DONATION TO THE G. A. R.
That is the Decision of School Teachers on Memorial Day.
The teachers of the public schools of town assembled at the local institute meeting in the High school building last evening and finally disposed of the Memorial Day question which has been before them for the past three weeks. It will be remembered that at the meeting held on the 18th inst. the teachers decided that they would not take part in the general parade on that day, for the reason that the tax would be too great upon the children and many of the teachers would be called upon on that day to entertain friends, but a committee was appointed to recommend at the next meeting some method by which the teachers could render assistance to the G. A. R. to bring about an impressive observance of the day. Accordingly that committee made a report at the meeting last night and it was decided that each school teacher shall make a donation of fifty cents and the G. A. R. may use the fund according to its discretion. At the same time it was suggested that the fund may be devoted to the hiring of wagons for 150 school children, who may sing at the cemetery while the graves are being decorated. It was also intimated that the pupils may make donations of flowers to the G. A. R., but it will not be compulsory upon them to do so.

WIBORG'S SENTENCE AFFIRMED.
But the Supreme Court Reverses the Conviction of the Horse's Mate.
WASHINGTON, May 26.—Chief Justice Fuller yesterday delivered the opinion of the supreme court in the case of the United States vs. J. H. S. Wiborg, captain of the Horse, and Mate Johansen and Peterson.
Wiborg, with his associates, is accused of attempting to land arms surreptitiously in Cuba. They were found guilty under the neutrality laws in the United States court at Philadelphia.

Yesterday's opinion held that the decision of the Pennsylvania court was correct on the point that the expedition was a violation of the neutrality laws. The judgment of this court was affirmed as to Wiborg, but reversed as to the mates, Johansen and Peterson, on the ground that they were ignorant of the purpose of the expedition.
Justice Harlan concurred in the reversal of the judgment as to Peterson and Johansen, but dissented from the judgment affirming the sentence against Wiborg.

Rev. Kinney Dead.

The announcement of the death of Rev. Charles Kinney, rector of St. Ignatius church at Centuria, will be received with feelings of deep regret by his many friends here. He had been suffering from Bright's disease for the past year or more, and the end came at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Deceased was 51 years of age, and was very popular among his congregation as well as the whole community at large. He has only been located at Centuria but a short time, having succeeded the late Father Powers, who died there recently. Vicar General Koch, of Shamokin, arrived at Centuria yesterday and took charge of the funeral arrangements. The service for the dead, in which many of the priests of the diocese will participate, will be celebrated in St. Ignatius church on Thursday morning, beginning at 9:30 o'clock, and interment will be made in the church yard.

Obituary.
Mrs. Sarah Clark, of Pottsville, died yesterday aged 77 years. She was a member of the M. E. church of that place. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon. The wife of George Hause died in Philadelphia yesterday. Her husband formerly resided at Pottsville and is a printer by trade.
Mrs. John Horn, of East Creek, died on Saturday, aged 30 years. Deceased was well known in town and is survived by her husband and several children. Her funeral takes place to-morrow morning with interment at Tamaqua.
Edward, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fox, of Gilberton, died on Saturday of pneumonia. Interment will be made at the Locust Valley cemetery to-morrow morning.

Flying Visit From Sadler.
Wilbur F. Sadler, of Greensburg, Westmoreland county, paid a flying visit to town this morning and called upon a few of his old friends. He is attending the Pottsville court as a witness. Wilbur will be remembered as the superintendent of the Schuykill Traction line shortly after it was opened. His father, Judge Sadler, of Carlisle, was the constructor of the road. He subsequently built the Carbonate line and is now instituting lines at Greensburg, with Wilbur Sadler as superintendent.

The Flobert Rifle Again.
While walking along Main street yesterday afternoon Sanford Shoemaker was hit on the left side of the abdomen by a bullet supposed to have been fired from a Flobert rifle. The bullet pierced his clothes, but made no mark upon his body. Shoemaker could not learn where it came from.

Hog Killed.
A hog weighing 150 pounds and belonging to George Letzel, was killed this morning at the Bowers street crossing of the P. & R. railroad. The carcass was removed by the owner.

Married.
Henry Becker and Mrs. Lonnie Schmidt, both of town, were pronounced husband and wife by Justice Shoemaker. This is the second nuptial knot the Justice has tied within a week.

An Ugly Gash.
While Daniel Siegel was leading his horse out of S. G. Acker's blacksmith shop this morning, the horse stumbled and fell, receiving an ugly gash several inches in length on the left leg.

More Immigrants.
Another car load of immigrants passed through town this morning bound for Mt. Carmel and Shamokin. Five of the number remained here.

THE "PROHIB." They Complete Their County Ticket With S. G. M. Hollopeter for Congress.
The present week is one of much interest to the members of the Prohibition party. Besides the National convention of their party to be held in Pittsburg, at which a candidate for President and Vice President will be named and a platform adopted, the managers of the party in this county have completed a local ticket.

At the county convention held in Schuykill Haven several weeks ago candidates for the Legislature and one or two other county offices were named, and the selection of others was left in the hands of a committee. The latter has completed the ticket, with the following selections: Congress—S. G. M. Hollopeter, Shenandoah; Treasurer—J. F. Bast, Schuykill Haven; Clerk of the Courts—Wm. Looser, Minersville; Recorder—W. J. Schwank, Schuykill Haven; Register—Chas. Benninger, Mahanoy City; Commissioners—J. S. Seaman, Frackville; W. Y. Faxon, Girardville. Director of the Poor—John Manbeck, Boock.
Schuykill's delegates to the National convention are Dr. M. J. Frey, of Pottsville, and S. G. M. Hollopeter, of Shenandoah. Darius Golden and Benj. Rickert, are the alternates. The convention closes on Wednesday.

If you want a fine wedding cake, let Otto make it for you.

Not a Good Thrower.
The people of West Coal street have a little sensation of their own which is gradually reaching the ears of people in other parts of the town. The story, as told by one who claims to know, is that a married woman residing on that street who has been smitten by the glances of a conductor on the Schuykill Traction line threw a note to him as his car passed. The throw was not a good one and the car was going fast, so the conductor did not get the message, but the little boy of a neighbor did and carried it to his mother, who absorbed the contents. Chapter two, according to the informant, opens with the smitten woman calling upon the one who got the note and closes with the latter receiving a severe beating.

Caught in Town.
Constable John Mollie, of Freeland, arrived in town last evening armed with a warrant for the arrest of Julius Zalenski for larceny of a clarinet. Charles Bascowicz, president of the Kusienski Society, of Freeland, is the prosecutor. After considerable search about the town he found his man in the first ward at 2 o'clock this morning. He was taken to Freeland and this morning, where he will have a hearing before Justice Hugh A. Shovlin, who has charge of the case.

Girardville's Bicycle Race.
Much interest is being manifested in the bicycle race that occurs at Girardville on the afternoon of Decoration Day. Previous to the race a parade of the wheelmen will take place, music being furnished by four bands. The prizes will be a gold medal valued at $25 for the winner, $10 for the second and $5 to the third. The race will decide the amateur championship of the Mahanoy Valley, and all riders within that territory can enter while others are debarred. The race will start at 2:00 o'clock over the following route: Down Parker street by Julia; over Julia to Mahanoy avenue; up Mahanoy avenue to Bear Ridge avenue; over Bear Ridge avenue to Girard, and thence to the starting point.
