EVENING HERALD

MONDAY, JULY 13, 1906.

Ex-Congressman Shonk's suggestion. WILKESHAH, Pa., July 13.—Yesterday was a very quiet day at the Twin shaft, Pittston, and there were very few visitors. The rescuers made fair progress in the work of clearing away the debris in the passage way. Ex-Congressman Shonk, who is a coal operator of wide experience, offers a suggestion which he thinks it would be well to act upon. He says a committee of experts should be appointed to make an estimate of the cost that will be incurred by the Newton Coal company in searching for the bodies. This ascertained, a proposition should be made to the relatives of the entombed men that, instead of prosecuting the search, the money be equally divided among the families. He is of the opinion that the men are dead beyond question, and that even if the bodies should be found, they would be beyond recognition. He thinks the miners are buried under thousands of tons of rock.

Lancaster's Atlantic League Club. LANCASTER, Pa., July 13.—All the players of the Lancaster club have signed Atlantic League contracts, and the baseball sentiment here, which has been active in spite of the tottering condition of the State League since the opening of the season, has been perceptibly quickened at the prospect of the home team entering the more important organization. The club will open its new engagement with New York this afternoon.

A Sunday Bather Drowned. WILKESHAH, Pa., July 13.—John King, aged 15 years, was drowned in the Susquehanna river yesterday afternoon while bathing. He came from some town in Connecticut in search of work.

Charged with Killing Her Babe. LANCASTER, Pa., July 13.—Louis Ney, a resident of Bainbridge, is under arrest on the charge of destroying the life of her new born babe. She was brought to this city and lodged in jail. The charge is that the woman strangled the infant.

We Don't Follow the Leaders. We lead the followers in offering every advantage to be had in footwear.

POTTSVILLE LETTER.

POTTSVILLE, July 13. Mike Wiebok was committed to jail by Justice Lawlor, of Shenandoah, for 10 days, charged with illegal car riding, on oath of Officer Kreiger.

Daniel Weisser, of Frackville, was committed in default of $500 bail by Justice J. C. McGinness, charged with beating his wife. Joseph Sovatzki and Mike Budois were sent in from Minersville by Justice Taylor in default of $300 bail each, charged with assault and battery on Mike Somelavitch. Budois was also placed under $300 bail for beating Mike Covalt.

John Zusanak, John Adminus and John Bartek, all of St. Clair, were committed by Justice McCarthy in default of $200 bail each, charged with assault and battery on John Ropka of the same place.

The following marriage licenses have been issued: Fritz Leinhardt and Mary Durr, both of Gordon; Thomas Ferguson, of Tower City and Kate McCool, of East Mahanoy township; Wladyslaw Wicorkowski and Konegunda Waterlowicz, both of Shenandoah; Antoni Cunaichowski and Aleksandra Michniewicz, both of Shenandoah; John J. Powell, of Ashland, and Lizzie Davis, of Locust Dale.

THE DEATH ROLL.

The Names of George F. Helms and Mrs. Metz Added.

George F. Helms, 38 years old, telegraph editor of the New York Herald, died in New York hospital Saturday morning, of heart failure, about fifteen minutes after having been stricken at his desk in Herald's editorial rooms. Mr. Helms had been suffering for some time from severe headache and heart depression. A ten-day illness of pneumonia in January left him somewhat weaker than formerly. George F. Helms was born in Pottsville 28 years ago, his father being Jacob Helms. He was at one time reporter on the Miners' Journal and subsequently editor-in-chief of the Pottsville Chronicle. In 1891 he joined the Philadelphia Press staff and last August joined the New York Herald.

Laura E., wife of Daniel K. Garrett, died at her home in Lansford on July 3rd, aged 49 years. Her death was due to an operation to remove a splenic tumor. A post mortem examination on Tuesday last revealed the fact that the spleen which usually weighs seven ounces had increased to 111 ounces.

Alois Elison, a well-known Pottsville hotelkeeper, died on Saturday, in his 60th year. He was found dead in a room adjoining his bar when the family went to call him for supper. Death was due to apoplexy.

Mary C., wife of Edward Metz, and sister of J. P. Williams, the furniture dealer of town, died at her home in Mt. Carmel yesterday morning from consumption. She is survived by her husband and four children. The family formerly lived in town. The remains will be brought here to-morrow for interment in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. They will arrive here at 12:58, via the Lehigh Valley railroad.

Margaret Kay, 6-months old, of 907 West Coal street, died on Saturday of cholera infantum. The remains were interred in the Odd Fellows' cemetery to-day.

Ralph Thomas, 13 months old, 115 West Coal street, died on Saturday of spinal meningitis. The funeral took place to-day, interment being made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

Mel S. Holland, 8-month-old daughter of Edward J. Holland, one of the composers on the HERALD, died yesterday of gastro enteritis. The funeral will take place to-morrow at 2 p. m. Services in the United Evangelical church, corner of Centre and Jardin streets.

John Cochinski, 7 months old, living at Wm. Penn, died of diphtheria on Saturday.

The remains of Mrs. James Hoare of Pottsville, sister of Constable Thomas Bollin, of town, arrived in town this morning on the 11:05 Pennsylvania train and were interred in the Amnication cemetery.

Mrs. McLean, of Conner's patch, was buried in St. Joseph's cemetery at Girardville to-day. She died on Friday of general debility.

Crushed Under a Wagon.

Louis Engle, stable boss at Gilberton colliery, is lying at his home at that place suffering from a mishap by which all the ribs on the right side were broken. Engle had been sent to St. Clair to bring some mules which were to be driven to the colliery. Shortly after leaving St. Clair, the mules got too far ahead of the wagon, in which he was being driven by his assistant and the latter attempted to whip up the team. In doing so the vehicle was overturned and Engle was caught beneath the heavy box.

The Trolley Postal Service.

Postmaster O'Connor, of Mahanoy City, doubts the advantage or utility of postal service via the Schuylkill Traction railway, but he is willing to recommend it to the postal department if the public deem the establishment of the service a benefit. He has been making inquiries and up to the present the feeling appears to be that no particular benefit will be derived from the change. There are at present three outgoing and incoming mails to and from points between Mahanoy City and Locust Dale daily, which many regard as ample.

Officers Installed.

The following officers have been installed by Linnaech at the Everig Lodge No. 41, I. O. O. F. East President, P. C. Panton; President, George H. Jones; Vice President, John Glover; Assistant Secretary, William Rowland; Conductor, James W. Davis; Overseer, David Thomas; Inside Guard, Moses Davis; Outer Guard, John D. Hughes; R. H. S., J. J. Phillips; L. H. S., Charles Rowland. The lodge now conducts all business in the English language and is in good financial standing.

How are your kidneys? Time was when physicians dispaired of being able to cure Bright's Disease. Not so now since Dr. Hays' Spangas Kidney Pills have proved so efficacious in wrestling with this insidious trouble. For sale at Kirilin's Drug Store.

Assaulted on a Highway.

Paul Zelinski, a well-known saloon keeper of Gilberton, was waylaid and robbed of a suit of clothes Friday evening while en route from this town to his home. Zelinski had reached a spot with in about 200 yards of the Gilberton colliery fan house when he was struck with a stone and knocked senseless. When he regained his senses he found that his head was badly cut and the suit of clothes missing, but could not tell anything about his assailants as he had not seen any of them. A number of robberies have taken place in this neighborhood in the last year.

Company E's New Uniforms.

The contractor furnishing the uniforms for Company F, 8th Regiment, N. G. P., has furnished the suits for the non-commissioned officers and 58 for privates. The material used is a dark blue cloth, for the coat and vest, two shades darker than that of last year. The trousers are of light blue. The company has also received their shirts. They are of a grayish cloth and put a neat finishing touch to the suit.

Experience Tells It All.

The well known adage, "experience is a dear teacher," was never more fully exemplified than in the case of diphtheria. Experience has taught us that not a single diphtheria patient ever died where Thompson's Diphtheria Cure was used according to Directions. This valuable medicine is sold by leading druggists everywhere at 50 cents a bottle. The reader can well afford to be guided by the fortunate experience of others and keep Thompson's Diphtheria Cure handy in the house all the time.

Won a Bicycle.

Chas. M. Plank, yardmaster at the P. & E. station at Mahanoy City, was one of the fortunate ones in the Philadelphia Inquirer guessing contest. Mr. Plank guessed McKinley and Hobart, 992 votes.

Discrimination.

Is it right for the authorities of our borough to stop cock fighting on Sundays when two base ball clubs from another town can come into our borough on a Sunday afternoon and play a game of ball for money, and where bets can be freely and openly made?—Frackville Star.

UNLOADED AT MAHANAY CITY.

Car Load of Immigrants Driven From Pillar to Post.

Thirty-seven immigrants arrived at Mahanoy City yesterday and are now quartered in a hall there in charge of the Prussian Guards. What is to be done with them is a problem the people of Mahanoy City have not been able to solve.

The circumstances leading up to the arrival, as told by the immigrants, are that they were induced by an agent of the North American Steamship Line to leave their homes in Luborg, Austria, and go to Tarnopol, Austria, where they were to receive tickets and passports for a colony in Brazil, but instead of reaching that place were landed at New York City. From that place they were sent to a colony in Georgia, but the climate there was too hot and after remaining a week returned to New York and appealed to the Austrian consul, who sent them to Mahanoy City.

Killed a Wild Cat.

Scott Martz, of Gordon, was the hero of a thrilling encounter with a wild cat, on Friday while engaged in berry picking near the base of the Broad mountain. Scott was about starting for home, when he was startled by an unearthly screech, and saw but a short distance from him perched on a tree limb, an enormous cat. Martz had scarcely taken in the situation, when the ferocious brute made a spring for him but fell short, quickly regaining its feet, the animal again springing, landing squarely on the man's breast, who however, prepared for the second attack and before the maddened feline could inflict serious injury Martz's "bowie" had found a vital spot. The cat's grip relaxed and it fell lifeless to the earth while the valiant berry picker escaped unscathed and struck out for home.

Fought Over a Woman.

Three Poles fought at Gilberton yesterday over a woman and one had his scalp torn off by being struck with a piece of sheet iron.

Married.

Mrs. Ida A. Barker, of Pottsville, and William Rodgers, of St. Clair, a compositor on the Miners' Journal, were married at Trenton, New Jersey, on Thursday last. They returned to Pottsville last evening and have taken up a residence on West Norwegian street.
