It is said that the United States spends two or three times as much on public schools as England does. And yet Englishmen have the assurance to pretend to know as much as we do.

A SPEECH of the free silverites will be held in Potomac in the near future. Our friends of the Chronicle will have to put on the warpaint or else those favorable to free silver will give it a shove to carry into effect its threatened bolt from the Democratic party.

WHILE the bicycle barons are closing their factories and turning thousands of men out of employment in order to keep up the price of a high grade wheel to $100, it is interesting to know that a "like" made of the best material, finished in the highest style, costs, according to the New York Herald's expert, just $30.31.

The favorite expression of David Bennett Hill, "I am a Democrat" has now been changed by that discredited statesman to "God save the country." Well he might exclaim, after his party has wrought the evil it has in the past four years. If David will have a little patience the people will see to it that the Republican party is delegated that duty.

The Napoleon of Republicanism was nominated for President on the anniversary of the battle of Waterloo, but we guess that does not necessarily mean the site of Napoleon of Corsica for the Napoleon of Canton, Pierre Ota von Blumhardt was born on the 24 of April, but he has never been accused of having suffered mentally on that account. Van can't always depend on those superstitions. Sometimes they are like dreams—contrary to the facts they mirror in anticipation.

A Better Feeling in Venezuela.
GROUNDED, British Guiana, June 23.—A much better feeling prevails here today. From additional information received in official circles regarding the arrest of Mr. Harrison, the crown surveyor, by Venezuelans, the authorities here are now inclined to believe that his arrest was not the result of direct orders from Caracas, as it is reported, but merely the act of some local Venezuelan authorities, who acted under an misapprehension. In regard to the territory claimed by Venezuela.

Murdered Her Parasom.
BELVIDERE, N. J., June 25.—Mrs. Rebecca Sutton yesterday shot her lover, Martin Reed, dead, and then turning the revolver on herself, fired several shots into her body. Her death is expected. Mrs. Sutton is 30 years of age, while Reed was 27 years old. The shooting occurred at a hotel at Hampton Junction, near the railroad station. The couple had been living together as man and wife, and jealousy led to a fatal quarrel.

In the absence of all indication of any sort of life whatever on the moon, writes Alden W. Quimby, in the Ladies' Home Journal, with so at our water, together with the fact that no change of any description has been noticed by the keen and trained eyes which have jealously scrutinized its surface from the time of the first telescopic efforts to the present we are compelled to conclude that there are no people who live in the moon. The wonderful combination of mountain and crevasse, valley and peak, is, after all, only a vast graveyard; and if living beings ever roamed over its plains and navigated its great seas, now dry, or frozen with appalling cold, they have been gathered to the stations of the dead; and all traces of their having roamed, their last resting places, and, with the crater rings, constitute their eternal and magnificent monoliths.

During the past two weeks of criminal court Shenandoah has been well represented at Potomac, and the termination of the two murder trials—one in which Theodore Eickhower was found guilty of murder in the first degree and the other declaring the five Italian innocent of the murder of Joseph Zukowski—has raised much comment. The result of the Eickhower trial is what was generally expected, although there were many who confidently predicted a verdict no higher than murder in the second degree. The verdict in the Coal street riot case, however, will be received with considerable surprise. By the verdict, the death of Joseph Zukowski will not be assigned. The interest manifested in these two murder trials by the people of Shenandoah was shown in the large sales returned by our carriers. It being necessary at times for us to issue an extra edition. No daily in the county, not excepting the Potomac papers, issued at the scene of the trial, gave a more detailed, accurate or later report than that furnished by our staff correspondent. The Herald readers were enabled to follow the course of the trial with as much satisfaction as if they had been in the court room, and by our direct telephone communication the proceedings of the day were given up to the very time of going to press. We have received orders from residents of Crosson, Pottsville, Ashland and other towns asking for copies of the Herald containing reports of the trial. We have been enabled to accommodate most of them, but our supply of extra copies has been exhausted and it is with much regret we announce our inability to accommodate them all. We appreciate the many complimentary expressions of our friends, and assure them the same enterprise will manifest itself in the future conduct of the Herald. We always lead, never follow.

Unique Wedding in Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 28.—Walter S. Lieber, a Philadelphia merchant, and Miss Beatrice Barker, also of Philadelphia, the former a Hebrew and the latter a quakeress, were married in unique fashion in this city. For a long time their difference in faith prevented the wedding, but a compromise was effected. The ceremony took place on one of the peninsulas of the lagoon, in Washington Park. Thirty bridesmaids, robed in pure white, chanted the words which bound the couple. The peculiar ceremony was written by friends, with the assistance of the bride. After the romantic part of the ceremony a justice of the peace briefly assisted in making the marriage legal.

Filibusters Again Steal Away.

KEY WEST, Fla., June 28.—Another alleged filibustering expedition succeeded in starting to Cuba Tuesday night. Thirty-six men and a large amount of merchandise, principally heavy cases, were put aboard the steamship City of Key West, which the Cuban band gave a concert at, which was largely attended. The concert was given to attract the crowd, and thus enable the members of the expedition to put the cases on board the steamer without attracting much attention. The vessel put to sea before day. It is supposed that she will meet the steamer Three Friends outside the three mile limit and transfer to her the passengers and cargo. The expedition is in charge of a young American, who is an experienced filibuster.

Mrs. Craven Yields.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Mrs. Nettie Craven, who claims a large slice of the late Senator Fair's $50,000,000 estate, has concluded that she did not care to go to jail for contempt of court. Monday night she refused to be sworn as a witness in a suit brought against her by the heirs of the Fair estate to compel her to produce all deeds to property and all other papers which she may have in connection with the late senator's property. Mrs. Craven was cited for contempt of court and changed her mind. She was sworn, and has been given until tonight to produce the papers required.

Villard Not in Control.

NEW YORK, June 25.—A banker prominently identified with large European interests in American railway securities and associated with the reorganization of the Northern Pacific railroad, says in relation to a Chicago report of an impending Villard control of Northern Pacific and Baltimore and Ohio. "The story is absolutely without foundation in fact. As the Northern Pacific reorganization committee has obtained the deposit of nearly all of the company's bonds it will buy the road at the forthcoming sale. Mr. Villard's bonds have been deposited with the committee, but there is otherwise no connection between the parties."

DEATH OF JUDGE TRUMBULL.

He Was the Intimate Personal Friend of President Lincoln.
CHICAGO, June 29.—Ex-United States Senator Lyman Trumbull died yesterday at his home in this city. He had been ill a long time, but rallied at intervals, causing hope that he might eventually recover. His last relapse, however, settled his fate in the mind of his physicians, and the end had been expected daily for the past week. Lyman Trumbull had a busy life at 83 years, working for the right throughout the struggle for the negroes. Not sympathizing with the extremists, who saw in slavery the sum of all villainies, to be abolished at any price, Judge Trumbull, though a Democrat born and bred, allied himself at the first opportunity with that company of moderate thinkers of whom Lincoln in Illinois was one type, and Salmon P. Chase in Ohio another, and he joined with them, not in the attempt to abolish slavery in the states, but to set the ship of state on the anti-slavery tack, and to so order the policy of the government that no more slave states should be thereafter admitted to the Union. Judge Trumbull was born in Connecticut in 1814. When but 17 years old he was elected to the Illinois state legislature, then served as secretary of state, and when 35 became a justice of the state supreme court. In 1850 he was elected to congress. In the same year, in a contest for the senatorship of Illinois, he was elected over Mr. Lincoln, his intimate friend, who withdrew in his favor, and five years later he was one of the foremost advocates of Lincoln's election to the presidency. During the eighteen years of his senatorial tenure he was the peer of Sumner and Fessenden, of Grimes and of Seward, of Chase and of Wade. In the case of President Johnson he opposed impeachment, and went into retirement as a result.

HOLT WILL CASE ENDED.

The Alleged Will Declared to be an Illegal Production.
WASHINGTON, June 29.—After a trial lasting almost six weeks the famous Holt will case came to an end last night. The jury, after being out three hours, returned a verdict giving it as their opinion that the deceased had not written the alleged will bearing date Feb. 7, 1877. The result of the verdict is to give the estate to the heirs at law. This alleged will floated into the office of the register of wills Aug. 16, in a legal envelope, addressed cruelly in what many believe to be a disguised imitation of print, and without seal or sign by which it could be traced to the sender. It was transmitted through the medium of the mails. Torn, discolored, burnt in places, and pasted on another sheet of paper, coming at a time when it was believed the judge had died intestate, and setting at naught the claims of the heirs at law, its mysterious advent caused a sensation. It named Luke Devlin, a war department clerk, and formerly known to have been more or less acquainted with the alleged testator, as executor. The estate this paper bequeathed to Miss Josephine Holt Trumbull, and John V. Holt of Maryland. The estate is valued at about $150,000. It is expected that a motion for a new trial will be made. Dr. D. R. Rodrock, of New Berlin, Pa., does not hesitate to recommend Chamberlain's medicine. He says: "I have handled them for a year or more in my pharmacy and find them safe and reliable. My customers praise them very highly." No one is troubled with rheumatism can use Chamberlain's Pain Balm without noticing it. The quick relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by Grubler Bros., druggists.

Urethra Not in Control.

NEW YORK, June 25.—A banker prominently identified with large European interests in American railway securities and associated with the reorganization of the Northern Pacific railroad, says in relation to a Chicago report of an impending Villard control of Northern Pacific and Baltimore and Ohio. "The story is absolutely without foundation in fact. As the Northern Pacific reorganization committee has obtained the deposit of nearly all of the company's bonds it will buy the road at the forthcoming sale. Mr. Villard's bonds have been deposited with the committee, but there is otherwise no connection between the parties."

Fatal Fight with Outlines.

SAVANNAH, June 26.—Dorothea F. E. Adersholt and Jake Ziegler were seriously wounded and L. Zeigler was shot in the arm in an attempt by Detectives Adersholt and Arnett to arrest Jake Ziegler in Savannah county yesterday. Jake Ziegler is a cousin of the famous Ziegler outlaws. The detectives had him under arrest, when a female member of the Ziegler family ran up and caught hold of them. Lennie Ziegler arrived soon afterwards with a shotgun, and all four men began firing. Adersholt and Jake Ziegler will probably die.

COMMODORE PURSUED.

The Revenue Cutter McLane After the Cuban Filibuster,

TO PREVENT HER LANDING ARMS.

The Vessel, After Passing Inspection by Government Officers, Is Boarded by Two Sloops That Were Known to be Loaded with War Material.

TAMPA, Fla., June 28.—The steamer Commodore cleared on Wednesday for Charleston. She was instructed not to sail without reporting to Captain Thomas Hanks, of the revenue cutter McLane. Yesterday afternoon the Commodore weighed anchor and went down the bay. The McLane signaled twice for her to stop. She did not do so, and the McLane fired a blank shot, but still got no answer. A second blank was then fired with like result. A solid shot was then fired, and the shot missed the Commodore by about seven feet. The boat stopped suddenly and was boarded by the revenue men and found to be all right. She then went on down the bay. About five miles out she was boarded by two sloops. When about twelve miles away the McLane gave chase and pursued. Neither have been heard from since. The expedition was to leave here last night under Augusto Armas, one of the leaders of the ill fated Bermuda expedition. The sloops loaded in this city with ammunition and supplies Wednesday night. The men were prevented from boarding her by the vigilance of the Spanish consul. The Commodore was to meet the steamer City of Richmond, of the Key West and Miami line, last night and get a lighters of arms and ammunition. They were to meet about Cape Sable, where the Commodore was to also get a large quantity of arms buried there. The Richmond left Key West with munitions at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning. Her leaving time was 5 o'clock usually, so all regular passengers were left. The steamer met the McLane and Commodore yesterday afternoon on her way into port and reported both making for sea. When the Commodore arrived here on Tuesday she had just returned from Harding, where she landed an expedition to pick up St. John's bar, under command of Julian Zecora, another of the Bermuda leaders. The McLane will probably watch the Commodore all night and prevent the transfer of the cargo, or catch her afterwards and return to port. "Last summer while attending court at Uniontown," says D. B. Patton, a prominent druggist of Fayette City, Pa., "three witnesses were suffering from diarrhoea. I gave each a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it gave immediate relief. On the way home one of my neighbors was taken with a severe cramp in the stomach and was suffering with intense pain. I gave him a dose of this remedy and within five minutes the pains had ceased. The remedy is a favorite here. I know of many who are never without it. I always take it with me when going away from home." For sale by Grubler Bros., druggists.

Disastrous Cloudburst in Ohio.

MARIETTA, June 26.—A cloudburst took place Wednesday night which covered a wide area, and was the most destructive ever known in this territory. Houses were swept away, stock of all kinds drowned, and persons narrowly escaped with their lives. In some streams the water rose twenty feet in ten minutes, and came on the people almost as suddenly as the Johnstown flood, and was very much like that flood in many respects. Crops are ruined on the Little Muskingum for twenty miles, and on many other tributaries of the Ohio above here. The loss will reach hundreds of thousands of dollars.
