[Many Saloonkeepers Arrested.

For several days past the liquor men of Hazleton, at least that portion of them that ciolate the law in any manner, have been threatened with arrests. Yesterday a de-tective in the employ of the State Laguer Lengue marched over a dozen men, ipclind ing brewery agents, battlers, licensed and un incensed dealers, to an Alderman, Al furnished $500 ball each. These arrests are Ail due to the natiring offeris of the State Liquer League, arganized for the protection of its mombers who pay a fright license, and is de termined to break up the illegal traffic. The charges prefered against these parties, especsolity against the logress battlers, is that of selling bottled beer over the sourcer at five cents a bottle, which is contrary to law. Other arrosts will be made.
