A FIRST WARD ROBBERY.

the Victim's Room-mate.

Charles Benedict and Joe Barowofsky have been bearflers in the same house in the First ward and occupied the same bed for some time and up to yesterday morning neither had any cause to complain of each other, but appearances now indicate that Baronofsky has fallen from grace and that he will soon have a room in the county jail unless he toroeds in satisfying Benedict,
The latter is a thrifty man, but makes the handkerchief and left the package in a pocket handkerchief and left the package in a pocket of his trousers, which he allowed to hang at the fact of the bed when he retired. Yesterday morning be found the money had been stolen. An exhaustive, but fruitless march was made in and about the bed room. Benedict finally concluded to put the case in the hands of Justice Lawlor, but as he started for the office Baranofsky called him Mahanoy Firemen's Relief Association, and these plants. It is not foo late to plant. Promoted. Benedict finally concluded to put the case in the hands of Justice Lawlor, but as he started for the office Baranofsky called him back, suggesting that another search be our competitors in the methods of doing business.

There's as much difference in the make, good appearance and prices of clothing in our store and those of clothing in our store and clothing in o in others as there is between a justice Lawier to issue a warmnt. Baronofsky pleaded not guilty before the Justice, but was Base Ball Yesterday. Before an audience of several hundred base ball enthusiasts a 10-inning game was played between the Lost Creek team and a team under the management of P. Monaghan, team under the management of P. Monaghan, of town, at the Trotting park yesterday Railway Company, which was an appeal afternoon. This is the same team that the Lost Creek boys beat on their own grounds ment for want of a sufficient affidavit of delast Sunday, in which they hired about 75 fense. The court read a lengthy opinion in boys to jeer the Shenandoah aggregation, so as to lose their presence of mind. The game throughout yesterday was a very exciting one, many interesting and beautiful plays being made at critical moments. The teams were lined up as follows: Monaghan's-Hildebrand, 1b.; Cutl, 2b.; Matthews, 3b. POTTSVILLE LETTER.

The Circumstances Look Very Peculiar for Judge Pershing Hands Down Several Important Decisions This Morning.

POTTSVILLE, June 15.

In the matter of a charter for the Lithuanian Society of the Sucred Heart of Jesus, of New Philadelphia, a charter was granted. The latter is a thrifty man, but makes the mistake of carrying his savings on his person. Saturday night he had $400 in each in his pockets. He tied the money in a pocket in petitions, James P. Butler and William lengths the had been proposed in petitions. Knowles. It would be necessary for the latter to settle up accounts of his father, who directed the usual decree to be filed.

In the matter of a petition to appoint a number of special police for the Palo Alto plenic the Court appointed the parties named in the petition. Frank Sennett was appointed to fill the acancy of Auditor of Cressona

A charter was granted to the Bethany Evangelical church of Shemandoah. In the matter of the division of the Fifth ward of Pottsville into two election districts ward of Pottsville into two election districts the court approved the report of the commission and ordered a division, in which Percival Boltz was made Judge of Election in First division and Nicholas Brownmiller and Christ Lord, Inspectors. This makes a vacancy of Judge in Second division, as Percival Boltz was Judge of the ward, and John Bushar was appointed to fill vacancy. In the case of Valle Bry vs. Labeside.

We have just received one case of Misses' Fast Black Hose, sizes 5 to 94, which we will ment for want of a sufficient affidavit of de-fense. The court read a lengthy opinion in which it thought that the plaintif's action in paying the costs is equivalent to a dis-continuance, and the rule was made also lute.

In the matter of a new trial in Comm wealth vs. Morris Bartlett, of Anburn, in which defendant was convicted of burning a barn last winter, the court could find no reason for setting aside verdict and refused a new trial. After opinions were handed down Judge Beehtel charged the grand jury, and Judge Pershing heard motions in No. 3 court room. The following were excused from jury duty for reasons stated: Isaac Marks, sickness; Daniel Schlegel, deafness; Frank Mack, sickness, and Daniel Draper, not a citizen.
