EXTRAORDINARY PROMPTNESS.

The Officers of the Home Friendly Company Heartily Recommended.

MR. B. L. TALLEY, PRES.—Allow me to add a testimonial to the many hundred you have received in the prompt manner you settle your claims; also, special thanks to your Superintendent, William T. Evans, and agent, Frederick A. Kinsley, in the prompt manner they discharge their duties. It is never too late for them to attend to business, especially in time of need, as was the case with us. I was surprised when they brought me the check for $123.00 for the death claim of my beloved grandson, Ebenezer Davies, who was drowned in a mine breach near Wigan's last evening. Having done the business with dispatch, paid it promptly, as I know they have done in every case that comes under their supervision, I give this letter to your superintendent and agent to publish to let the people know that the Home Friendly fulfills every obligation to the letter.
[Signed] MRS. LUTITIA DAVIES, Shenandoah, Pa.

Big Drive in Hosiery.

We have just received one case of Misses' Fast Black Hosiery, sizes 5 to 9½, which we will sacrifice at 5 cents per pair. At R. F. GILL'S.

Prof. Bogart Leaves Town.

Prof. Bogart, the Superintendent-elect of the Shenandoah public schools, left town this morning for his home in Germantown, near Philadelphia, after spending several days here. He stopped off at Pottsville and took the oath of office. Prof. Bogart was very agreeably surprised at Shenandoah and its people, and expressed himself in a complimentary manner, especially upon the hearty manner in which he was received. He will not return until the contest is ended, and his commission is issued. The hearing will likely take place at Knoxville the latter part of this month. It is said a Schuylkill county detective is now in town endeavoring to secure evidence to be used by the contestants.

Don't be Without Buttons.

On your shoes. The Factory Shoe Store has the best fastener in town and will fasten them on free of charge, whether your shoes were bought of us or not.

They Were Duped.

"J. B. Porter & Co., real estate," advertised in Philadelphia papers for "clerks for real estate office; salary $14 a week; cash security required," and the ad. was answered by many. H. W. Hunsberger, of New Ringgold, and R. A. Rodebeck, a P. & R. brakeman, were among them. The former paid $40. A Thompson man also gave up $100.00, but his name is not known. The men were to collect rents three times a month, and were compelled to put up the above mentioned deposits to secure safe delivery of rents. The victims were to meet the "real estate agent" on Monday last but upon calling at the office "Mr.
Porter" had sought pastures new in search of other victims.

Have Gone West.

Mrs. John Curry, of East Floyd street, and her mother, Mrs. Julia Clarke, of Pottsville, left on a western trip for Niagara Falls, Detroit and Monroe, Mich., this morning. They will also attend the commencement exercises of the University of Ann Arbor, of which the former's son, M. F.
Curry, is a graduate of the law department.

Is Your Foot Big?

Well, if it isn't too big you can buy a ladies' Oxford shoe very cheap at the Factory Shoe Store. We have just received 300 pair of samples, sizes from 2½ to 9. They are all $1.50 and $2.00 goods; closing them out at 75c.

NO VERDICT UNTIL NEXT WEEK

stand and examined by Mr. Whalen. The prisoner testified: I never at any time said I would shoot for Schwartz.

MRS. EISENHOWER PRESENT.

At 10 o'clock this morning, and, while the prisoner was on the stand, his wife made her first appearance in the court room since the trial, being accompanied by her mother and youngest daughter. They took seats among the spectators and Mrs. Eisenhower was observed throwing sharp side glances at her husband, the witness stand being some distance to the right of where she was sitting.
The looks Mrs. Eisenhower directed to her husband were by no means of an affectionate character. Mrs. Eisenhower stated on the way to court that she had been subpoenaed and would take the stand in behalf of the Commonwealth.

Eisenhower continued his testimony by saying that he really had no clear recollection of events on the day of the shooting after he left his little boy, and he could not explain why he shot John Schwartz and didn't shoot the man who was walking with him. He didn't know how many shots fired, how long he had the pistol in his hand, or whether he fired any shot.

The witness also testified that when he rambled along the Catawissa Creek, as testified to by his sister, he tried to drown himself by catching hold of a root in the bottom of a reservoir where the water was four feet deep. He failed in the attempt because the root broke.

Mr. Whalen: How long did you hold on to the root?

A. I don't know; I didn't keep time.

Q. You didn't have a Waterbury?

Mr. Brumm: That's pretty good.

Mr. Whalen: Yes, I don't often get them off, but when I do they are corkers. (To the witness) You can remember what took place at that dam six years ago, although your mind was gone, but you can't remember what took place at the shooting, three or four months ago.

Witness: Well, you see, sometimes people get sick, but they get well in a few days; but at other times they get so sick that they die.

Mrs. Hurling's name was called, but she failed to respond and Mr. Brumm announced at 10:15 that the defendant rested.

W. J. Watkins, of the EVENING HERALD, was called as a witness on rebuttal by the Commonwealth and testified to the conversation had with the prisoner in the lock-up on the day of the shooting, during which the prisoner stated that he did not know that he had shot John Schwartz and that it was so he was sorry, but if he had shot Bill Schwartz he was satisfied, as Schwartz had broken up his home. The witness said Eisenhower was remarkably cool during the conversation and did not have the appearance of being insane.

Mr. Brumm limited the cross-examination to asking the witness whether he was, or pretended to be, an expert in mental diseases, to which the witness responded in the negative.

Justice T. T. Williams, of Shenandoah, was recalled and was examined in a similar manner as to the appearance of the prisoner on the day of the shooting, as bearing upon his mental condition.

Emile Deyer swore that after Eisenhower parted from his wife the prisoner boarded at his home. He never noticed anything in his manner or habits indicating insanity, not even on the day of the shooting and before the shooting occurred.

John P. Boehm, of Shenandoah, was called and testified that he knew the prisoner for five or six years and never saw anything in his actions different from that of the ordinary man.

Savilla Eisenhower, daughter of the prisoner, was recalled and testified that her father struck her mother twice on the night of August last, one blow drew blood on the forehead. Her mother left the house and went to a neighbor's. Mrs. Hopkins next door, and remained there all night. Her mother carried the baby in her arms at the time, and there was also blood on the baby's clothes.

Miss Rebecca Thomas, of Shenandoah, testified that she was at the Hopkins home the night Mrs. Eisenhower came there, and she saw blood on the mother and child.

Judge Saville adjourned court at 1:30, to enable him to make a train for his home, until 1:00 o'clock Monday afternoon.

The witness in all in with the exception of Dr. Bidwell's testimony, who will be called to identify the instrument he used in performing the operation upon John Schwartz, the victim of Eisenhower's bullet.

It will probably take all of Monday afternoon to submit the points of law. Mr.
Brumm will address the jury on Tuesday and will likely occupy the entire day in summing up for the defense. Mr. Whalen expects to consume all of Wednesday, but it is said by those interested in the conduct of the trial that the case will go to the jury at noon on Wednesday.

Tour of Inspection.

Messrs. Dallas Sanders, John A. Johann, and son, Charles, who are heavy stockholders in the Schuylkill Traction Company, made a tour of inspection of the entire road under escort of Superintendent E. W. Ash to-day.
The party took dinner at the Ferguson House.

Found Dead in Bed.

Wm. K. Snyder, a prominent young citizen of Shenandoah, and the leading jeweler of that town, was found dead in bed at his parents home early yesterday morning. He had long been a sufferer from rheumatic troubles, and it finally affected his heart and caused his death. He was about 40 and in apparently good health the previous night.
The deceased was about 30 years old, and a nephew of John B. Price, of Ashland.

DROWNED WHILE BATHING.

Ebenezer Davis Meets Death in an Abandoned Mine Breach.

The result of disobeying his grandparents caused the death of 13-year-old Ebenezer Davies, of 303 West Mayberry alley, last evening, by drowning in an abandoned mine breach about three-fourths of a mile east of the Pennsylvania station, while bathing.
Davies, in company with several other boys, among whom were John and Frank Miller, Joe Clem, Joe Babel, Joe Richards and several more, composed the crowd which took a bath. After all the boys had bathed sufficiently, they all retired with the exception of Davies. The breach in which the bathing was done is about 15 feet square and its depth is not known. Davies started to wade out in the centre which caused him to sink out of sight.
He came up again and held his right hand up for aid, and as none of the boys could swim, he was compelled to drown within their sight. One of the boys immediately ran to town for an officer and met Chief Tosh on Main street, who at once went to the scene.
When they arrived the boy was just being pulled out of the water by John Lynch and Robert Gray, who had been searching for him for about 15 minutes. When brought to land life was extinct, as he had been in the water for nearly 30 minutes.

The boy is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs.
Ebenezer Davies, of 303 West Mayberry alley, and was about 13 years of age. His mother died about five years ago, and his father, William Smith, left this locality about seven years ago. He is supposed to be living yet and the last heard of him he was in Luzerne county. The grandparents are nearly overcome by grief, as the boy was the pride of the household. The moment the corpse was brought to the house, his grandmother fell in a swoon, and it was necessary to apply resus-citatives. The boy was an inside employe at Indian Ridge colliery.

The Grand Jury Report.

The Grand Jury this morning submitted to court the following report:

In the Court of Quarter Sessions of Pennsylvania, in and for the county of Schuylkill, June session, 1896. The Grand Inquest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, inquiring in and for the county of Schuylkill, in June session of 1896, would most respectfully submit the following report.

We have had presented to us for our consideration 120 bills of indictment, of which number we have returned 89 as true bills, and in 41 cases the bills were ignored. Of the bills ignored 13 charged felony, over which we have had no disposition of the costs. Six of the bills charged indissemence. We have placed the costs in 22 cases on the prosecutor or prosecutrix, and in 6 cases on the county.

We have approved and confirmed the report of viewers recommending the erection of a county bridge in the township of Barry.

We desire to call attention to the great number of petty cases that are returned by several of the justices throughout the county for no other purpose than the desire for the fees they collect.

As we have no power to place any costs in these cases upon the justices who return them to court, we would suggest that steps be taken to prevent such trivial matters being returned, or, if returned, to give the Grand Jury power of placing part or all of the cost on the justice.

An act of Legislature should be passed giving the Grand Jury the power suggested.

We return thanks to the court and its officers who assisted us in the performance of our duty.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Attest:—E. B. MOORE, Sec'y.

Wood's College Notes.

The Literary Society of Wood's College closed last evening for the summer. A large number of students and friends were present.
The program was good and well rendered.

Miss Fiery, a graduate of Emerson College, Boston, gave several readings in a most pleasing manner, which was a rare treat to all present.

Rev. Alfred Heebner gave an excellent address, and thanked the President, Prof.
Wood, for organizing a work in Shenandoah that has proven such a success and benefit to the young people of our town.

The attendance at the college is large and the progress of the students excellent.

The Park Place Breaker.

The new breaker being built at Park Place, to take the place of the one destroyed by fire, is nearly completed. The machinery is all in position and nothing remains to be done but a few minor details. Work on the structure commenced last February, but was delayed by the weather, and it is expected that it will be placed on the machinery on Tuesday and later in the week the machinery will start up preparatory to resumption of work.

Children's Day.

Children's Day will be observed to-morrow at the Calvary Baptist church, on South Jardin street. Preaching in the morning at 10:30. At 2 p. m. the children will have their exercises, and at 6:30 the young people will take charge of the service. An emblematic piece entitled, "A Voyage of Life," by five young ladies and seven young men, will be one of the features of the evening service.

ELIZABETH CADY STANTON.

The Foremost Champion in the World for the Advancement of Women.

This Great American Recommends Paine's Celery Compound to Those Who Suffer From Nervous Ills.

Half a century of pioneer work for the advancement of women has made the life of Elizabeth Cady Stanton an inspiration to thousands, and an appropriate object of homage and congratulation.

It is a year now since the immense ovation was given to Mrs. Stanton at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York on the anniversary of her 86th year, under the auspices of the National Council of Women of the United States.

A recommendation from such a brilliant philosopher, so good a mother, such a great and true woman everywhere.

As Mrs. Stanton herself said in reply to the many addresses of affection and devotion from women representing homes all over the land:

"In this struggling world men often lean on the judgment of mothers and wives, hence women need a clear understanding of the vital questions of the hour."

The guardian angel in every home is certainly a woman. Upon her shoulders rests the responsibility for the health of the family.

No wife, mother or sister who has the health or happiness of her family at heart, will see day after day go by with nothing done for some tired, sick or ailing member of the household. If she is a wide-awake, thoughtful woman she will make it her first duty to see that Paine's celery compound is used to bring back the vigor to the neglected nerves and the poor blood.

Elizabeth Cady Stanton, writing to the Wells & Richardson Co., of Burlington, on Jan. 6, said:

"Some members of my family have been using your Paine's celery compound, and I heartily recommend it to any one who is run down or suffering from nervous ills.
Hereafter I shall always keep a bottle on hand."

It is the plain duty of every wife and mother to watch the health of those whom the worry and weariness of the office, the store or the factory makes heedless of their failing health. Pale lips and cheeks, disturbed sleep, pain of neuralgia or rheumatism, headaches or that constant feeling of weariness are causes enough for immediate recourse to that best of all invigorators, Paine's celery compound.

There is nothing vague or uncertain about its working. It goes straight to the cause of the mischief; purifies the blood, enriches it in volume and in quality, and firmly but gently stirs the organs that have become sluggish.

Paine's celery compound drives out impurities, restores strength, renews vitality, regulates the kidneys, liver and bowels, and makes people well. That is why it is the wonderful remedy that it is today, and more in demand than all tonics that promise so much and accomplish so little. Every year confirms the faith of the people in Paine's celery compound.
