VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.

They Are the Mostly Talked of, Now That McKinley's Nomination is Conceded—National Committee Refuses to Seat Either Delegates From Delaware.

ST. LOUIS, June 12.—It is generally believed that the declaration in favor of the gold standard in the Republican platform will be very emphatic and unequivocal.
When the men from the east reach St.
Louis they will find that the close friends of Major McKinley are ready to offer them a financial plank that they can agree upon without hesitation. Several drafts of a platform have been prepared, and it is now believed that a form has been secured which will be satisfactory. It will declare against the free coinage of silver unless it should be brought about by international agreement. No ratio is mentioned, and in this respect it is more acceptable to the gold men. It will also declare that Republicans are against the debasement of the currency, and is therefore in favor of the present gold standard.

The Republican party will be given credit for having brought about the resumption act which has also maintained every dollar at a parity, whether coin or

DANIEL H. HASTINGS. paper, and that the standard of money should be, as it always has been and is now, equal to that of the most enlightened nations of the world.

These declarations embody the wishes of the friends of Major McKinley, and the men who are now here appear to them.

It is probable that the National League of Republican clubs will have something to say about the vice presidential candidates. The league is largely for McKinley, but there is a division of sentiment in regard to the second place. Ex-Governor D.
Russell Brown, of Rhode Island, is a member of the league in good standing and his friends will put him forward as the right man to combine with McKinley on the national ticket. E. A. McAlpin, of New York, is the president of the league, and naturally his friends are anxious to see him honored. McAlpin is adjutant general on the staff of Governor Morton, of New York, and the argument will be advanced that his nomination would please Morton.

Governor Morton seems to be the choice of the national committee, among all the New York candidates, and if he would accept the nomination there is some reason to believe that the vice presidency would be held out to him by the powers that be, provided that Quay's consent could be secured. The friends of Garrett A. Hobart, of New Jersey, claim that Quay is committed to him, and there are surface indications that give probability to this story.
Senator Quay, however, is very cautious in making promises, and the Hobart party are counting their chickens before they are hatched.

Quay may take it into his head, for example, to name Governor Hastings, of

H. CLAY EVANS.

Pennsylvania, for the vice presidency.
Leaving Hastings out of the question, it is probable that Quay, if he had to choose between Hobart and a New England man, would select the former. Henry C. Payne, member of the national committee for Wisconsin, said in discussing the situation:

"At present Hobart, of New Jersey, has the lead with those now here. We cannot, however, tell how it may be when more delegates arrive. Still Mr. Hobart is generally recognized as an available man, who could easily carry New Jersey for the Republican ticket this year."

The boom for H. Clay Evans, of Tennessee, has grown to a wonderful size.
Evans himself has made no effort to secure second place on the McKinley ticket.
He has other plans in view, which would make his acceptance of the vice presidential nomination impossible.

Another candidate for second place on the ticket is M. H. DeYoung, of California. He is a strong favorite among the free silver men of the west. He has done

Eighty-five Miners Entombed, Three Dead

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., June 12.—The Taylorville Coal Mining works were destroyed by fire yesterday, and eighty-five men entombed alive. The fire, which was caused by an explosion of gasolene, spread rapidly through the mine, cutting off the men at work in the lower levels. Those rescued were taken out through a shaft that the fire did not reach. The flames are still raging below, and the bodies of the three dead miners cannot be gotten out.
Twenty nudes also perished.

Fatal Fire in Allegheny.

ALLEGHENY, Pa., June 12.—An early morning fire in a tenement house at No.
23 Spring garden avenue resulted in the killing of two persons and serious injuries to two others. The names are: Mrs.
Zoneshondia Garbels, aged 74; killed by jumping from a window; Frank Garbels, aged 5 years, suffocated; Lottie Garbels, aged 12 years, internally hurt, may die; Mrs. Frank Garbels, badly burned. The fire was caused by the explosion of a barrel of oil in the cellar.

Kane, who is in the habit of throwing a small boy on the head, when he was set upon by a crowd of youths. Had it not been for the timely arrival of Chief Burgess Burns the officer might have suffered considerably at the hands of the mob.

PROF. BOGART IS CONFIDENT

Has Formally Demanded an Official Investigation of the Charges.

APPEARANCES ARE IN HIS FAVOR

Members of the Knoxville School Board and Many School Teachers and Business People of the Place Write Strong Letters in His Behalf.

Another chapter was yesterday added to the case of Prof. Bogart, the superintendent-elect of the local public schools, and appears to be of a character that will not please Mr.
Bogart's accusers. Messrs. John J. Price and T. R. Beddall, respectively the president and secretary of the School Board, spent yesterday at Harrisburg and had a long talk over the case with both Prof. Bogart and the State Superintendent. The latter has been urged to bring about a hearing of the case as soon as possible, but it is not likely that the event will take place before the latter part of this month, or first part of July, owing to the State Superintendent's previous engagements; nor has the place for the investigation been decided upon, although it is known that either Harrisburg or Knoxville will be selected.

Prof. Bogart formally demanded a hearing on the charges made against him upon calling at the State Superintendent's headquarters last Saturday, and he is determined that a full investigation shall be made.
Neither Mr. Beddall nor Mr. Price would speak officially in the matter, but it can be assumed that they do not consider Prof.
Bogart's position in the same light that a hasty consideration would put it. Prof.
Bogart again emphatically denied the charges and has evidence from Knoxville that seems to fully exonerate him. The School Board of Knoxville has sent a strong official letter in his behalf and it is flanked by similar letters from many leading merchants, school teachers and others of Knoxville.

Another very essential point has developed.
Prof. Bogart's accusers have studiously kept before the public a statement by one of the newspapers concerned in the matter that the Knoxville School Board demanded Prof.
Bogart's resignation, whereas it now appears that the resignation was never demanded, that the School Board adopted resolutions honoringly acquitting Prof. Bogart of the charges and also urged him to stay. It is likely that the Superintendent-elect will pay a visit to town within the next few days.

The attendance at the second performance evening that the proprietor was obliged to close the ticket office when the first act of the evening's program began. Immediately after the ticket office was opened it was one continuous throng of people who were trying to procure tickets to witness their excellent performance. It is unnecessary to go into detail as to its merits, as the above statement is an accurate one, and speaks very highly of the aggregation. The show will close its engagement to-night, performance commencing at 8 o'clock.

Presented With a Beautiful Flag.

The regular meeting of Shenandoah Valley Council No. 539, Jr. O. U. E. M., last evening, was an interesting one. Besides a large number of members from Major Jennings Council No. 967, there were present large delegations from Hazleton, Nurnburg and other places. Shenandoah Valley Council was instituted here but a few months ago, and meets in the pretty hall in the Schmidt building, on North Main street. Their number about 75 members, and each week are adding new names to the roll. The presentation of a beautiful silk flag last evening was a great surprise. It is 6x10 feet, and is the finest flag yet manufactured by the well-known paraphernalia goods house of R. H.
Morgan. The presentation was made by C.
T. Straight on behalf of Maj. Jennings Council No. 967, and it was received by Rev.
Alfred Heebner, of Germantown Council, on behalf of Shenandoah Valley Council, in an able manner. His address was well received and elicited much applause. Felix Kloek, president of the new Council, also made a few appropriate remarks extending thanks for the gift. The meeting proved an interesting one to those present.
