POTTSVILLE LETTER.

The Two Label Cases and Other Matters at the County Seat.

POTTSVILLE, June 27.

The suit for libel of Prof. Cooper, of Shenandoah vs. C. D. Arters and Livingstone Seltzer, which has been on trial before Judge Albright in No. 2 court room for the last few days, is now over. Closing speeches were made by counsel this morning and the case went to the jury before noon. The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty and placed the costs upon the defendants.

In the suit of R. O. Jones vs. the Tamaqua Courier, the jury found a verdict of not guilty as to Mrs. Sophia Harris and Harry Walters, and the costs were divided between R. O. Jones and John Harris, the manager of the Courier. Judge Savidge said to the jury that it was a just verdict and if more persons were dealt in this way, the courts would not be so full of these trifling cases.

PRISON COMMITMENTS.

George Shuey, John W. Paul and Thomas W. Bird were sent to jail for ten days for illegal car riding by Squire M. J. Lawlor, of Shenandoah.

Joseph McCabe was committed by Squire James O'Brien, of Mahanoy City, in default of $500 bail for assault and battery, resisting an officer, and carrying concealed deadly weapons, on oath of Mat. Giblin.

John Gashora was committed by P. F. Devine in default of $100 bail, charged with drunkenness on oath of Thomas Brennan.

Joe Karakun and Thomas Novack were committed by P. F. Devine in default of $100 bail, each charged with drunkenness, on oath of Patrick Comer.

Squire Philip E. Coyle, of Mahanoy City, sent James Thornton and David Jones down to prison in default of $500 bail each, charged with receiving and selling stolen goods, on oath of W. C. Kepner.

Squire Toomey, of Shenandoah, committed Joseph Strubshierky to prison on a charge of assault and battery to commit rape, in default of $500 bail, on oath of Nestor Lestocky.

DEEDS RECORDED.

From the Tamaqua B. and L. Association to Jacob Herring, premises in Bush township. From Jonathan and Lucretia Bretz to Samuel L. Clemens, lot in Quakake, Bush township.

From Josiah Bernheisel et al. to Alfred Linderthum, premises in Auburn.

From Alfred Linderthum to Mrs. Mary Faust, for premises in Auburn.

From Mary Faust to Harry Carl, premises in Auburn.

From E. J. Dalley et al. to A. O. Bishop, premises in Kline township.

From E. J. Dalley and G. O. Roberts to Matilda E. Kester, premises in Kline township.

From Elizabeth J. Emery to Eliza Parry, premises in Minersville.

From Rosalind Maud Parry to Eliza Parry, premises in Minersville.

Marriage licenses were granted to James Bieler, of Hegins township, and Lydia Miller, of Hubley township; George M. Shaw, of Williamsport, and Emma Bettinger, of Reilly township.

James McGavity, collector of New Philadelphia, made a payment on his '05 duplicate.

A Mad Cow Shot.

A mad dog created much excitement at Lost Creek. Among the animals bitten was a valuable cow of Patrick Maloney, which at once exhibited signs of rabies and it galloped through the streets, frothing and snapping at everything within reach. A posse was organized and they shot the animal after a long chase.—Journal.

False Report.

The report was current some two weeks ago that Frank Conry, a conductor on the Schuylkill Traction line, had gone to Wilkes-Barre to become a Benedict, is without foundation. Mr. Conry emphatically denied the report when seen by a HERALD reporter this morning.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

The Best Remedy in the World—It Makes People Well.

There is one true specific for disease arising from impure blood and a debilitated nervous system, and that is Paine's celery compound, so generally prescribed by physicians. It is probably the most remarkable remedy that the scientific research of this country has produced. Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth college, first prescribed what is now known the world over as Paine's celery compound, a positive cure for dyspepsia, biliousness, liver complaint, neuralgia, rheumatism, all nervous diseases and kidney troubles. For the latter Paine's celery compound has succeeded again and again where everything else has failed.

EXTENSIVE CAVE-IN.

Properties on Line Street Damaged by Kehley Run Workings.

Several properties belonging to the P. & R. C. & L. Company and located in the vicinity of the corner of Catherine and Line streets, were badly damaged yesterday by a caving in of workings in the Kehley Run colliery. Fissures from one to three feet deep and several inches wide extend for a distance of about three hundred yards in a northeasterly direction from Apple alley, across Catherine street and to the south side of Line street.

The houses effected on the west side of Catherine street are occupied by Patrick Parcell, Peter Smith, Joseph Flock and School Director John T. Lee. The Smith and Parcell houses suffered the most. Nearly the entire foundation walls of these houses have tumbled into heaps in the cellars and the buildings are kept up by cribbing. The Lee and Flock houses are in such a condition that the doors cannot be locked and it is impossible to move many of the window sashes.

At the southeast corner of Catherine and Line streets are two P. & R. houses occupied by the families of Benjamin Boecher and John Delphing and they present a toppling appearance, the north foundation walls having dropped about a foot. The house of Abe Grosskettler, on the northwest corner, has also dropped about a foot and is being cribbed up. Notwithstanding the situation, none of the tenants of any of the properties appear alarmed and all say they will continue to live in the houses, unless the P. & R. company orders them out. They say there was a gradual sinking for the past five years in that vicinity and the worst is over.

At the southeast corner of the intersection of Catherine and Line streets there is a land mark showing the junction of the Kehley Run and Kohinor territories and at this point a pit is forming. The disturbance was caused by workings in the Kehley Run mines and this morning three car loads of timber were sent into the place.

The cave-in pulled out three joints of pipe of the public water works on North Catherine street and Superintendent Butterfield was obliged to use a sleeve in making repairs.

The Welsh Congregational Sunday school will picnic at Lakeside on July 17.

After Monday next the court and bar of this county will take their summer vacation. The home of Mrs. Anthony Reilly, near Centralia, was entered during her absence and robbed of $50.

Letters of administration were granted to Joseph Kynkiewicz on the estate of John Pachucki, late of Shenandoah, deceased.

The plant of the Shenandoah Beef Company, is being made attractive by a new coat of paint, under the supervision of J. P. Carden.

Mrs. Sarah A. King, aunt of Senator Charles F. King, of Pottsville, died at her home in Philadelphia, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. King was for many years proprietress of the Mauden House, Mahanoy City.

Obituary.

Frank, son of Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Matter, East Oak street, died yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, aged 1 year, 2 months and 5 days. The child had been a sufferer of spinal disease for many months, but its death was caused by convulsions. The funeral will take place from the residence of the parents on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

Fell From a Swing.

Henry Howard, of town, had his left arm severely sprained and bruised by falling from a swing at Lakeside yesterday while attending the outing of the Rescue B. & L. Co. The fall was due to one of the ropes of the swing breaking. Dr. C. S. Phillips, of town, dressed the arm.

What They All Say.

From Ashland Local.
Mr. W. J. Watkins, of the EVENING HERALD, Shenandoah, is to be congratulated upon his very excellent reports of the proceedings of the Eisenhower homicide case. The reports were not only full and complete, but his comments afforded very interesting reading.

Held for Assault.

Joe Tushitas was arrested by Constable Dando last night and committed in default of $500 bail by Justice Walker on a charge of assault and battery preferred by Simon Schenck.

POTTSVILLE'S RATIFICATION.

Republicans of the County Seat and Other Towns Parade.

Pottsville presented a holiday appearance last night, when Republicans of all factions and friends of the surrounding towns were attracted to the county seat to swell the ranks of the parade. The demonstration was gotten up by the two Pottsville clubs, and the parade was creditable both to the two organizations and these Republicans of other towns, especially Schuylkill Haven. Major Samuel Alexander Loesch was there in all his glory, leading his gallant warriors to the music of the Darktown band. The Alms-house contingent was also present, and divided their burrahs between McKinley and Lurwick.

The parade was not the affair the Pottsville papers have attempted to make us believe it would be. The streets were crowded, but excluding the Schuylkill Haven, Lewisburg, Port Carbon and other surrounding places, the number in parade from "the town of big Republican majorities" was very small. The display of fireworks was quite extensive, and brought out the sombre features of Major Finney and Corporal Elliott marching side by side, and such rejuvenated Republicans as Brother-in-law Jack, Silver-Dollar White and others who have wandered from the beaten tracks. It was more of a reunion, and as the Republicans of Pottsville are now all McKinley men, let the band play on.

After the parade the assembled hosts were collected in front of the Central Republican Club, where a platform had been erected for the speakers. John H. Gussing made the announcement of Clay W. Evans, of St. Clair, as chairman and the following list of vice presidents and secretaries: Vice President, George W. Johns.—Griffiths, E. L., Edwards, Wm. Atkins, Col. Wm. Thompson, J. H. Zerby, Wm. B. Wells, D. R. Miller, C. H. Hazard, Wm. Moore, W. J. Henry, Ed. Taylor, Robert Weir, Sr., W. J. Faust, Geo. F. Merkle, Jos. Frederick, C. E. Breckons, Willis Bryant, Jos. McConnell, Ed. Sullyman, W. W. Lewis, Ed. Hunter, John W. Morgan, C. A. Wely, Chris Eberly, Frank Kautner, Paul Book, S. Roll Beddall, H. C. Brownmiller, C. D. Arters, Maj. Wm. Clark, Thos. Parnell, John W. Reese, Hon. Benj. Kaufman, Albert Ellis; secretaries, J. H. James, John Arnold, C. T. Stranglin, W. J. Morgan, John W. Parker, Jr., Guy Irish, John Harris, Dr. Wilson, W. L. Beattont, W. H. Holmes, C. D. Elliott, John F. Finney, Aug. Knecht, Charles Lewis, George F. Deugler, W. G. Battorf, F. W. Harris.

The secretary after a few remarks introduced the Hon. Samuel Alexander Loesch, who made a rattling speech and was heartily applauded. He was followed by the Hon. Charles N. Brumm, who spoke at some length and at great disadvantage, his voice not being in trim. Editor Joyce, of Mahanoy City, and William Wilhelm were close and interested listeners, waiting to catch the smallest word with a silver lining or a gold fringe, but they are still waiting.

Mr. Brumm confined his remarks to the standard beggars, McKinley and Hobart, especially the former. It was 10:30 when the meeting adjourned. Shenandoah sent a small delegation. The Republicans of the county seat, with the assistance of the surrounding towns, opened the campaign with much enthusiasm. Minersville, the home of Congressman Brumm, was not represented.

A LATE CONVENTION.

Result of the Democratic Pow-Waw at Pottsville.

SPECIAL TO EVENING HERALD.
POTTSVILLE, June 27.—The members of the Democratic Standing Committee convened in Centennial Hall this morning to determine upon a time for holding the primaries and county convention to make the ticket for the fall election. County Chairman Lineweaver presided.

The meeting was a lively one and several spirited discussions took place, several members of the committee favoring an early convention; but it was ultimately decided to leave the matter to the hands of the executive committee, the understanding being that the Republican primaries and convention shall be held first. Shenandoah was represented at the meeting by John J. Toole, M. J. Scanlan, John Burns, Martin Brennan and H. J. Muldoon.

Musical Entertainment.
A vocal and instrumental concert was held in the M. E. church at Gilberton last evening. The affair proved an enjoyable one and was successful in every respect. Among those who contributed to the evening's enjoyment were the following from Wm. Penn: Miss Lily Jovey, who sang "The Maid of Athens," Prof. Davis and family, a trio, "Restless Sea"; Miss Jean C. Geary, "Waiting"; Miss Lily Jovey, "Tell me, may I hear"; John Knight and party, quartette, "The Midnight Fire Alarm"; John Knight, bass solo; S. G. Walker, tenor solo, "Love Res blessing."

The Linton Funeral.
The funeral of John Linton took place from the residence of his sister, Mrs. Hood, on South Bowers street, this afternoon, and was well attended. Deceased was formerly a photographer in London, and is survived by his wife and two children. His remains were interred in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

It isn't necessary,
on the ground of
economy, because
we're selling foot-
gear as near anybody can; nor is it
necessary, on the
ground of coolness, because our Russet Shoes are cool enough for
any man, woman
or child who walk-

eth up and down, and
fro, on this earthly planet of ours. By this time it's pretty well known that we can serve wearers of shoes
better than anybody else
can; we save them money
every time they buy here;
the big crowds at our store
prove that. People would not come so often if it were not so.

It has taken good shoes
at lowest prices to build up the biggest shoe business in town; and just such policy is holding it. What a blessing to lean pocket-
