splendid Portrait of Garfield, the Martyr President, Free to AlL

Memorial Day has become a great national holiday. It is commemorated all over our land, "The Philadelphia Pross" nextSunday May 31, will commemorate it in a special and fitting manner. It will give free to each of its readers a magnificent portrait of James A. Garfield, the martyred President. This portrait has been pronounced the finest over made of General Garfield. It is a superb-likeness in colors and is suitable for framing. It is a companion picture to the portraits of Lincoln and Grantgiven out some time ago.

The other features of "The Philadelphia Sunday Press" will be of equal value. There will be a thrilling story of the most remarkable duel on record; two trains, running at a speed of sixty miles an hour, dash together in the presence of 30,000 spectators. The complete statement of the plans for a World's Union of Christian Endeavor Societies will b of absorbing interest. Last but not least at this searon, "The
