QUAY TO SUCCEED MARTIN.
 The Junior Senator Likely to Go Into the National Committee.
 PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—The information is given out by no less a prominent personage than Senator William H. Andrews that Senator M. S. Quay will be chosen by the delegates from this state to the National convention as the member of the national committee for Pennsylvania, to succeed David Martin. The friends of Quay believe that he is not adverse to again becoming a member of the national committee, and it is also believed that he will be placed on the executive committee and have charge of the details of the campaign. Senator Andrews would not talk on the Canton conference. Yesterday he was the bearer of an important message from Senator Quay to Thomas Platt, the New York leader.

Senator Quay is just as determined as ever that the remnants of the late, but not lamented, Combine will be "A nightmare of the past." Martin and Magee banked so much on distributing the Federal patronage under the old administration that they thought "the old man" would let up in his warfare against them, but such is not the case. His visit to Pittsburgh recently shows that what little is left of the Combine is to be completely wiped out. He means business. David Martin has given his last gasp. His Workingmen's Protective League is circulating a petition, to be forwarded to McKinley, asking the latter to see to it that Senator Quay is not made national chairman.

We still have a few more of our $1.25 shirts with two collars, one pair of cuffs, shield bosom, made of the best French percale, which we are closing out at 75 cents. Come for them at once. At the UP-TO-DATE hat store, 15 East Centre street.

A Salesman Disappears.
 The friends of S. T. Ware, salesman for the Hooven Mercantile Company, at Mahanoy City, are much exercised over his sudden disappearance. He left that town on Monday for Shenandoah and since then nothing has been heard of him. He is about 28 years old, tall, stout and weighs about 190 pounds. He formerly lived at Hazleton. His mother-in-law, Mrs. Evans, his mother-in-law, visited this town yesterday, and the last trace of Ware was at a saloon in Brownsville, where it was learned he complained of suffering from cramps, to which he is subject. His friends believe that he has gone to the house of a friend while suffering and has not recovered. The police of this and neighboring towns have been notified to be on the alert.

Acknowledgments.
 Having received the sum of $105.33 from the Home Friendly Society of Baltimore, Md., which is payment in full of claim on the death of my husband, David Davis, I wish to return my sincere thanks to the society and its worthy president, B. L. Talley, and William T. Evans, superintendent. I also wish them well deserved prosperity for their honorable business methods.

Mrs. SARAH A. DAVIS,

Beer Refrigerator Robbed.
 During the early hours of this morning the beer refrigerator of the Kettig Brewing Company, at Mahanoy City, was broken into and robbed of several kegs of beer. The Chief of Police, who passed the place shortly after, saw the door open and notified the agent, Charles Sides, who immediately replaced a new lock. As the Chief of Police and a Constable were making their second beat they noticed three characters, Nicholas Cummings, Edward Kopper and Patrick Salmon, act very suspiciously in that neighborhood. They examined the new lock and found that it had been tampered with, and thinking the three characters were the guilty parties at once made efforts to arrest them. Kopper and Salmon were arrested by the officers, while Cummings took to his heels, but was brought to a halt by the Chief, who drew his revolver. The trio was committed to jail this morning.

If you want a fine wedding cake, let Otto make it for you.

Leaving Town.
 Many of our readers who have been benefited by the use of Tait's "Cures" will be sorry to learn that the Tait Medicine Company, of Philadelphia, will leave Shenandoah the first of the week for Hazleton. Dr. Tait informs us that for the benefit of all who have used the "Cures" or any persons who have not taken advantage of the special advertising price, he will continue to sell a large 81 bottle for 35 cents, or three for $1. for three days. This will give all who require the cures an opportunity to procure them at the reduced price before he leaves. The office is at No. 121 North Main street. The cures are on sale at Shenandoah Drug Store, Puvinsky's, No. 28 East Centre street, and at Wm. Penn Supply Company's store, at Wm. Penn.

N. K.—The Dr. says: "If any one doubts the value of the 'Cures' ask your next door neighbor about them. There is not a block in Shenandoah but what in it there lives some person who has been benefited by their use."

TESTIMONIAL BANQUET.
 Superintendent Whitaker Entertained by the School Teachers Last Night.
 The public school teachers of town last evening tendered a testimonial banquet to Superintendent Whitaker, at the Ferguson House. In addition to the teachers there were in attendance School Directors Frank Hanna, Daniel Ogden and John J. Price, and ex-School Director H. J. Muldoon. All but five of the school teachers were present.

The teachers assembled in the parlor of the Ferguson House at nine o'clock and Messrs. William E. James and Michael H. Britt were appointed a committee to escort Superintendent Whitaker from his home to the hotel. It was about 11:15 when the teachers and their guests took seats at the well spread tables in the dining room and partook of an excellent repast, which was followed by addresses, recitations and vocal and instrumental music. Singing by the assemblage preceded the opening address by Prof. J. W. Cooper. There were also addresses by Messrs. M. H. Britt, H. C. Hooks, F. E. Williams, Daniel Ogden, Frank Hanna, H. J. Muldoon and J. J. Price. Misses Hannah Scanlin and Mahala Fairchild gave recitations, Miss Mame Wasley a piano solo, and Misses Jane T. Lambert and Anna M. Deinger and Messrs. H. C. Hooks and J. J. Price formed a quartette. Misses Annie E. Coogan and Maggie E. Cavanaugh rendered a duet and Miss Mary A. Lafferty read a poem in which all the teachers received recognition.

Superintendent Whitaker was presented with a handsome and comfortable chair, a gift from the teachers. Prof. J. W. Cooper made the presentation address and a graceful acknowledgment was made by Mr. Whitaker in person. Mr. Cooper said the chair was a token of the esteem in which the teachers held the Superintendent and their appreciation of his services to the cause of education during the past three years, as well as the long term of years in which he devoted his energies to the cause. The singing of "Auld Lang Syne" closed the banquet.

Application for Charter.
 Application was made to court this morning for the granting of a charter to All Saints Protestant Episcopal church of town. The vestry has been increased by the addition of three names, Messrs. William J. Jacobs, Charles Amour and Joseph Hinks. Rev. Van Fossen, the popular rector of the church and Dr. D. M. Bordner, returned home this morning from Emporium, where they had been on business connected with the church. Their visit was a profitable one.

Pleasant Social Gathering.
 A pleasant event took place last evening in honor of Mrs. K. Sell, at the home of her son, Harris, on West Oak street, which was attended by a number of their most intimate friends. An evening of rare social enjoyment was spent, after which the guests repaired to the dining room, where a sumptuous repast was served. An interesting feature of the evening were the renditions on the piano by Mrs. W. N. Ehrhart, Miss Virgie Kehler and Isadore Seff, which were highly received. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Ehrhart, Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Lauterstein, Mr. and Mrs. David Levine, Misses Jessie and Sarah Stein, Miss Virgie Kehler, and Dr. W. N. Stein, L. R. Fowich and M. H. Barnett.

Nerves and Blood
 Are inseparably connected. The former depend simply, solely, solidly upon the latter. If it is pure they are properly fed and there is no "nervousness." If it is impure they are fed on refuse, therefore cannot be strong and healthy, and the horrors of nervous prostration result. The only sensible way to cure is: Feed the nerves on pure blood. Make pure rich, red blood and keep it pure, by taking

Salaries of Methodist Bishops.
 CLEVELAND, May 29.—The book committee of the Methodist conference met yesterday and formed a temporary organization by electing Rev. Dr. W. F. Whitlock, of Ohio, chairman, and Rev. Dr. S. O. Benton, of Connecticut, secretary. It was decided to pay the bishops $4,000 per year and traveling expenses. Bishops Foster and Bowman, retired, will be paid the same until the first of the year, and their permanent remuneration will be decided upon next February.
