EVENING HERALD
WEDNESDAY, JULY 22, 1896.

P. O. of T. A. Convention.
SHAMONIA, July 22.—The tenth annual convention of the Patriotic Order of True Americans, of Pennsylvania, was called to order in the hall of Camp 30, P. O. S. of A., this city, at 9 o'clock yesterday morning by State President, Miss Saml. E. Gallagher, of Lebanon. Dist. President, Miss Annie Hoyd, in a most speech introduced to the convention Chief Burgess W. H. R. Smith, who warmly welcomed the visitors to our city.

State Treasurer, Mrs. Emily S. Harkins, of Philadelphia, responded to the Burgess' address. The State President then followed with her volubility address, which contained a general review of the year's work and much valuable information. She urged a number of recommendations.

The committees were appointed, and H. G. Hess, of Shenandoah, is a member of the committee on District Presidents.

State Secretary Theodore Harris, of Philadelphia, reported an increase of membership since December 31st, 1895, of 485, with five camps to have from fifty-six camps reported. The membership December 31st, 1895, was 2789, and up to June 30th, 1896, it numbered 3,360. There were eight camps instituted during the administration year ending June 30th last. During the year three camps disbanded. The value of the subordinate camps property amounts to $10,761.81. There were 657 propositions last year and 695 this year.

State Treasurer, Mrs. Emily S. Harkins, of Philadelphia, reported in the treasury, $6,018.13; valuations, $4,308.74; invested, $6,159.04.

Will Cure Any Case.

Weddings.
Mr. Boyle, of Mahanoy, and Miss Holliman, of Mahanoy Plains, were united in marriage in the Roman Catholic church at the latter place, this afternoon.

John Malley, of North Gilbert street, and Miss Bridget Jenkins, of West Lane street, were united in marriage last evening.

A pretty wedding took place this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Annunciation church, the contracting parties being Miss Ellen Kewnan, of West Lloyd street, and Harry Hagen, of West Philadelphia. The duties of bridesmaid were performed by Miss Mary Kewnan, a sister of the bride, and that of groomsmen by John Hagen, of Philadelphia, a brother of the groom. Immediately after the ceremony was performed a wedding supper was partaken of at the home of the bride, after which the newly married couple left for Atlantic City, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will reside in West Philadelphia, where a newly furnished home awaits their arrival.

How Last Night.
During the progress of the festivities at a Polish wedding, on West Coal street, last night, a row between Polish and American young men took place. It is stated that four young men from West Coal street were invited to partake of the festivities, and after imbibing freely of intoxicating drinks they became boisterous and attempted to make things lively and have their own way. To this the Polish element objected and an effort was made to eject them from the premises, which ended in a free-for-all fight. The Americans, being in the minority, were not capable of besting their opponents. A lot of furniture was destroyed and a young man named Bush received a scalp wound several inches in length by being hit with the leg of a chair on the head. After a scrimmage of several minutes the young men were ejected and the festivities were continued until a noise which caused some of the neighbors to threaten to make complaint to the police.

A Mahanoy City Wedding.
Miss Katie McCall, of Cole's Patch, and Thomas Ferguson, were married at Mahanoy City yesterday afternoon. Miss Annie Gallagher, of Philadelphia, and James Leilly, of town, supported the couple. The groom is a son of Anthony Ferguson, outside foreman at Mahanoy City colliery and is at present employed as an engineer at Brookside colliery, near Towey city. A handsomely furnished home awaits their return to Towey City from an extended tour to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Echo Answers, Where?
From Hazleton Plain Speaker.

It is stated that Charles N. Brumm, who represents the Shelby district in Congress, will seek re-nomination, this time on a free silver ticket. If chosen he would serve his term out, but if the advocates of the theory now attracting so much attention would not come up to their promise to restore good times, etc., where would the Hon. Charles Brumm seek a berth to gratify his endless ambition "to serve the people"?

Base Ball To-morrow.
What promises to be another interesting game of base ball will be played at the Trotting park to-morrow, between the Spartans and the Cherry street nine, who is regarded as the strongest amateur team in this locality. The Spartans are now in the third year of their existence, and carry a record of never having lost a game. A good game may be looked for.

Bicycle Race Meet at Hipsburg.
On Wednesday, August 5th, the Hipsburg wheelmen will hold their second annual race meet at the Columbia County Fair grounds. The following is a list of events: One mile oval, one half mile open, boys race (under 16 years of age), two mile lap race, four county race (Columbia, Montour, Lycoming and Luzerne) club handicap (one mile), one mile open, three mile handicap. Four hundred dollars in prizes will be distributed among the contestants.

Band Looked Sobby.
The Grand band, while marching down to the Reading depot this morning, bound for Maryland, and playing one of Sousa's popular marches, presented a sobby appearance. The band was composed of 20 men, and seemed highly elated over today's engagement. The band was engaged through the persistent efforts of the people of Shamokin, who are very anxious to hear them play.

Long Journey on Wheels.
J. Harry Wenkheim and Charles Simon, of Newark, N. J., arrived in town yesterday morning on their wheels, and are guests of the former's uncle, E. A. Davenport. They left home Sunday morning at 4:30 o'clock, reached Allentown that night, and reached Pottsville Monday night, arriving here yesterday morning. They leave Shenandoah tonight for Shamokin and will return to their homes via Scranton, Reading, Philadelphia and New York. They are expert cyclists and ride the well-known and reliable Humber wheel with the G. & J. tires. Mr. Wenkheim is a former Shenandoah "boy," and greeted old acquaintances during his short stay.

Horses Became Skittish.
This morning a pair of horses driven by a farmer, who was selling green truck on West Lloyd street, in the neighborhood of West, suddenly became frightened at the noise of an approaching electric car and made an attempt to run away. They collided with the barber pole at Broderick's shop, making a sharp turn and running on the pavement on the opposite side of the street, where the two horses ran on either side of a tree, which stopped their speed and threw one of the horses to the ground. No damage was done.

Married Men's Challenge.
The married men's base ball club of the Columbia S. F. E. & H. Co. Company, do hereby challenge the single men's team to play a game of ball, the latter team to specify the date and place where the game is to be played.

Hand Cut.
Anthony Mackalaus, had the back of his right hand cased by a piece of coal falling upon it at Wegy Shenandoah colliery this afternoon. He was taken to the office of Dr. W. N. Stein, who applied four stitches to sew up the wound.

SENATOR DUTLER CHAIRMAN

will never yield and the situation is admittedly critical. It is generally accepted as a fact among the Populist delegates that if Bryan and Sewall are endorsed by the Populist convention that the Populist party will be accorded a liberal representation upon the Democratic executive committee. They believe they will have at least two or three members of the committee. The understanding also is that the silver Republicans who have declared for Bryan will be given representation in the management of the campaign.

Chairman Jones, of the Democratic committee, would rather confirm his duty the report in so many words, except to say that no definite arrangement had been made. "I have gone no further," he said, "than to say to all that I want the silver men to get together in this contest, letting bygones be bygones and fraternizing as men ought who are fighting for the same principle."

Arrivals from Lincoln, to which place there are not a few pilgrimages these days, report that Mr. Bryan still declines to make any endorsements or pledges for Populist support. He tells all that he is not indifferent to the indorsement of the Populist convention, but believes he will be elected whether made the expressed object of the regard of the convention or not, and adds that as he was nominated by the Democrats without making any pledges or promises in the way of appointments, he cannot and will not make any pledges to secure other nominations, or even to secure the election, but that Populists as well as others must rely upon him to treat them fairly in case of his success at the polls.

The Bryan men still appear to be in control, and the leaders are very confident that they are in the majority. Practically all the trained and experienced generals are aligned with them, and they have a very thorough organization for systematic and effective work. Yesterday they were reinforced by the arrival of 500 Bryan Populist shouters from Nebraska, 150 energetic Populist workers from Kansas, and many from other parts of the west. They are delegating upon the "middle of the road" presents the single issue, McKinley or Bryan; that the western Populists insist upon grasping the opportunity to vote on the silver issue, and that failure to nominate Bryan will split the party wide open, and cause dissensions that will never heal.

They confer the southern delegates and confronting squads from other sections who want to keep in the middle of the road and have "no truck," as some of them express it, with either of the parties, especially the Democratic party, with which they have been at war. While strong of conviction and vociferous in their determinations that they will never surrender, the "middle of the road" delegates are practically a disorganized crowd. They keep up a great deal of enthusiasm at their meetings, and loudly claim as high as 90 per cent of victory cannot be argued out on paper unless in the final contest those who insist upon compromise should side with them.

The out and others, if they should control, are at sea as to a candidate. Paul Vandervoort, of Nebraska, and Eugene V. Debs are about the only names canvassed since Congressman Towne, of Minnesota, arrived yesterday and announced himself for Bryan. Although the Bryan managers seem confident of success they are by no means out of the woods. The compromise propositions urged upon them are the principal source of their anxiety.

Yesterday Victor L. Berger, a delegate from Wisconsin, telegraphed Eugene V. Debs as follows: "You will not fail to do your duty when this country requires your services. The middle of the road people want to nominate you for president. Come at once." In reply the following was returned: "Shall try my best to join you to-morrow."

Mr. Ignatius Donnelly was asked last night if he was a candidate for the presidency. He replied that he was not, but that he would accept if the nomination should be tendered, with the hope of promoting the interests of his party. Mr. Donnelly holds that the party should be maintained intact, and that this cannot be done by the indorsement of Bryan and Sewall. He said that his name had been suggested by five of the congressional districts of his state, but that he had considered the matter in the nature of a personal compliment.

Joseph E. Buchanan, member of the national committee for New Jersey, and a delegate to the Populist convention, arrived at the Lindell last night. With him came the New Jersey delegation and the delegates from New York city and Brooklyn. "I think," he said, "the delegates from the west will be almost solid for Bryan, provided nothing is done which will threaten to impair the organization or life of the party. The delegates from the east like Bryan, but the validity of the Populist party must be maintained in its present condition."

The national committee yesterday afternoon took up the various contests for seats, the Illinois contest being the first in order. This contest involved the seats of the twenty-two delegates from Chicago. It was charged that the conventions were irregular, and each side claimed that the other was composed of men who were not Populists. One of the delegations was headed by E. S. Taylor and the other by William Burns, who, as an officer of the American Railway union, was imprisoned with Eugene Debs after the Chicago strike. The committee voted the Taylor delegation.

In the contest from the Eleventh Missouri district was decided in favor of Frank E. Ritchie, who contested the seat claimed by John L. Talbot. It was insisted that the election of Talbot as a delegate had been determined in the district convention by the votes of six men who afterwards made affidavits that they were Democrats.

Interest in the silver convention, which opens today in Music Hall, where Grover Cleveland was renominated in 1888, has been completely eclipsed by the bitter struggle among the Populists of nominating or indorsing Bryan. The program of the silver convention is cut and dried. There is no division of sentiment. Congressman Francis Newlands, of Nevada, will be temporary chairman, and William P. St. John, the New York banker, permanent chairman. They will deliver their speeches a free platform of single plank in favor of the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1 will be adopted, Bryan and Sewall will be indorsed, and the convention will adjourn.

FELL THROUGH A TRESTLE

Twenty Passengers Seriously Injured on an Illinois Railroad.
CARBONDALE, Ill., July 22.—A disastrous accident occurred on the Chicago and Texas railroad about a mile south of Murphysboro yesterday. A trestle over Big Murphysboro creek gave way as the result of recent rains, and one passenger coach was derailed. Twelve persons were injured, two of whom may die. A broken rail penetrated the mail car in which Mail Clerk Hamilton, of this city, was but he escaped without serious injury.

The injured are: Mrs. McClure, of McClure Station, bruised face and hands; South Hinsdale, of Carbondale, badly out about the face; George Steber, of Bloomington, Ill., jaw broken and injured internally in the breast, may die; Mrs. G. S. Drew, engineer's wife, going to her husband at Boston, Mass., with five children, collar bone broken and cut about the face; three of her children were hurt, a little girl and a little boy having arms broken; B. H. Herman, of Wittenberg, Mo., cut on head and bruised on knee; George Quackenbush, Cape Girardeau, bruised on head and face; Frank Anderson, Grand Tower, nose broken; H. Werra, of St. Louis, bruised.

Will Work for the Chicago Nominee.
MILWAUKEE, July 22.—Secretary Noel, of the Democratic state committee, announces that Chairman C. W. Peck, who is now absent at Lake Minnetonka, has authorized him to state that he Peck will support and work for the nominee of the Chicago convention. In connection with the stand taken by National Committee Chairman E. Wall, this makes two notable defections from the Democratic party.

Arrested on a Grave Charge.
ALTONA, Pa., July 22.—Mrs. H. L. Bougholmer, who was tied, gagged and assaulted in her home early Monday morning, yesterday recognized Albert Bougholmer, her husband's nephew, as one of her assailants. He was arrested.

Died in a Prison Cell.
READING, Pa., July 22.—Flies, the tramp who attempted to murder Mrs. Amanda Berker at Exeter Monday night, died in Berks county jail at 9 o'clock last night.

Pay only your own bills. In dealing here the cash customer is not taxed to help support the credit customers who do not pay. Here all are one level. All are cash. 7-18-96

Will Require the X-Rays.
THE IRON HERALD.—Can you inform us what is the reason the Miners' Journal, although publishing the card of Horace E. Deinger, has been so disinterested as to withhold all editorial comment upon his candidacy? Is it possible that Major Finney is being his head, paid fully, and wants to "hog" everything in sight for himself? An early reply will oblige a number of Shenandoahs. July 20th.

[We cannot authoritatively say what Major Finney's reasons are for withholding the notice usually accorded candidates upon their announcement. It may be that he favors the nomination of another candidate, although we hardly think the Miners' Journal, one of the recognized party organs of the county, will espouse the cause of one whose past record on the currency question has not been in line with the present platform of his party. We refer our correspondent to the Journal for a solution of the question.—Ed.]

Cardin Gets Down to Business.
Under the act of the Dauphin county court which issued injunctions against the numerous Justices in town to retire from legal business, and which leaves Justice J. J. Cardin as one of the two Justices who can legally perform the duties of the office, he has retired the rooms formerly occupied by the Shenandoah Republican League, in the Titman building, as an office. Mr. Cardin has made the transfer from his present place on West Lloyd street in order to be more centrally located. He began to furnish his new place to-day.

Full Details Gladly Given.
A Railroad Official's Experience.

M. E. EDWARDS EDMONDS, long connected with railroad construction in Nebraska, writes: "My heart troubled and pained me for 15 years. Shortness of breath was the constant and most common symptom. Intense, excruciating pain, generally followed any severe exertion. Faintness, hunger without any appetite, fluttering that made me clutch my breast, and palpitation that often staggered me as if I would fall, were frequent attacks. Again, everything would turn black if I arose from a stooping posture quickly. Sleepless nights with their prostrating unrest were numerous and I could get no rest day or night. I consulted leading physicians and tried advertised remedies. They gave me no relief. One of Dr. Miles' circulars described my case so exactly that I took Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and I am now a well man. I hope every one troubled with heart disease will try Dr. Miles' remedy. If they will write me personally, I will gladly give them full details of my experience." EDW. EDMONDS, P. O. Box 85, David City, Nebraska.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on guarantee that first bottle benefits or money refunded.
