was confronted by his mother who persuaded him to go back into the house, and the fight was declared off.
