The campaign of Governor Morton seems to have passed into "innocuous desuetude."

The cyclone that struck St. Louis will be no comparison to that which awaits the Democratic party in November. Schrykill county will feel its effects, too.

The prospect of a split at Chicago is increasing. If this had happened in 1892 instead of 1893, just think of what an incalculable benefit the Democratic party might have conferred on the country.

The New York Board of Health has added a new section to the sanitary code prohibiting spitting on the floors of public buildings, railroad cars and ferries. As offenders are subject to arrest the reform will doubtless be carried through promptly.

Since the swindle known as filled cheese made its appearance in this country the exports of cheese have declined 40 per cent. The adulteration of food is injurious to health and ruinous to commerce, and it ought to be stamped out as one of the worst frauds of the time.

The pupils of the public schools of Boston have voluntarily constituted themselves a brigade whose duty is to keep the streets of the city clean of flying paper. This is an example that might be followed by the entire population of Shenandoah. The flying paper nuisance is one that is commanding much attention.

Much interest is now being newly aroused over the question as to who will succeed J. Donald Cameron in the United States Senate. Up to the present time the only self-avowed candidates are Senator John P. Penrose, of Philadelphia, and Congressman John B. Robinson, of Media, although friends of Ex-Governor General John Wannamaker have placed him in the field to be voted for by Senator Penrose's opponent at the Republican primaries of Huntington county on Saturday, June 6. Mr. Wannamaker has not given his consent for the use of his name, he being absent. The fight from now on promises to be a spirited one.

A WRITER in the "Fortnightly Review" describes the condition of the 240,000 British farmers as almost desperate. The thriving herds have disappeared, cottages and country mansions are closed, "white rural laborers, flocking into the towns, further swell the ranks of the unemployed." As a contrast, there exists in England, according to this writer, "an appalling commercial wealth" whose vast accumulations are invested with difficulty. The British farmers demand protection, but their misdeed is comparatively small, and there is little prospect that what they ask will be granted. But no nation can see its agriculture going to ruin without a sense of anxiety, and this is clearly the situation in free-trade Great Britain at the present time.

The professional politicians and their friends—especially in times like these—are profuse in their "praises" of the press. The Hazleton Plain Speaker is after the "dead-beat" politicians with a big stick. It says: "Here and there occasionally the incumbent who is never satisfied is heard to pass a remark concerning the 'party paper' which in the heat of battle is his salvation and which when all is over is not worthy of his attention, not even to the extent of a subscription. In former campaigns, when proprietors knew too well the significance of a promise, it was considered no breach to be included in the category of the 'party,' but as the value of some promises has been learned and as the methods of inclining adepts are exposed, through desertion in the time of need, it is required that this day the honestly earned cash in advance, in part payment for what will be said. No one has been found yet who was able to live on promises and to that newspapers are no exceptions." There are some Shenandoah office-holders that might be classed in the same category, and who are again anxious for a re-nomination.

If a successful process for obtaining electrical power directly from coal without the intervention of furnace, boiler or dynamo has not been discovered, it seems only a matter of short time when it will be. A man in New York claims to have solved the problem. Edison has been at work on the same thing 17 years. Finally Dr. Jacques, of Boston, is certain he has found the way to get a current of any needed power from carbon and washing soda. Dr. Jacques' process is simple. He puts the lump of canitic soda into an iron pot. He heats the pot to a temperature of 200 degrees. The soda melts and forms what experts call an electrolyte. He thrusts a stick of carbon into the soda; next an iron tube ditto. Through the iron pipe he forces by means of a pump a stream of oxygen. The oxygen bubbles up through the soda, and some of it comes in contact with the stick of carbon as it bubbles. That produces the electricity. Connect the carbon stick and the iron pot by a wire, and there you are. Along the wire flows a stream of electricity ten times as powerful as that obtained from the same amount of carbon, or coal by the ordinary process—at least so Dr. Jacques claims. The electricity is generated by the air and carbon. The soda merely enables them to unite.

Address to the Silverites.
WASHINGTON, June 1.—The National Silver party, through its chairman, J. J. Mitchell, issued a call to its headquarters in this city on Saturday, on May 19, from Pennsylvania. This address declares that the secret of success in the pending contest consists in lining up for the battle, and that the convention of the party to be held in St. Louis on July 22 will undoubtedly be one of the most important conventions and notable gatherings ever assembled in this country. The friends of the party are urged to push the work of organization with all possible vigor.

Death of Miss Katie Field.
CHICAGO, June 1.—A cablegram from Yokohama says: Miss Katie Field died in Honolulu, Hawaii, on May 19, from pneumonia. The death of Miss Field was undoubtedly due to exposure. It was her intention to "do" the Hawaiian Islands thoroughly and exhaustively, and she therefore subjected herself to all sorts of experiences, riding over the islands on horseback and turning back for no sort of weather. It was impossible for her to travel other than by horseback. No particulars of her death are yet obtainable.

HARRISBURG, N. J., June 1.—Justice Charles P. Smith has given it out that he will hold no more midnight sessions of court. Heretofore, for the accommodation of "drunks" who lived out of town and happened to be taken in late at night, the justice would climb out of bed and hold court in his nocturnal habiliments, anywhere from sunset to sunrise.

TO CURE DYSPEPSIA.

A New Remedy Which Will Do It.

Chronic Dyspepsia is considered by many people to be nearly if not quite incurable. No good reason can be given why they think so except that perhaps they have tried various remedies without much, if any benefit. But the progress in every branch of medicine has been such that among other things a lasting cure for indigestion in its chronic form as well as temporary has been discovered and it is now placed before the public strictly on its merits as a permanent cure for all stomach troubles or difficulties with the digestive organs.

This new treatment is called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, being put up in tablet form so as to be easily taken and also to preserve its good qualities for an indefinite length of time.

This remedy has produced surprising effects in the worst forms of indigestion, and in many cases where ordinary remedies failed to give even relief, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have fully cured.

The splendid results from using this preparation are owing to the fact that it is a prepared and intended for Dyspepsia and stomach troubles only.

It is not a cure-all like so many advertised remedies, claiming to cure everything under the sun, but it is claimed that it is a certain cure for Dyspepsia and anyone suffering from any form of indigestion cannot fail to get permanent relief and cure from its use.

It is so prepared and the ingredients are of such a nature that when the tablets are taken into the stomach they digest the food no matter whether the stomach is in good working order or not.

You get sustenance and strength to mind and body by reason of the food being properly digested and at the same time the much abused stomach is allowed to rest and recuperate.

Notwithstanding the great benefits to be derived, this preparation is very reasonable in price, costing but 50 cents per package at druggists. Send to Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., for little book on stomach diseases or ask your druggist for it.

Street Car Plunged Into a Ditch.
PITTSBURGH, June 1.—Car No. 50 of the Second Avenue Traction Line jumped the track yesterday afternoon, and the seven-ton passengers aboard were all more or less hurt, two of them seriously. The day of miracles has not passed or all would have been killed. The seriously injured are Adam Bachman and M. L. Kreger, both residents of the South Side. Bachman's arm is broken in two places and his head is badly cut and his body bruised. Kreger is in nearly the same condition. While going at railroad speed the car took a flying leap, and after turning completely over landed at the bottom of a ditch twelve feet below, with its wheels in the air.

LONDON, June 1.—The Times Pretoria correspondent says: Vice President Joubert and Secretary of State Leyds went to Bloemfontein with a mission to invite the Orange Free State to a uniform arming of the two republics. Probably both will adopt the Mauser rifle. It is believed that the arming of the Transvaal is intended to commensurate the progress in the clemency shown the reform prisoners.

Struck on a Rock and Sunk.
PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 1.—The steamer "Providence" struck a large rock in the Ohio river, fifteen miles below here, Saturday night, and sank in five feet of water, at what is known as the Lee Creek Rapids. She was on the up trip from St. Louis to Pittsburg. Captain Gray, aged 71, was in command. No lives were lost.

"Last summer while attending court at Uniontown," says D. B. Patton, a prominent druggist of Fayette City, Pa., "three witnesses were suffering from diarrhoea. I gave each a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it gave immediate relief. On the way home one of my neighbors was taken with a severe cramp in the stomach and was suffering with intense pains. I gave him a dose of this remedy and within five minutes the pains had ceased. The remedy is a favorite here. I know of many who never without it. I always take it with me when going away from home." For sale by Grubler Bros., druggists.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., June 1.—Washington Logan was arrested two weeks ago for not having a lighted lamp on his bicycle. When brought before Burgess Williams he pleaded poverty, and was given ten days in which to pay. THE ENGINEER RESPONSIBLE For the Striking of a Steam Launch, When Three Were Drowned.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Three deaths resulted from the striking of the steam launch "Ben Franklin" in the Harlem river last Saturday night. Lizzie McKoon, one of those rescued, died in the Harlem hospital yesterday. The body of Mabel Wolfer, who was also drowned, has not been recovered. The Ben Franklin came to this city from Philadelphia with the crew of the University of Pennsylvania aboard, and F. C. Morgan, the manager of the crew, had charge of the launch. Last Saturday night she was anchored at the foot of the Harlem river. Frank McHugh, the engineer, was left in charge of her.

When William Hartman, who is one of the Barnum & Bailey acrobats, asked McHugh to take him and a party of friends out for a sail Saturday night he readily consented. McHugh, who has been held responsible for the accident by Coroner Dobbs, says that Hartman came from Philadelphia on the boat with the students, and he thought Hartman had authority to order him to do what he pleased with the boat.

In the party which left on the launch were Jacob Wolfer, his daughters, Mabel and Gertrude, and Hartman, McHugh and the three girls who met their death. Hartman is a friend of Wolfer's, Miss Murray and Miss McKoon were friends of Wolfer's daughters.

McHugh, when arraigned before Coroner Dobbs, declared that the transfer boat ran into the launch, but Captain W. W. Hamilton, of the transfer boat, and other witnesses who were seen by Officer Alfred J. Reid, insisted that the transfer boat was at a standstill at the north side of the river waiting to go into her dock when the launch ran into her. McHugh, according to Wolfer, was steering the launch at the time of the accident. McHugh says that Wolfer was at the wheel.

Officer Reid says that McHugh was under the influence of liquor when he was arrested. Coroner Dobbs thought that McHugh had no right to take the launch out, and that he was unable to manage it properly. He committed McHugh to the Tombs on default of $5,000 bail on a charge of criminal negligence.

Dr. D. R. Rothrock, of New Berlin, Pa., does not hesitate to recommend Chamberlain's medicine. He says: "I have handled them for a year or more in my pharmacy and find them safe and reliable. My customers praise them very highly." No one who is troubled with rheumatism can use Chamberlain's Pain Balm without praising it. The quick relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by Grubler Bros., druggists.

The Bermuda at Philadelphia.
PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—The steamer Bermuda, which left Jacksonville, Fla., on April 27 with the alleged intention of landing a cargo of ammunition and a body of men on the shores of Cuba, arrived in this port yesterday with a cargo of fruit. In spite of the experience the vessel is said to have met with she presents a trim appearance. All on board maintain the utmost secrecy, and the most persistent questioning fails to disclose any of the alleged filibustering movements of the steamer. The admitted reason for this reticence is that arrests may follow, as in the past. From what could be gathered, however, it is most probable that the Bermuda did carry an expedition, and that it was also necessary to throw some of the cargo of arms and ammunition overboard.

The Discovery Saved His Life.
Mr. G. Caillonette, Druggist, Beavertown, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at A. Wasley's Drug Store.

Death of "Brick" Pomeroy.
BROOKLYN, June 1.—Mark M. Pomeroy, popularly and widely known as "Brick" Pomeroy, died at his home in this city on Saturday. Pomeroy, though a native of New York state, had long been identified with the interests of Wisconsin. The sobriquet "Brick" was obtained while he was publishing a paper in Horton in 1857. He began writing sketches of prominent men in Wisconsin in the most extravagant vein. These he called "Brick dust sketches." During the war he became notorious for the violence of his editorial attacks on the government, and was several times threatened with lynching. Subsequently he started a daily paper in New York, but it bankrupted him.

Our customers invariably pronounce it the best they can find, and we know of no case where it has failed to give satisfaction." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by Grubler Bros., druggists.

CHELSEA, Mich., June 1.—Emma Morekel was shot and killed Saturday night by her finance, Fred Hydloff, who was in a jealous rage because the young woman had been escorted home by another man. Let The Whole World Know The Good Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Does HEART DISEASE, has its victims at a disadvantage. Always taught that heart disease is incurable, when the symptoms become well defined, the patient becomes alarmed and a nervous panic takes place. But when a sure remedy is found and a cure effected, after years of suffering, there is great rejoicing and desire to "let the whole world know." Mrs. Laura Winger, of Selkirk, Kansas, writes: "I desire to let the whole world know what Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has done for me. For ten years I had pain in my heart, shortness of breath, palpitation, pain in my left side, oppressed feeling in my chest, weak and hungry spells, bad dreams, could not lie on either side, was numb and suffered terribly. I took Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and before I finished the second bottle I felt its good effects. I feel now that I am fully recovered, and that Dr. Miles' Heart Cure saved my life." Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on guarantee that first lot of benefits, or money refunded.
