THE MEXICAN ELECTION.

No Doubt of the Triumphant Re-election of President Diaz.

MINISTER ROMERO'S RESIGNATION.

Tendered on Account of an Article in an Official Journal—In a Complimentary Letter from the Foreign Relations Minister He Is Urged to Remain at His Post.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 29.—The preliminary federal election occurred yesterday all over the republic, and 10,000 electors will meet in various districts next Sunday and vote for the president, magistrates and members of the congress. There is no doubt of the triumphant election of General Diaz, whose candidacy has been welcomed in all parts of the republic. The polling booths were opened all over the City of Mexico and the election officers were busy. The lower classes abstained from voting.

A letter published from Hon. Matias Romero, Mexican minister at Washington, resigning his post on account of an article published in an official journal during the pendency of the Guatemalan question, and which Minister Romero felt to be severe in its judgment of his views regarding the proper settlement of that question.

Minister Romero reviews his patriotic labors in behalf of the country, often at great personal cost and inconvenience. He adds: "I have continued in my post believing that my long residence in the United States, my knowledge of its public men, and, above all, the kind welcome I have fortunately been given by all classes in that country, would enable me to lend effective services to Mexico, but if the incident referred to, or any other, has caused me to lose this confidence of my government, I shall not remain a single day longer in that post, and shall regard it as an especial favor that I be relieved of so burdensome an employment, in which it is necessary above all to have the confidence and the decided support of my government."

Minister of Foreign Relations Mariscal, in replying to Minister Romero, assures him of the entire confidence of the government, and says that the article in the official journal was made necessary by an editorial in an opposition paper, which had availed itself, in making a rude attack on the government, of the minister's arguments, and that a rectification in the official journal did not involve any reproach, but was only an explicit contradiction of statements made by the opposition papers.

In conclusion Minister Mariscal urges Minister Romero to put aside the fears which his delicacy have inspired and continue serving the republic with his accustomed abnegation and zeal.

The Associated Press interviewed Minister Romero last night to see if he had reconsidered his resignation, in view of the flattering terms of the letter of the foreign relations minister, but he said he could say nothing.

England Fears Silver Supremacy.

LONDON, June 29.—The Times says in an editorial on American politics and the outlook in the United States on the currency question: "We are not sure that party platforms are so important, because when the president is elected he becomes a free agent in a safer and stronger position than an English premier. Therefore, it is not certain that Mr. McKinley will oppose the popular will if congress should send him a bill for free silver. We trust, for the credit of the United States, either that Mr. Whitney's gold campaign will succeed or that the triumph of the silverites at Chicago will not be followed by a triumph at the polls."

The Silver Democrats' Conference.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Senator Harris left yesterday for Chicago to be present at the Democratic silver conference, which will be held in that city beginning tomorrow, under the auspices of the Democratic bimetallic organization. He is chairman of this organization, and has been since it was instituted in this city a year ago. Senator Harris said that the meeting would not be confined to members of the bimetallic organization, but that there would be representatives present from every state delegation friendly to silver. The purpose of the anti-convention meeting is to solidify the silver organization.

Senator Blackburn's Presidential Boom.

CINCINNATI, June 29.—Friends of Senator Blackburn residing in Covington, Newport and elsewhere in Kentucky have received letters requesting them to attend a conference in the Auditorium annex at Chicago next Wednesday, at which time plans will be considered in the interest of Blackburn's candidacy for the nomination. Ever since the indorsement of Blackburn at the state convention on June 3 the delegates have been corresponding with those of other states in Blackburn's interest. Senator Blackburn will attend the silver conference at the Auditorium annex next tomorrow.

The Harrison Episode Beneficial.

LONDON, June 29.—There is a general feeling here that the arrest and subsequent release of Crown Surveyor Harrison, of British Guiana, has advanced the Venezuelan question a stage, as it has stimulated the negotiations between Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador, and Senor Andrade, the Venezuelan minister at Washington. In any case the affair has led Great Britain to make considerable concessions to the views of the United States by inviting Secretary Olney's good offices.

Joseph Cocking the Victim of Maryland Farmers

WHO WANTED TO SAVE EXPENSES.

The Trial and Acquittal of Mrs. Belle Farrell Was a Heavy Drain on the County, and the State Was Induced to Defray the Costs.

LA PLATA, Md., June 29.—Joseph Cocking, who was awaiting trial here for the murder on April 23 of his wife and sister-in-law, was taken from jail at an early hour in the morning and hanged. The mob of executioners had been quietly organized, and the authorities were taken wholly by surprise. The citizens of the town had no intimation of the affair, and did not suspect that anything was wrong until, at sunrise, they found the body of the wretched man hanging lifeless from the limb of a tree, a few yards from the jail building.

There had been much feeling manifested because of the expense that would be incurred in trying Cocking. Charles is a poor county and taxes now are high. About a year ago Mrs. Belle Farrell was tried on a charge of poisoning her husband, and the cost of the trial nearly bankrupted the county. It was due to the exertions of Speaker Mudd, of the house of delegates, who hails from Charles, that the last legislature passed a bill appropriating enough to cover the costs. The farmers did not think they would be so fortunate again as to have the state pay their bills, and after a consultation decided it would be cheapest to hang Cocking and thus avoid the expense.

All who participated were sober, and included some representative citizens. The lynching party numbered probably twenty-five, and were masked. A number were women's dresses to complete their disguise, and it is said several women were with the mob.

The jail in which Cocking was confined was in charge of an aged colored man, who was aroused and ordered to give up the keys. He hesitated, but when a revolver was thrust in his face he weakened and promptly handed them over. In another minute the jail door was unlocked and the mob was inside. Cocking, who had been awakened by the noise outside, seemed to fully comprehend the object of the mob's visit, and crouched tremblingly in his cell. Without delay his cell door was opened, and he was dragged out of the hall.

He seemed almost stupefied with fear, and offered little or no resistance as he was hurried to a little bridge over Port Tobacco run, a few hundred yards distant from the jail. A noosed rope was produced and thrown over his head and tightened about his neck, and he was then asked to confess. He refused, and declared he was innocent.

"Well, then, say your prayers, for your time has come," yelled some one of the crowd. The doomed man also declined to pray, and the end of the rope was then thrown over the limb of a tree which overhung the run, and Cocking was pushed off the bridge. The limb of the tree bent until his feet rested in the water. He struggled very little and died of strangulation. After the lynching the mob quietly dispersed.

After the body had been cut down an inquest was held, the jury bringing in a verdict that Cocking met his death at the hands of unknown parties.

Cocking was found early on the morning of April 24 bound hand and foot in the cellar of his store at Hill Top. He was slightly wounded, and said that he had been attacked by robbers. When the house was searched Cocking's wife and his sister-in-law, Miss Daisy Miller, were found murdered in their beds. Cocking's story was not believed, and as all the circumstantial evidence pointed to him as the murderer he was arrested and indicted.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular.

"We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of all others combined," writes Messrs. Kerr & Son's, druggists, of Mars, Pa. They also say: "The sale of it is something phenomenal. We have sold two gross this winter, selling as high as six bottles in one morning to as many different customers. This remedy has proved particularly successful in croupy affections. Our customers invariably pronounce it the best they can find, and we know of no case where it has failed to give satisfaction." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by Gruhler Bros., druggists.

Swept by a Tornado.

STROUDSBURG, Pa., June 29.—Reports from Shawnee, this county, tell of a tornado which visited the town of Pahaquarry, nearly opposite, on the New Jersey side. Nearly a dozen trees in the South orchard were uprooted, part of the roof torn off, heavy farm wagons were blown out of a wagon house and a number of outbuildings were demolished. The large tobacco house on the Berke place was destroyed. Mr. Ritible's large walnut and oak trees and a number of his finest apple trees were uprooted.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at A. Wasley's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

Cleveland Baseballists Arrested.

LOUISVILLE, June 29.—President Stucky, of the Louisville Ball club, Saturday swore out warrants against Tebeau, Childs, O'Connor, Cuppy, Burkett, Blake, McGarr, McAleer and McKean, of the Cleveland club, charging them with disorderly conduct. Friday afternoon by their actions they nearly precipitated a riot at the ball park by assaulting Umpire Weidman. The men were arraigned in the police court, and Captain Tebeau was fined $100, Outfielder McAleer and Shortstop McKean $75 each, and Outfielder Burkett $50. The case was appealed.
