Conceded Another's Wife.
Andrew Patrick is a boarder at the house of George Melchick, who conducts a boarding house at Valley, near Mahanoy City. On Saturday night both gentlemen went to Mahanoy City and returned home freely of "bodily." Before returning home Melchick was informed by a friend that Patrick was paying attentions to his wife, which caused the quarrel. Patrick denied the charge and hit Melchick on the back with a stone, whereupon the boarding house picked up a club, hitting Patrick on the head, knocking him down and fracturing his skull. In the morning Constable Lightenberger, who was taking a morning walk, found the man lying on the roadway in an unconscious condition. He was picked up and taken to Justice Kenny, where he was revived. He swore out a warrant for the arrest of Melchick which was postponed until tomorrow evening on account of the plaintiff's weak condition.

A Friend to Everybody.
Parents are by nature anxious that their children secure and maintain as many useful and valuable friends as possible. One friend which they can readily secure for a child is Thompson's Diphtheria Cure, which in case of a diphtheritic attack, will positively cure the disease and save life where all other medicines fail. The best plan is to keep it handy in the house at all times and apply according to directions at the first intimation of diphtheria, croup, quinsy, or any other throat affection. Sold at Kirin's drug store at 50 cents a bottle.

POTTSVILLE LETTER.
Another Drowning Accident Occurs at the Tumbling Run Dam.

POTTSVILLE, July 20.—Another drowning accident occurred last Saturday evening a short time before 7 o'clock in the second run dam. Louis Miller, with several companions, was spending the afternoon at the Elginator Boat House and about 7 o'clock Miller and a man named Hartman, of Port Carbon, went out on the dam with George Piefer's canoe. It has not been in use for several years and was not considered safe for one who could not swim.

It is supposed that Hartman, who was towing the boat, tried to make too short a turn and the boat tilting over upset him in the water. On the recoil Miller was thrown into the water and the boat was turned upside down. Hartman swam to shore, thinking that Miller could swim but after several attempts to get on top of the boat the latter slipped back in the water. Although there were several persons near, yet none of them could reach the drowning man in time. Deputy Coroner Clemens empaneled a jury composed of Joseph DeFrein, Albert Roehrig, J. M. Madison, J. W. Eisenbuth, Joseph Myers and P. C. Thomas. They will hear testimony this evening at Clemens' drug store. Parties grieved for the body all Saturday night and were successful in finding it in about forty feet of water, opposite the Neversink boat house, which is the nearest house to the breast of the second dam. Miller was a native of Germany and was employed as a baker at Kohler's, on Fourth and Schuylkill avenue. No arrangements have been made for the funeral as his sister is expected to-day from Philadelphia.

An early morning fire occurred on the Mill Creek road and as the result Mrs. Jennie Sloan is without a home to-day. An alarm was sent in by Officer Charles Graef from box 73 at the corner of Coal and Nichols streets, about 4:30 o'clock this morning. The house was situated at the top of a hill outside of the borough limits and the firemen could not get to it with their hose. Everything was lost and the woman was nearly distressed. She said that there was $300, a bank book and some important papers in the house. The loss is about $1,800, partly covered by insurance.

Marriage licenses were granted to the following persons: Samuel J. Yelch and Sallie Field, both of Wayne township; John T. Williams, of Williamstown, and Mary Ziegler, of Joliet; Thomas Howe, of Boydstown, and Emily J. Graham, of Frackville; Michael Schumel, of Buck Mountain, and Eva Shastak, of Dark Water; Louis Mohrback and Barbara Wagner, both of Minersville. Deeds were recorded as follows: From Adam Reichert to James Reber, two tracts in St. Paul township; from Edward P. Meiswinkel et al., executor, to Frank W. Meiswinkel, lot in Pottsville.

How are your kidneys? Bright's Disease is a terrible malady. So insidious, so deceptive, so dangerous. Dr. Hobbs Spangus Kidney Pills have a wonderful curative effect in checking and curing this disease. They have no equal. Sold by S. P. Kirin, druggist.

Used a Beer Glass.
Frank Koschak had a hearing before Justice Ryankawicz last evening for splitting Joe Kosko's head open with a beer glass during a drunken brawl at a boarding house. The arrest was made by Officer Goodman and the prisoner was discharged by paying fine and costs.

Children's Day.
With an overcrowded church and a select program, Children's Day was very appropriately celebrated in the United Evangelical church last evening. The various recitations and vocal selections by the Sunday school were very ably rendered.

Robbed While Asleep.
Thomas Fanklokis, who conducts a saloon on East Centre street, while sleeping on the stoop of his house was relieved of a silver watch and $1.00 in money, by some unknown person. He was also robbed of a quantity of wine, liquors and cigars.

Meeting of Insurance Men.
The Mahanoy Valley and Central Fire Insurance Association, composed of insurance agents of the district indicated by the name, met in the Mahanoy House parlor at Mahanoy City on Saturday, to discuss rules and regulations, rates, etc. The next meeting is held in Ashland this week. Agents Davis and David A. Faust, of town, were present.

Buried This Morning.
The remains of James R. Dewey, who died at Mahanoy Plane on Friday night from nervous troubles, were interred this morning at St. Joseph's cemetery, Ashland. The deceased was 46 years of age and leaves a wife and eight children.

Work at the Collieries.
The collieries operated by the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company and the Lehigh Valley Coal Company resumed operations this morning. Those of the former company will work four days this week, while the latter will make full six days. All the stone yards of the P. & R. C. & I. Co. are full and there is very little demand for large purchases, hence that company will not work its mines full time until the market improves and the present supply on hand is reduced.

To Lay the Corner Stone.
The corner stone of the new Second Methodist church at Shamokin will be laid Sunday, July 28, when ministers from different sections of the state are expected to be present.

The Select Dance To-night.
The Philopatrian Club, of Shamokin, will hold another of its series of dances this evening at Maysville park. The Schoppe Orchestra, of town, will furnish the music. Quite a number from town will be in attendance.

Knocked Down by a Bicycle.
George Deibert, aged 4 years, was knocked down by a bicycle, ridden by Thomas McGinty, on East Centre street, Mahanoy City, on Saturday evening. He was waiting to let a team pass and walked directly in front of the bike. He was picked up unconscious and received severe bruises about the body.

Death of an Old Resident.
Patrick Toole, of West Line street, died at his late residence yesterday afternoon, aged 80 years. Deceased was an old resident of town and was a sufferer from miner's asthma for a long time, which caused his death. He is survived by a wife and several children.

Grant Band at Maysville Park.
The Grant Band, of town, has been engaged to give two concerts at Maysville Park, near Shamokin, on Wednesday, one in the afternoon and the other in the evening.

Drunk and Disorderly.
Jacob Schletz was arrested by Officer Foltz last night for getting a nuisance on the streets in the morning and being drunk and disorderly. He was given a hearing and released on $100 bond, fine and costs.

Cameron for McKinley.
HARRISBURG, July 20.—The following statement was made by a person who claims to have had his information from Senator Cameron himself: "Senator Cameron, Pennsylvania's most persistent champion of the free silver cause, has announced that he will vote for the Republican ticket this fall, and propose to assist the campaign of McKinley and Hobart. While declaring that he is for free silver, the senator objects to the planks of the Democratic platform opposing use of troops in strikes."

Will Serve Additional Time.
WEST CHESTER, Pa., July 20.—A charge of jail breaking was preferred on Saturday against the colored convict James Mills, who was recently recaptured at Bedford, Pa., and returned to the Chester county prison. Mills has seven years of his fourteen year term yet to serve, and will be given additional time for his latest offense. He has thus far declined to tell how he made his escape from the prison.

Snakes Crawled Into the Bed.
CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., July 20.—Mrs. Martin Drury and her two children were bitten by copperhead snakes last week. One of the children is dead, and the mother and her other child cannot long survive. Owing to the heat the family removed their bed to the basement, and the snakes crawled into the bed while they slept.

The Lehigh Valley employees are at present being measured for their full uniforms.

The Lehigh Valley Coal Company's new reservoir, near Mahanoy City, is completed.

Wm. Broughall, of Ellangowan, is suffering from a large tumor on the fore part of the head.

Ashland is to have a directory, and the book will be issued about the middle of August.

Heisenberger's properties on East Centre street are being equipped with new flag stone pavements.

John Roberts is laying a substantial flag stone pavement around his newly erected stable, on West Lloyd street.

Camp 71, P. O. S. of A., of Ashland, will hold a box social at Washington Park on August 6. The local camps have been invited.

PERSONAL.

Miss May Duto is visiting friends in St. Clair.

G. Meade Peters and Harry Wertz spent Sunday at Lewisburg with relatives.

Misses Yollmar and Bender, of Ashland, were Saturday evening visitors to town.

R. W. Scheeler, the barber, who was confined to bed by illness, is again convalescent.

C. T. Staugh returned home on Saturday from a two-weeks visit in Maryland among relatives.

C. W. Dangler and son, Hennes, were in Sayrestown, Northumberland county, today, attending the funeral of a relative.

Miss B. Miles, accompanied by her niece, Miss Ella Gaughan, left town this morning to visit friends in Scranton and Wilkesbarre.

Messrs. William Need and Augustus Swank, who were the guests of the Letzel family during the past week, returned to their homes in Wilkesbarre this morning. The trip was made on their bikes.

Miss Lizzie Letzel returned home from a trip to Wilkesbarre last evening, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Need.

John Pratt, of Philadelphia, who was visiting relatives in town for the past few days left this morning for Berwick.

Richard Rowse listened to the sweet strains of the Italian orchestra at Maysville park, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Duto were the guests of the family of Poor Director Steve Middleton, of Gilberton, yesterday.

James Ludlow, representing the Atlantic Fish Company, of Long Branch, N. J., paid us a business call this morning. He is a most affable gentleman and represents a reliable company.

Isaac Yarnall, foreman of the Ashland Local, accompanied by Frank Bancroft, a type on the same paper, paid the HERALD office a pleasant call yesterday afternoon.

Al. Ramer was a visitor among the fair sex at Ashland last evening. His friends claim that he is rapidly assuming ideas of becoming a Benedict.

Dr. George Williams Disappears.
The New York World contained the startling piece of news from Long Branch, N. J., to the effect that Rev. George Williams, who was last spring called to the pastorate of the First Baptist church, of that place, has disappeared leaving his family in doubt as to his whereabouts. Dr. Williams left his family and the parsonage last Monday morning, ostensibly to go to New York on business. Since then he has not been seen or heard from. His wife is greatly alarmed for his safety. The missing pastor is 44 years old, and formerly resided in Mahanoy City. He is well and favorably known in Shenandoah. He lived happily with his wife and three children.

Raided a Polish Wedding.
On Saturday night Officers Tosh, Lee and Stanton were called to a house on South Main street, near the Pennsylvania station, where a Polish wedding was in progress. Upon arrival they found the inmates all in an intoxicated condition and creating a nuisance. A raid was made and nine of the occupants were arrested. They were taken to the lockup and given a hearing before Chief Burgess Burns, when eight of the prisoners paid fines and costs and the ninth is serving time in the lockup.

Won't Pay the Tax.
Manager Lyons, of the Sunbury opera house, refuses to pay the state tax of $32.50 levied on all houses of amusement by an act of the last Legislature. He threatens to close the opera house, and suit has been brought to recover the tax due.

New Dumping Ground.
The borough this morning, through Charles Clemens and J. R. Polard, of the P. & R. C. & I. Co., received permission to use the land along the Lakeside railway in the rear of the Indian Ridge dirt bank as a public dumping ground. All refuse matter which is being dumped will be covered immediately with coal dirt from the bank, so as to prevent the arising of any obnoxious odors.

Off to Europe.
The fifteen popular teachers chosen by the customers of Snelberger & Co., of Philadelphia, for a European trip at the expense of that firm sailed on the American liner Helgenland on Saturday afternoon for a fifty-days' tour. Among the ten city teachers Miss Minnie M. Metzler, of Germantown, ranks second while Miss Margaret Thomas, of Morris, ranks first of the teachers in the state outside of Philadelphia. They will be accompanied by a member of the firm on the trip.
