POTTSVILLE LETTER.
The Electric Railway Case is still on before Judge Savidge—Other Court News.
POTTSVILLE, May 27.
In No. 1 court room the Arts adjunction case was continued before Judge Albright. Edward H. Arts, the plaintiff, occupied the stand this morning. The Schuykill Electric Railway case is still on before Judge Savidge in No. 2 court room. Joseph Hoellman, the assistant superintendent of the road and formerly bookkeeper, occupied the stand. Objections were frequent on both sides, and it is mainly to this cause that the trial is taking so much time. Bills were offered in evidence by the defense to rebut the testimony of Mark H. Hubbel, superintendent of the Schuykill Electric Railway, when he said he was not acting as superintendent of the Philadelphia Construction Company.

The sale of lands for taxes by the County Treasurer takes place the 8th of June next. The Treasurer's clerks are kept busy receiving taxes from those who are anxious to avoid the sale.

The County Commissioners were not at the court house, all of them being engaged at home.
James McIntyre, tax collector of Palo Alto, made payment on his '95 duplicate. Edward Hadley, of East Norwegian, and John Lynch, of Gordon, also made payments on their '95 duplicates.

Tuesday, June 2nd, 1896, is fixed as the last day for filing statements in widows' appraisement to July term.
Marriage licenses were granted to the following: Aaron C. Knarr, of Barry township, and Sallie Fortig, of Hegins township; Aleksander Waslewski and Vincenza Domanska, both of Shenandoah; Timko Stublyak, of Minersville, and Annie Halyczak, of Shenandoah; Simon Hawran and Uacka Turmanawicz, both of Shenandoah; Michael Kiley and Mary E. Gaitsens, both of Tamaqua; Fred, Gill and Nellie R. Marsden, both of Mahanoy City; Wm. Farkosky and Agnes Spurga, of Shenandoah.

The following deeds were recorded: From John F. Barz to William R. Spatz, two lots in Valley View; from Citizens Saving and Loan Association to Frederick Hegor for lot in Barry township; from Schuykill Real Estate Title Insurance and Trust Co., trustee, estate of Abraham Ernst, to Frank Yoder for tract of land in Hegins township; from James Grant to E. W. Stont, premises in Shenandoah; from Herman B. Chambers to Jane C. Bailey, for 40 acres in Tremont township; from Charles E. Quail to Benneville Fahll, lot in Auburn; from Herman B. Chambers to Jane C. Bailey, 37 acres in Tremont township.

Ex-Collector Robertson, of the Port of New York, is the guest of Rev. John Eastman, of the First Presbyterian church. Mr. Robertson was appointed Collector of New York by President Garfield, contrary to the wishes of Senator Roscoe Conkling, who wanted to have the appointment to all offices in New York state. As a result Senator Conkling, with his junior member from New York, Thomas Platt, resigned. From which Platt, in doing whatever Conkling dictated, attained the title of "Me Too Platt."

The University Extension Society held a meeting at Dr. Reber's office last evening and adopted plans for the coming season.

Proceedings of Ouster.

The war of the Justices was again yesterday morning in Pittston. Esp. of Harrisburg, attorney for the four borough justices of the peace, applied to the Dauphin county court for writs of ouster and injunctions against the seventeen Justices of this town and Mahanoy City. The purpose is to restrain them from exercising the functions of their offices. Mr. Olmstead read a letter from County Solicitor John O. Ulrich which claimed that many petty cases returned to the Quarter Sessions from the ward justices were not pressed and the costs by Act of Assembly, applicable to this county, are borne by the county. The court was informed by George J. Wadlinger the opposing counsel, that Mr. Ulrich, besides being counsel for the county, was engaged by the borough justices. This weakened his opinion. Judge McPherson took the papers and will probably render a decision on Monday. The Superior Court meets on that day also, and argument on the appeal of the law of 1878 will be held. Both the ward and borough justices are confident of winning, but so far the latter have the best of the fight.

A Man Falls Dead.
James A. Dinmore, of Bloomsburg, died yesterday morning in Pittston. Yesterday morning when he rose from bed he told Mrs. Dinmore, with whom he boarded, that he was not feeling as well as usual. After eating breakfast he went on the porch in the rear of the house and sat down to read a paper. After sitting a short time he was seen to rise and start on a run down Market street hill and across Main street. He succeeded in running as far as Roginsky's store, when he fell and died instantly.

Schilling-Llewellyn Nuptials.

John Schilling and Miss Mollie Llewellyn, two popular young people of Ashland, were married at St. Maurus church yesterday afternoon. John, Doolin and Miss Bridget Schilling supported the couple. After the ceremony the wedding party drove to Shenandoah and dined at Regley's popular restaurant. Upon their return they were tendered a reception at the home of the groom's parents.

Prof. Miller, of Mahanoy City, who has just retired from the superintendency of the schools of that place, was presented with a gold watch and chain by his former associates.
Edward C. Price, who has been employed as outside foreman at Primrose colliery for the past two years, has tendered his resignation to take effect the first of June. He will retire from active work.

If you want a fine wedding cake, let Otto make it for you.

Base Ball.
The managers of the Actors and the Pat. Gibbons' base ball nines are arranging a date for a game at the Trotting park next week. Pat. Gibbons is very much elated over the merits of his team, and is willing to wager that his team can outplay its opponents in any number of games which they may decide upon.

The last season's rivalry between the Spartans and the Students, who have changed their name to that of Yanigans, will be renewed by a game at the Trotting park tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Both teams are very strong and a good specimen of ball playing may be witnessed. The Spartans will line up as follows: Shugars, p.; P. Monaghan, c.; Hamilton, 1b.; J. Cleary, 2b.; Martin, 3b.; D. Kelly, ss.; Hebron, lf.; Reese, rf., and Honok of cf. The battery work for the Yanigans will be attended by Glover and Owens.

Amelia and the Wheelbarrow.
From Mt. Carmel News.
Mrs. Amelia Grant, of Shenandoah, is not the respectable woman her name might indicate. She is addicted to the bad habit of looking too much upon the wine when it is red. Yesterday Mrs. Grant came to Mt. Carmel and endeavored to emulate the achievements of the masculine sex in painting the town red. When she became too boisterous she was arrested and officer James Lawton essayed to haul her to the lockup, a distance of several squares, in a wheelbarrow. It proved a difficult task but the inebriated prisoner was finally landed safely in Fort Waters. This morning "Squire Amour sentenced her to 30 days in jail.

Encouraged by Opposition.
Notwithstanding the ecclesiastical opposition, Father Jakimowicz, the Mt. Carmel priest who was recently excommunicated, is going right ahead organizing a congregation out of the followers who stand by him. He has purchased four lots in Mt. Carmel and is considering plans for a church and parsonage. Archbishop Joseph Rene Villatte, of Green Bay, Wis., will visit Mt. Carmel in a week or two and consult with Jakimowicz when it will be definitely decided whether an independent church will be established. Prominent members of St. Joseph's church say they do not fear the disaffiliation.

Will Go Prospecting.
John Brady, who has been employed as salesman and collector for the Singer Sewing Machine Company at Hagerstown for the past year, leaves today for Denver, Col. Mr. Brady, in company with several others, will go prospecting for all kinds of minerals.

Dying in Jail.
SHAMOKIN, May 27.—William Kastetter, who shot and killed his pretty young wife at Shamokin on May 4, while temporarily insane and whose grandmother dropped dead from the shock, will never face a jury on the charge of murder. Kastetter is slowly dying in the Sunbury jail from convulsions, which occur at periods when he broods over the awful crime he committed.

Coming Nuptials.
Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Mame Brennan and Frank A. Gable, both of Shamokin, the event to take place on June 3rd. The bride is a daughter of Miss Inspector Brennan, and is well known here.

To Graduates.
We have placed on our counters a beautiful line of cream glacia and china silks, bearfoots, cashmires and albatross. Also a fine assortment of India linens, nainsook and plain and dotted swiss.

The Bucknell Semi-Centennial.
The next commencement, which takes place June 18-24, is the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the institution. In order that the occasion may be appropriately celebrated and that the semi-centennial may become a prominent part in the history of the university, large efforts have been put forth to make the occasion one of great interest to all the friends of the university. Special railroad rates will be secured and arrangements will be made with the hotels and boarding houses for the accommodation of the many visitors expected. The college graduating class this year numbers 35 members. The graduates from the institute school of music number twenty. Large classes usually mean a large commencement. The large classes graduating this year and the commencement being the half-way mark in the university's century will attract a large crowd next June.

METHODIST BISHOPS INSTALLED.
The Adoption of the Temperance Committee's Report at Cleveland.
CLEVELAND, May 27.—Yesterday was a busy day in the Methodist Episcopal conference, and it was found necessary to hold three sessions. At the forenoon session the impressive ceremonies incident to the installation of the three bishops-elect—McCabe, Cranston and Hartzell—occupied much interest. At the afternoon session temperance was the subject under discussion, and the committee report, which was adopted, shows that the Methodist church is still the uncompromising foe of the liquor traffic. An important step was taken in requesting the board of bishops to memorialize congress to so modify the internal revenue laws as to give them less the semblance of statutes intended to legalize the liquor traffic, especially in states which have prohibition. The evening session was devoted to a further consideration of the report of the committee on constitution.

The report of the temperance committee, which was adopted as read, declares it to be the duty of each member of the church to be a total abstainer; it condemns license, asserting that the government becomes a partner in the traffic by permitting the sale of liquor; it declares that the only proper attitude of the church toward the traffic is relentless enmity, as the time will come when all good citizens must unite to oppose it and advance to its total extermination. The following recommendations are made by the report:
That temperance societies be organized in all annual conferences; that the objects of the anti-saloon league be approved, and that the church co-operate with it so far as is consistent with the avowed temperance principles of the church; that the fourth Sunday in November be set apart as temperance Sunday, and careful attention be given to the regular quarterly Sunday school temperance lessons; that the board of bishops memorialize congress, asking the government to so adjust the internal revenue laws as not to make it appear that the liquor traffic is legalized and legitimized for in states where practical prohibition obtains.
