EVENING HERALD
THURSDAY, JUNE 4, 1896.

GREAT TOY FOR THE BOYS.

The famous old Deadwood Stage Coach! You've seen it perhaps. You've read about its stirring adventures surely. It's yours—in miniature. Next Sunday, June 7, The Philadelphia Press will give to its readers—such and every one of them—an exact reproduction of this noted old vehicle. Not a picture, but a model, so that you almost see the real stage coach with its galloping horses and watchful driver and riders. The latter are on the lookout for trouble, with guns ready for action. The whole thing is complete, even to the passengers inside and the trunk in the rear.

Boys, tell your father of this great gift with next Sunday's "Press." Keep telling him. Don't let him forget it. What's better yet, make sure of your getting this splendid toy by persuading him to order next Sunday's "Press" now of his newsdealer. Then you're all right no matter how big a demand there is next Sunday.

Birthday Party.

A party was held last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. Yost, on East Coal street, to celebrate the 18th anniversary of their daughter, Laura M. Those present were Edna, Mildred, Intha and Bertha Link, La Vera Robbins, Ethel Robinson, Ethel Haskins, Maud and Florence Starr, Lizzie Weir, Carrie Duggan and Bertha Portz.

State Editorial Association.

The executive committee of the State Editorial Association has arranged for the annual summer outing, at Atlantic City. The members will assemble in Philadelphia, at Hotel Hanover, on Monday evening, June 29th, and the following morning leave on the Pennsylvania railroad for Atlantic City, where the party of "quill drivers" and their lady friends will remain at the Grand Atlantic Hotel until Friday, returning home on that day.

THE BOGART CASE.

Special Committee Goes to Harrisburg—The Alleged Publications.
Messrs. John J. Price and T. R. Beddall, the president and solicitor of the School Board, respectively, left this morning for Harrisburg to see what they can learn concerning the charges against Prof. Bogart. Another meeting of the Board may be held tomorrow night to hear the report.

The following are furnished by Secretary Frank Hanna as copies made by ex-Superintendent M. P. Whitaker of the articles alleged to have appeared in the Pittsburg newspapers. It is stated that the original clippings are on file in the State Department with the protest:

From the Pittsburg Leader, April 27, 1896.

The citizens of Knoxville have been excited over the reported misdoings of Prof. J. D. Bogart, principal of the Knoxville public schools. "He has been held in high esteem by all those who know him," said a resident of the borough today, "but it is alleged that on Thursday afternoon of last week the class in botany had gone to the woods for specimens and before leaving the school, Prof. Bogart told them that they could come back in the evening for their books. Among the class was the daughter of John Vates, who lives on Grape street, and who is about 13 years of age. She returned to the school about 7 o'clock, her books, and it is charged, she was detained unduly by Prof. Bogart under some pretense. During this time, Daniel Rumor alleges, the professor acted unbecomingly towards the child."

Mrs. Vates, the mother of the little girl, was interviewed by the Leader this morning. She said: "I do not wish to talk to any newspaper man, or be the means of giving this matter publicity. It has been settled to the satisfaction of my father and all parties concerned. Mrs. Vates admitted that her daughter had not been properly treated, but added that nothing serious had occurred. Consequently she was desirous of preventing a scandal."

Mr. J. F. Grimes, of the Knoxville land improvement company, one of the directors of the school, was seen. He said that Prof. Bogart was a married man with a family and always was in for a frolic with the children after school. "This story," said Mr. Grimes bluntly, "is based on something that has occurred at one of these times." He admitted that Prof. Bogart had resigned his position. It seems that some boys—presumably the board of directors and a special meeting was called for Friday night, at which time Prof. Bogart was asked to resign, which he immediately did.

This is Mr. Bogart's second term as principal of the school. There seems to be two factions in the School Board, and they have had a row before regarding Prof. Bogart. He has many warm friends, who allege that personal animus is at the bottom of the opposition to him.

The indignation of the citizens of Knoxville who are opposed to Mr. Bogart has reached a high pitch. There was one wild rumor about Tuesday that the Professor had been given leave to leave the town or at least to be removed. Police Lieutenant Johnston was consulted, but owing to his lack of knowledge regarding the circumstances of the case, he would not offer advice.

A leader mentioned that Prof. Bogart's residence on Knox street, but no one knew the name of his servant girl, and she said she knew nothing of the Professor's whereabouts.

From the Pittsburg Dispatch, April 28, 1896.

Prof. C. D. Bogart, principal of the Knoxville public school, has just left the borough in a few days. Serious charges were preferred against him last week by John Vates. He alleged that Prof. Bogart attempted to assault his 13-year-old daughter. On Saturday evening the School Board held a special meeting and accepted the resignation.

When seen Prof. Bogart stated that he had intended to leave at the end of this term, but he decided he would leave immediately, as it would be the best thing for him to do under the circumstances. He said the girl came to the school on Thursday evening after some books which she had left at school to be given to her, which she had taken with her to the woods. He said that when the girl reached home her clothing was badly torn. Prof. Bogart says this was done when rummaging about the room. Prof. Bogart is a married man and has one child. Mrs. Vates refused to talk of the affair. She said it had been settled to the satisfaction of all concerned. The girl returned to school yesterday morning.

The Borough Justices.

Argument on the appeal from the decision of the Dauphin county court, in the cases of the Methuen City and Shenandoah justices of the peace, was heard yesterday before the Supreme Court in session at Harrisburg. A. W. Schalk and George J. Wadlinger, Esqs., argued for the ward Justices, while M. E. Housholder presented the case of the commonwealth. The appellants get some comfort out of the fact that Justice Mitchell asked for the original constitution of 1838, his idea being to determine whether the word in Article 6, sec. 7, was "number" or "manner." It was found to be "number." In the constitution of 1874 the word is "manner."

Too Much for the Singles.

The married men of Wm. Penn displayed their prowess on the diamond yesterday and defeated the single men of that place by a score of 17 to 2. A feature of the game was the pitching of Anson Jones. He struck out 11 men. Birklebach struck out 9. The married men made 24 hits and the singles 13. Nine errors were charged up to the former and 11 to the singles. The players on the respective teams were: Married Men—Mixon, 1b; Jones, p.; Lendon, c.; Harris, 2b; Dressler, 3b; Malloy, ss.; Steele, 1f; McDonough, c.f.; Williams, r.f. Singles—Birklebach, p.; Malloy, c.; Vaughn, 3b; Jones, 1b; Lewis, 2b; Taggart, s.s.; J. Frame, 1f; William Frame, r.f.; Bowen, c.f. The victors were open for challenges from any team in the region, barring the Lost Creek county league team. Communications may be addressed to James McDonough, manager, of Wm. Penn.

Killed on the Rail.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Dalton, who lives near Schuylkill Haven, was run down and killed almost instantly by a freight train at the Crossons crossing of the P. & R. Railroad.

Circus Horse Drops Dead.

While Scribner & Smith's circus was passing through St. Nicholas this morning, one of the horses suddenly dropped dead. The cause of the death is not known, as the animal had always been in a healthy condition.

Special Attraction To-night.

Prof. A. Wright, pianist, and W. Beckitt, vocalist, will entertain the many patrons of Hon. Joseph Wyant's saloon to-night. Both gentlemen are marvellous and will undoubtedly attract a large audience.

Attended the Races.

Messrs. John Higgins, John Tuole, Frank Brunan, John Kelly, Jr., and P. J. Monaghan are in New York to-day attending the Brooklyn handicap races which took place this afternoon.

Ask your grocer for the "Royal Patent" flour, and take no other brand. It is the best flour made.

Child Killed.

A two-year-old child of James Groody, of Mahanoy Plane, came to his death in a very distressing manner at that place yesterday afternoon. The child was in his carriage being wheeled by an elder brother along the pavement, when he threw some article he had in his hand into the street. The elder boy left the carriage to recover it, but as the pavement inclines the carriage ran down to the alley before the boy could recover it. A team of horses stood at Noxon's hotel and the carriage ran against the horses' legs, causing them to rear and when they came down the foot of one horse crushed the child's face to earth, causing death.

Don't fail to see the attractive show window display of watches at Brumm's.

Team Upset.

This morning as the bottling team of J. F. Cleary was standing in front of Maurice Morrison's saloon, the horses suddenly became frightened at the approach of an electric car. The horses turned around, caused the rear end of the wagon to be struck by the car and upsetting it with its contents. The horses were immediately caught by the driver, which prevented a runaway.

SPECIAL BARGAINS IN NOTIONS AND NOVELTIES.

WE have the pleasure to announce a new departure—the location of an agency in New York city for the purchase and selection of our stock in order to enable us to quote lower prices than others who buy on long time and ask big prices in these days of panic and hard times.

Our agent has instructions to watch every sale and every failure; to look after every house on the verge of bankruptcy and ruin, and with cash in hand to buy the lump or in the lot, every class of merchandise that we can get at less than its value, so that we can mark in plain figures on our bargains prices that have not been named or quoted in this market or any other.

Not by favor, but by merit alone, will we maintain and increase our unrivalled reputation.

Big prices will not do in these times when every wealthy man can not afford to waste their money and the poor require double duty of every dollar and every penny.

As our prices change with every sale, it will be impossible to give quotations, but it will be our aim to name figures that will compel you in self-defense to buy of us.

We deal in good goods and not trash, and believe the masses will patronize that house that sells the best goods for the least money.

Among our daily arrivals we shall place before our people some land-slides that are positively beyond the whisper of competition, comparison, or monopoly—prices that will teach you in the silent logic of truth the difference between dealing with live and with dead men—between the cash and the credit system—between the right and wrong way.

Hence we throw out among the masses these specialties—these matchless goods and matchless prices, to check the insane and criminal practices of wasting money for the paltry consideration of a little credit.

Who can tell the waste of money when you get your goods of houses that buy and sell on long time.

Gold is a good thing—but give us genius and ambition, and then an energy that never tires, a mind that never wanders, an eye that never sleeps, and a nerve that never quivers, and we will ride rough shod all over the world!

New advanced ideas crowding out the old—pluck instead of luck—cash instead of credit—brains in the place of cheek—and science and ability beating back and crushing into oblivion these moonshine merchants with their tough and tremendous long time prices.

What is the use of wasting a dollar when you may save it?

Upon our counters will be thrown, day after day, new arrivals, at panic prices, from houses that collapsed, others that will go down to-morrow, and still others who throw out these sacrifices in vain hope to outlive the storm. From such sources as these we buy our goods, and the house that wants the trade of the people must go beyond these advance lines, must beat these prices or go down—for if there is honor in man, or virtue in good goods at low prices, we mean to be master of the situation—the live pioneers who dive down to rock bottom.

We shall offer such unanswerable arguments as no house can match—leaders and specialties at quotations that no other can offer—stern and stubborn facts that will level your head on the subject of genuine bargains.

Hard luck and harder times pinch some high-toned old credit concerns—they must have money to meet the inevitable note to-morrow—they all know we have the cash—the hard and solid cash—and a thousand will buy double the value, and we can offer goods at figures away below the regular wholesale jobbers of Broadway.

We wish to right the wrong, and believe the God of battles is ever with the right.

When bankruptcy and ruin overtake the victim we are always there with the Almighty Dollar.

When the hammer of the auctioneer falls upon some grand and gigantic windshake listen to Our Name.

Thus we are fighting against the old rotten credit system for money, for reputation, and for the people!

This is the music that crowds our store whilst other merchants sleep on their counters, while dreaming of the day of disaster and ruin awaiting all who buy on long time and sell on longer—who pay big prices, and all at figures that no people can afford to pay.

We invite an early and repeated visit and inspection. Our stock will be replenished every few days.

CHARLES S. HALL,
Manager.
