- REPUBLICAN NATIONAL TICKET. FOR PRESIDENT, WILLIAM McKinley, OF OHIO. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GABRIEL A. HOBAERT, OF New Jersey. REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET. FOR GOVERNORS-AT-LARGE, GALESHA A. GROW, OF Shenandoah. SAMUEL A. DAVENPORT, OF Erie.

THOMAS HAAS, the Democratic presidential elector for Berks county, is a Democrat first and an American afterwards. He says, in effect, that no matter what his party does, he is a Democrat. Thomas lives at Womelsdorf, near which place they still vote for Andy Jackson.

When will the judges of our court hand down a decision in the case submitted in the spring to the legality of the election of the sheriff through the justice of the peace? This is a matter in which considerable interest is manifested by citizens at Shenandoah and Mahanoy City, outside of the limits whose officers are sought to be done away with by Judge McPherson, of Berks county. Long ago they held a convention at Mahanoy City in a school building in that county which was one of the same session.

THE POLITICAL CONTEST.

The political contest of 1906, so far as this county is concerned, will be inaugurated in less than two weeks with the assembling of the Republican representatives in county convention. County Chairman Payne has issued his call, and from now until that date the Republicans will be drawn up on the skirmish line. From present indications the primary elections will attract much attention, and the contest for the large number of nominations will bring out a heavy vote.

The issues involved in the Presidential election of 1906 are the most important that have occupied the attention of the American people in the past forty years. Forty times will be contested, and thousands of Democrats will cast their ballots for the Republican President and Congress. It is not surprising, in view of the fact that the Republican platform is the only one which stands for the preservation of the Union, that the Republican party should be so popularly supported. The Republican platform is the only one which stands for the preservation of the Union, that the Republican party should be so popularly supported.

The official organ of the Democratic party in this county, and whose opinion has been recognized for many years as voicing the sentiments of the rank and file of that party, has issued the Chicago platform, and today the Evening Herald is an advocate of the principles represented by McKinley and Hobart. This fact, together with others of equal importance, makes it incumbent upon the Republicans to put their best efforts forward, and success is assured. Schuykill county can again be included in the Republican column if an earnest contest is made at the county convention.

There are breakers ahead, however, and it is the duty of the Republicans to meet them bravely. It is useless to say there are no breakers in the county advocating the "over easy" case, such a statement would be foreign to the truth. They are already laying their plans to capture sufficient delegates to control the Republican county convention with a view to engrafting their 16 to 1 ideas on the platform, and the nomination of a candidate for Congress who has views on the currency question similar to those of their own. Herein lies the danger to Republican success in this county.

It is, therefore, necessary for the advocates of the St. Louis platform to be on the alert and frontate those plans at the primaries, and no delegate should be elected who will support any candidate for Congress whose ideas are not fully in accord with that platform. The Congressional nominee, more than any other county candidate, should and must be in line with his party not only upon the tariff question, but the currency as well. The present Congressman is supposed to be a candidate for re-nomination; in fact, his friends are industriously working to accomplish that end. In view of his attitude on the currency question in the past, there are grave doubts expressed as to his being in line with the St. Louis platform, and it is no more than fair to both himself and his constituents that he publicly express himself on this question. Mr. Brown well knows that no shirking will be tolerated, and he, like other aspirants, must either be for or against the party's national platform. Although repeatedly asked to give his views on the currency, up to the present time he has refused, and his refusal is accepted by many to mean that he is willing to subordinate his principles for his grand to hold office. In direct contrast to the course being pursued by the present Congressman is that of his opponent for the

The Call of County Chairman Payne. Delegate Representation.

Mr. Brown is not only endangering his own success by his silence, but is displaying a disregard for the views of the Republicans of the county. The latter are hardly in the habit of being overlooked longer, and the name that has been familiar in almost every campaign for a number of years will likely be obliterated. The present Congressman has been well paid since he joined the Republican ranks, and the party will naturally seek elsewhere for Congressional timber. Just now Shenandoah is a fruitful field in that respect.

Mr. W. H. Smith, editor of The Argus, Benton, Pa., recommends a remedy for diarrhoea which he has used with magical effect. I heartily and cheerfully recommend the remedy to all suffering from diarrhoea." This remedy is for sale by Graher Bros., Druggists.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Number of Votes Each District is Entitled to.

The number of votes each election district is entitled to in the next Republican county convention is given below. Shenandoah, full of last year owing to reasons well known and instead of having a total of 22 votes, will be entitled to but 14.

The basis of representation in conventions is fixed by law as follows: "Districts in which less than 35 votes were cast for the Republican candidate for the highest office at the last preceding national or state election, shall elect one delegate and one alternate; all other districts shall elect two delegates and one alternate. Each delegate representing districts voting from 35 to 149 Republican votes, can vote one vote in convention; if he represents a district in which 149 to 249 Republican votes were cast, he shall cast two votes in convention. If the district represented cast 249 to 349 Republican votes, he shall cast three votes in convention." Computed from the vote received by Benjamin Haywood for governor, the following table shows the number of votes each district will represent in the next Republican convention. The total vote will be 300, a decrease of 20 votes as compared with last year's vote.

Table with columns: DISTRICTS, Votes, and Count. Lists districts from Ashland to Shenandoah with their respective vote counts.

THE POPULISTS AND BRYAN.

Whenever one party endorses the national ticket of another it has no further use to itself, is wholly without precedent to sustain. The chairman's logic is simply this: The restoration of free coinage to silver is known to be absolutely necessary to bring back the country's departed prosperity. The Democratic and People's party are both agreed upon this and some other vital questions, but otherwise they differ. The Democratic party adopted a platform and selects presidential candidates, pledged and known to be sincere in advocacy of their vital measures. The Republican party is pledged to maintain the extreme reverse of those upon which Democrats and Populists agree, and unless Democrats and Populists unite the Republican party will win, and its policy of ruin indefinitely continue.

"It is strange logic, indeed, that the People's party must do this because it does right; that it must die because it is great, and magnificent and patriotic enough to go outside of its own ranks for a presidential candidate, for one who, though not a Populist in name, is in deepest sympathy with its most cherished and vital measures to remove a great and blighting curse from the country.

"Why will the nomination of Bryan and Sewall by the Populist convention render it impossible for Populists to make a fight for their local tickets, as Mr. Taubeneck claims? Where they are running Populist tickets without fusion with either party their national convention must strengthen them with the people. It is true that should the Democratic party be successful the Populist might not be in a position to demand appointments to office from President Bryan. But who can doubt his sense of justice and recognition of obligation for patriotic duty well done by members of the People's party?

"Grant that the Democratic party will not be likely to provide for paper money that is not redeemable in coin; but Mr. Taubeneck is mistaken in his claim that outside of free coinage for silver all other reforms advocated by the People's party would be forced to await the formation and victory of some new party pledged to their support. If he will read the Omaha platform and compare it line for line with the platform upon which Mr. Bryan was nominated he will find that the latter makes solemn pledge to the country to carry out every reform contained in the former except flat paper money, government ownership of railroads and the sub-treasury scheme, which latter measure the Omaha platform itself disavowed.

The claim of Mr. Taubeneck that the Populist party should be an ally and not an enemy of the Democratic party is an irreducible dream. Considering the numerical strength and powerful organization of the Democratic party, coupled with the plain assurance which its leaders have by the hundreds of thousands, whatever the Populist convention may do, it may be considered out of the question that the Democratic party, having already nominated its candidate and adapted its platform, will make the partnership arrangement which is the basis of Mr. Taubeneck's plans. It must be clear that the Democratic national committee has not a vestige of the power necessary to enter into such an arrangement, even if they desire to do so."

The Friends of Congressman Charles A. Towne, of Minnesota, are working hard for their favorite, and are receiving much encouragement from southern men now here. Active agents of the candidacy of the young Duluth lawyer are going about saying that their favorite is the superior of Bryan in intellect, his equal in character and his superior in oratorical ability.

Mr. George E. Washburn, of Boston, Mass., chairman of the eastern division of the Populist party, returned to the city last night from Lincoln, where he went to make a visit to Mr. Bryan. Mr. Washburn declined to reveal the purpose of his call upon the Democratic candidate, or to enter into the details of his interview with that gentleman. There is no doubt, however, that the object of the visit was to, if possible, reach an understanding with Mr. Bryan which would render it consistent for the Populist convention to accept him as its presidential candidate. Mr. Washburn returned with a very excellent impression of the Democratic notables, and anxious that his party could see its way clear to endorse Mr. Bryan. Discussing the general situation, Mr. Washburn says: "The people will endorse Mr. Bryan, whether we do or not, and with a fair chance we will sweep the country."

Ex-Governor Wade, of Colorado, who is also here, stated that he had abandoned his contest against the Patterson nomination for a seat in the convention. "I am nominated," he said, "that was for Bryan, and they immediately bounced me from the delegation, because, they said, I had sold out to Wall street." Here the governor laughed heartily. "Yes," he continued, "I am for Bryan, and shall place no further obstacles in the way of the seating of the Patterson delegation, which is also favorable to the Democratic nominee, though I understand the contest will be continued by the other members of the delegation which bears my name."

Ex-Governor Lewelling, of Kansas, was one of the energetic Bryan men to be seen at the Lindsell this morning. When asked as to the nomination of Mr. Bryan he said: "I can speak for Kansas. That state is most heartily in favor of the endorsement of Bryan. We believe that the shortest cut to silver is the best. The Chicago platform contains a great deal that we want. It is a pretty good Populist platform, and Bryan is a pretty good Populist."

Senator J. K. Jones, of Arkansas, chairman of the national Democratic committee, arrived last night. He said that he was on his way home from Washington, but admitted that he had stopped in St. Louis for the purpose of making a note on the drift of events in connection with the Populist convention. He declined to express any opinion as to whether the convention would endorse Bryan and Sewall, though he confessed that such a course on the part of the convention would be gratifying. He expressed himself as very much pleased with the indications of Democratic success.

Senator Marion Butler, of North Carolina, arrived last night. He will be followed in a day or two by the remainder of the North Carolina delegates. Senator Butler paid a high tribute to William J. Bryan, the Democratic nominee for president. "He is," said the senator, "the best man presented by the Democrats at the Chicago convention for nomination." Although speaking in such high terms of Mr. Bryan, Senator Butler gave no indication that he favored his endorsement by the Populists. "That," he said, "is a mat-

General Jacob S. Coxey, who is a delegate-at-large from Ohio, is not in favor of endorsing, or even taking the course pursued by a great many Populist leaders, and nominating instead of endorsing Bryan. He thinks a straight ticket should be nominated, but is pushing a plan which he says will unite the silver vote against the gold vote. It is to have electors selected pro rata, according to the votes cast by the parties whose national conventions have declared for silver. This would give the Populists the vice presidency if the scheme should be adopted.

All the indications are that the convention will be a great many Populist leaders, and nominating instead of endorsing Bryan. He thinks a straight ticket should be nominated, but is pushing a plan which he says will unite the silver vote against the gold vote. It is to have electors selected pro rata, according to the votes cast by the parties whose national conventions have declared for silver. This would give the Populists the vice presidency if the scheme should be adopted.

The leaders of the American silver party who are here appear to be all of one mind—that Bryan and Sewall should be endorsed. Victory for silver is their slogan and they oppose anything which will tend to cloud the issue or divide the silver strength. They expect by their action to exercise a strong influence over the other convention especially as there seems to be a disposition to arrange joint compromises.

A PROPOSED PLATFORM.

It Will Be Urged by Those Who Favor a Straight Out Ticket.

St. Louis, July 30.—"The middle of the road" Populists have a platform prepared, which was drawn up by Hon. Alfred Daguerre, of California, which they will support, and under which they will attempt to renominates straight out Populists for the presidency and vice presidency. The financial and tariff plank are:

We demand a national currency, safe, sound and flexible, issued by the general government as a full legal tender for all debts, public and private, and such national currency should be issued by the general government only, without the intervention of any national bank, or without the agency of any financial or other corporation whatsoever.

We believe that the United States is in fact a free and independent nation, and that its freedom and financial and industrial liberty of its citizens should not be made to depend upon the financial whim, caprice or avarice of any foreign nation, and therefore we demand the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver by the government of the United States at the present legal rate of 16 to 1, without reference to the action or financial course of any foreign nation.

We demand that the laws authorizing the incorporation of national banks be absolutely and unconditionally repealed, and that all national banks and the national banking system now in vogue be abolished.

We demand that congress enact a law which shall declare that all contracts, obligations and judgments of every kind and character requiring the payment of money in gold or silver coin, or other lawful money of the United States, and that such law shall declare that every provision inserted or made a part of any such contract, obligation or judgment, which requires the debtor to pay the money due thereunder in any specified kind of coin or currency shall be null and void.

We demand that the amount of circulation medium be speedily increased to not less than $50 per capita of the population.

We demand that the government establish a system of postal savings banks in each city, town, village and hamlet of the United States which contains a population of 1,000 or more, and that the people be permitted to deposit their money for safe keeping in such postal savings banks; and that the government carry on the business of transmission of money from one point to another through the mailing of postal bills of exchange through said postal savings banks.

We demand that a law be passed by congress authorizing the government to loan money to municipal corporations in the various states for the purpose of public improvement to the extent of one-third of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in such municipalities, corporation, or town, and that the rate of interest charged should not exceed the actual cost of issuing the loan.

The tariff plank favors a commission representing all the laboring, manufacturing, mining and agricultural interests, which commission shall report annually to congress, so that the tariff may, from time to time, if necessary, be amended. "In the interest of justice alike to the manufacturer, the agriculturist, the miner and the American laborer, so that its protective features, if any, shall extend to the whole body of American industry. And we demand that all tariff legislation be so framed and enforced as to prevent the formation of trusts and other combinations."

The platform further demands that the government own and operate the railroads, telegraph and telephone systems; that the government build and operate the Nicaragua canal; that the people should have the right through the initiative and referendum to declare their will on all great questions; that the president, vice president and United States senators be elected by the direct vote; that there should be the graduated income tax; that the land should not be owned for speculative purposes, and that all non-resident and non-citizen should be prohibited from owning any land in this country, and to prevent and destroy "land monopoly" there should be a graduated land tax; that congress should pass and enforce an effective law against immigration. The issuance of government bonds is denounced as unconstitutional in law and vicious and unjust in morals.
