THE BIG FIGHT FOR GOLD!

Single Standard Leaders Refuse to Give Up the Contest.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN DANIEL!

The Silverites Select the Virginia Senator to Lead the Fight Against Senator Hill, the Recognized Candidate of the Gold Standard Advocates.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The eastern gold men made every preparation last evening to keep up the war, even if they find themselves in a hopeless minority. There has not been a break in the silver strength, and the leaders of that movement are fixed as adamant in the determination to run the convention. At the same time there seems to be a sympathetic feeling for Senator Hill, and several of the silver leaders visited him in the afternoon and requested him not to allow his name to be used for temporary chairman. Senator Jones of Nevada, was particularly anxious about the matter. He said:

"Senator Hill, we have no personal objection to you, but our forces will not be content with anything but a silver man in the chair. We don't want to have to turn you down, and we hope you will not accept the designation."

Many other silver men who are friends of Senator Hill have called upon him and urged him not to allow his name to be used by the national committee and not to place himself in a position where he might be humiliated by being defeated. They have assured him that they have a high regard for him, and that it will be disagreeable to them to have to vote against him, but the situation is such that they must have a silver man to make the first speech of the convention.

But ex-Governor Russell, William C. Whitney and other leaders were strong in their judgment that there should be a fight on this issue and that Mr. Hill should stand. So far convinced were the easterners of this that it was said in the early evening that Hill would stand, and that he had begun preparing an address that would be delivered from the floor if not from the platform. This last statement developed an interesting phase that may mean a lively row in the convention. "The gold men shall not speak," was the cry of the rank and file of the silver men with the exception of Jones, Blackburn and McLean. Those latter said that the convention should be fair in its treatment, and fairness, so far as the gold standard men are concerned, should mean that Russell, Fellows, Hill and Gray should be allowed to talk.

Senator Hill has advised all those who have called upon him to pursue a conservative course. He has expressed the belief that if the convention adopts a silver platform that there will surely be a bolt, and he thinks that if conservatism is shown that the bolt will be much reduced. It is understood that Senator Hill believes that in case the convention should sustain the national committee in the selection of himself for temporary chairman that the bolt from New York state and possibly some other sections of the east will be greatly minimized. The silver men feel assured that Senator Hill will not bolt, but under the instructions of the Democratic state convention of New York the delegation acts as a unit, and if a majority should decide to bolt or to take no further part in the convention after the adoption of the silver platform Senator Hill, who has endorsed this unit rule, would be compelled to abide by the results.

While Senator Hill is constantly advising conservatism on the part of the silver men, he has given no pledges that he would make a conservative speech if selected to preside over the convention. W. F. Sheehan, member of the national committee from New York and one of the closest personal friends of Senator Hill in that state, was asked if Hill was selected for temporary chairman if he would make a conservative speech and not one which would be obnoxious to the silver men, Mr. Sheehan replied: "Senator Hill, if elected temporary chairman of the convention, will make a 'gold' speech."

A secret meeting of leading silver men was held at the Sherman House yesterday. The conference was devoted exclusively to

MORE RAPPINGS REPORTED.

Alleged Sounds of Life from the Entombed Twin Shaft Miners.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 5.—A ripple of excitement varied the work of the miners at the Twin shaft yesterday by another rumor that rappings had been heard coming from the place where the entombed men are supposed to be. William Owen, foreman of the shift that came out of the mine at 1 o'clock in the morning, declared that the raps were first heard at 10:40 o'clock Saturday night. Several of the men had managed to crawl over the debris about 110 feet from the face of the fall. Here they found an open space blocked by a mass of rock and coal, over which it was impossible to force a way. While they were examining the fall five distinct raps on the wall were heard, two with a little interval between them and three in rapid succession. Foreman Owen declared that there could be no mistake about it this time, and he has no doubt that some of the men are alive.

Superintendent Law said he hoped Owen had not been deceived, but none of the officials place any reliance upon the story. They claim that the noise he heard was simply the cracking of timbers. If Owen is right, however, the fact adds only horror to the situation, for there is no hope of reaching the place where the men are within ten days at least.

Killed in a Political Quarrel.

TENNESSEE, Pa., July 5.—A brutal murder occurred in the village of Skinner's Eddy, Benjamin Carter, a farmer, and Ferdinand (Chambliss) got into an argument over the currency question. The latter argued for gold and the former wanted silver. Chambliss became belligerent and was put out, and the farmer assisted to do it. In half an hour Chambliss returned. He carried a knife in his sleeve. An attempt was made to put him out again, when he made a rush for Carter. He stabbed him in the face and neck, inflicting mortal wounds. The murderer was arrested.

Jumped from a Trolley to Death.

Miss Lockwood's jump followed so closely after the explosion that no attempt could have been made to restrain her. Miss Lockwood was 29 years old.

FATALLY SHOT HIS FRIEND.

Safonkeeper William Lasawickas Receives a Bullet in the Groin.

JOHN MITCHELL FIRED THE SHOT

He Breaks Down With Grief and the Victim Exonerates Him—How the Shooting Occurred—An Operation Shows Shocking Injury by the Bullet.

William Lasawickas, a Lithuanian, who keeps a saloon at the corner of Centre and Chestnut streets, is lying at the point of death at his home there, being a victim of accidental shooting at the hands of John Mitchell, also a Lithuanian. At a late hour this afternoon Lasawickas appeared to be sinking fast.

It appears that at about one o'clock Saturday morning a fight started in the saloon and Mitchell, who is Lasawickas's bartender, ran out to give an alarm. To effectively do this and attract the attention of the police he stood in the middle of the street and discharged a revolver into the air three times. The fourth cartridge refused to explode. Mitchell went back to the saloon with the intention of reloading the revolver. He first tried to learn why the fourth cartridge did not explode and in doing this pulled the trigger several times. Suddenly there was a report and Lasawickas, who stood in front of Mitchell, sank to the floor shot in the groin. Dr. W. N. Stein was called and he pronounced the wound a probably fatal one. Mitchell was taken into custody by Chief of Police Tosh and placed in the lockup. Mitchell paced to and fro in his cell for hours, weeping bitterly and expressing regret that he had not killed himself instead of shooting Lasawickas, whom he considered his best friend. Mitchell was taken before the victim Saturday morning, at about eleven o'clock. Chief Tosh, Councilman D. R. James and a Herald reporter were present. Lasawickas, who can speak good English, said to Chief Tosh, "Let that man go. I don't want to see him locked up for an hour. It was an accident and I know he wouldn't hurt me for any amount of money. We have always been good friends." Mitchell sat at the head bed weeping as one heartbroken. Lasawickas then told the story of the shooting as already given and as told by Mitchell. Chief Tosh took the prisoner before Justice Williams, who fixed bail in the sum of $1,000 and upon the security being furnished Mitchell was released with the understanding that he surrender himself if Lasawickas should die.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. J. C. Bidde was summoned from the Miners' hospital and with Drs. W. N. Stein and G. F. Matterer he performed an operation on Lasawickas. It was then found that the wound was more severe than first thought. The abdomen was opened and it was seen that the bullet after having the groin and passed in such a direction that it perforated the intestines in ten different places and finally lodged against the second lumbar vertebra. The spinal cord was not affected and there was no paralysis. The bullet was removed and Dr. Bidde carefully sewed each of the ten holes in the intestines. A lotion which had been carried into the body by the bullet was found in fragments in the abdominal cavity.

After the operation he, Bidde, said everything that could be done for the man had been accomplished and he would give no hope for recovery. The intestines were so badly torn recovery seemed impossible.

Lasawickas is the intelligent class of Lithuanians and quite popular. He is about 35 years of age and has a wife and two children.
