REPUBLICAN NATIONAL TICKET. FOR PRESIDENT, WILLIAM MCKINLEY, OF OHIO.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GARRET A. HOBART, OF NEW JERSEY.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET. FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE, GALLUSHA A. GROW, OF SUSQUEHANNA.

THE NOMINEES. "McKinley and Hobart" is the slogan! The delegates at the Republican national convention, at St. Louis, have placed in nomination William McKinley, of Ohio, and Garret A. Hobart, of New Jersey, as candidates for President and Vice President respectively.

William McKinley, whose name and personality just now dominates all things Republican, stands out in bold relief as the champion of Protection to American industry, and the embodiment of the principle enunciated by the illustrious James G. Blaine, that of reciprocity.

His record is his proudest monument. From an ancestry of honest, sturdy people, poor and in humble circumstances; a boyhood spent in industry and with the one desire to rise, an ambition that is worthy every American youth; with the years of manhood his military record is one of much pride, followed, as it is, with his services in the halls of Congress and as Governor of the state of Ohio—rounding out a most brilliant record as a statesman that will stand the test of time.

The Herald favored another candidate—a right vote to every Republican—but from to-day until the battle closes in November next we will be found battling for the party nominees.

The nominee for Vice President, Garret A. Hobart, New Jersey's favorite son, will add strength to the ticket. All doubt as to how New Jersey would cast her electoral vote has been removed by the nomination of Hobart. His prominence in national politics led to his becoming New Jersey's choice for Vice President.

THE PLATFORM. The platform adopted by the Republicans is a model one. It is devoid of ambiguities on the leading questions of the day, and the absence of generalities is a notable and pleasing feature.

Upon the adoption of the platform, and the rejection of the silver substitute, a scene of pathos was witnessed in the convention. Senator Teller was the center of the situation, and as he stood on the convention platform with stern set face and announced that he could not sacrifice the principles he believed in, and was forced, therefore, to sever himself from the grand old party, tears rolled down his cheeks, and his broken voice was drowned only by the cheers that greeted his words; cheers, though, of sympathy with the man's emotion, and not with the theory he advocated—free silver.

From a personal view of the platform, the platform adopted by the Republicans is a model one. It is devoid of ambiguities on the leading questions of the day, and the absence of generalities is a notable and pleasing feature.

platform will be found to contain no shuffling, misrepresentation or evasion. The nominees and the voters of the party can find no cause for complaint, if we except those who favor the unlimited coinage of silver.

"DR. MILES, Through His Nerve Is a Benefactor to Thousands."

A WIDELY known Wisconsin publisher, who resides at Green Bay, writes March 6th, 1895, as follows: "Five years ago I became so nervous that mental work was a burden. I could not rest at night on account of sleeplessness. My attention was called to Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve, and I commenced to use it with the very best effect. Since then I have kept a bottle in my house and use it whenever my nerves become unstrung, with always the same good results."
