Lost Money. Mrs. William Acker is the mother of Mrs. William Kreiger, whose house on Emorick street was struck by lightning last night. While running to her daughter's house after the bolt struck Mrs. Acker lost two dollars.

The truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. That's our motto; and we add leather, solid leather and nothing but leather. That's the way our shoes are built. 7-18-H

Run Over by a Freight Train. Last evening about 6:30 Harry Burinski, a Polish boy about 14 years old, started for his home at Boston Run. He had been on a visit to Mahanoy Plane, and when he reached the signal tower a short distance from the latter place he attempted to board a moving freight train, and fell under the wheels. Both legs were crushed in a horrible manner, and he died shortly after being removed to the hospital. The unfortunate boy had no parents and resided with his brother at Boston Run.

LAST NIGHT'S ELECTRICAL STORM. A House Struck and Two Families Stunned by the Shock.

The electrical and thunder storm of last night is said by experts to have been the most severe that has visited this region in many years. Such storms have never been so frequent and severe as during the past three days and the one last Monday night was a snorter, but last night's storm eclipsed it. The rain also did considerable damage along the electric railways, but the electric railways were considerably damaged. The storm in town was a very severe one. Lightning struck in several places, but only in few instances with damage worth speaking of. The most severe case was the striking of a house on North Emorick street owned by the P. & R. C. & L. Co. and occupied by the family of William Kreiger. The bolt struck at ten o'clock and demolished the chimney and then slashed the weather boards from the south side of the house from roof to foundation and about three feet in breadth. The weather boards fell in a heap in the yard, the bricks of the chimney were forced through the roof and the floor of a bedroom on the second floor and the sitting room beneath were covered with plaster from the ceiling. The bolt also ripped considerable plaster from the south walls of the rooms. Picture frames hanging on the south wall of the bedroom were thrown to the floor and a bedstead was displaced and wrenched. A picture frame in the sitting room was ignited, but it was made of an enamel preparation and, after sizzling a few moments, burned itself out.

Mr. Kreiger, his wife and 2-year-old son, Leroy, occupied a bed in a room adjoining and to the rear of the bedroom in which the bolt struck. All were stunned by the shock and rendered unconscious for two or three minutes. The members of the Townsend family in the adjoining house suffered in a similar manner, but all quickly recovered and none have complained of ill-effects since. Mr. Kreiger says that when he recovered his senses his bedroom was filled with dust from the plaster in the adjoining room.

The Townsend house was not damaged. Neighbors who witnessed the striking of the Kreiger house sounded a fire alarm and all the companies promptly responded, but their services were not required. Almost immediately after this alarm was sounded lightning struck the wires of the fire alarm system and rendered it useless. The telegraph wires in the ticket office of the Lehigh Valley depot were struck and burned out. Quite a blaze was created, but it was promptly extinguished by Night Watchman Sullivan with a little water. The wires were repaired in time for early morning service.

A wire of the street electric light system was also struck and all the lights were extinguished, but the damage was so slight that the system was in condition again within fifteen minutes. Traffic on the Shenoykill Traction line was delayed from 8 until 10:30 on account of the storm. When the clouds gathered and the lightning commenced to flash General Electrician Harris disconnected the cars all along the line. Whenever cars happened to be when the storm started they were obliged to remain until the connections were made again, with one exception. In this case a car was stopped at the East Creek base ball grounds and between spurts of the storm several young men who were passengers exercised themselves in pushing the car to the turnout near the Hammond colliery. After the current was turned on this car ran to the east end of the Hammond colliery dirt bank and was obliged to stop there on account of coal dirt having been washed upon the track. About 200 yards west was a car held by another washing of coal dirt upon the track. The latter car was sheltered in the power house during the storm and succeeded in running to the dirt bank after the current was turned on. The passengers were transferred and those who started from Girardville at 8 o'clock reached here at 11:35.

The roads between town and Malineville are reported as being in very bad condition. Deep ruts and washouts were formed last night on many of the roads. A large window pane in the saloon at the corner of Centre street and Pear alley was destroyed by the winds.

Mass Meeting of Citizens. A mass meeting of the citizens of the borough of Shenandoah will be held in Ferguson's theatre on Thursday evening, July 30th, 1896, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of giving expression to the sentiment that is manifesting itself among the people who believe that a grievous mistake was made by the School Board in electing Mr. C. D. Bogart superintendent of the public schools of the borough, and requesting them to his care without requiring that gentlemen to vindicate himself from the serious charge of immorality preferred against him at the last place at which he was employed in the capacity of an instructor. Every citizen who feels an interest in the public schools of the town is earnestly requested to be present. 7-29-96

The Report Confirmed. Supt. B. F. Bertelette, of the Williamsport division of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad, upon being interviewed yesterday, confirmed the report published in the HERALD a few days ago to the effect that the company had decided to use the Catawissa branch hereafter for the transportation of bituminous coal, beginning August 1st. Between eight and ten crews who have been stationed at Shamokin and Gordon will move to Catawissa. This will be a great boon for that place.

Wilkinson's New Store. The new and commodious dry goods store of L. J. Wilkinson, will be open to the public Saturday afternoon. In the evening a concert will be given by Prof. Zeitz's band. Clerks are now busy preparing for the opening, which will be on an elaborate scale.

A Hot Chase. James Elliott, with revolver in hand, chased his wife this morning and threatened to kill her. Constable Phillips arrested him and he is to be kept in the lockup until tomorrow, by which time it is expected his sanguinary spirit will have changed and he will be in condition for a hearing.

The towers of the First Presbyterian church, at the corner of Third and Mahanoy streets, are being renovated and substantial repairs will be made during the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. H. Eastman.

A new roof is to be placed on the structure, the ceiling is to be newly frescoed and the seating capacity will be rearranged. The repairs will cost several thousand dollars and will be completed about the 1st of October.

A Cave-in. A cave-in occurred during the storm last night on the Lehigh Valley railroad between the Lost Creek store and Packer No. 2 breaker. The breach was about 10 feet in diameter and 30 feet deep. It affected the east-bound track of the railroad, but repair work was promptly begun and the track was out of use only a couple of hours this morning. Mountain trains ran over the west-bound track.

Allen Dare is Fast. Referring to the trotting race at Portland, Me., on Tuesday, in which Allen Dare, of the horse owned by John A. Titman, of town, participated, yesterday's Boston Herald says: Allen Dare, the little 5-year-old gray gelding owned by J. A. Titman, of Philadelphia. In view of his two fast heats at Mystic, one of them in 2:13, there was regarded as worthy the name of rival. He was never once headed, nor was he pushed to his record.

Pay Day on Saturday. The employees of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Co., and the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., will be paid on Saturday. The employees of the Thomas Coal Company will be paid to-morrow.
