for the position, but the contest has now settled down to a fight between S. Burd Edwards, who was defeated last year for the Republican nomination for District Attorney, and B. W. Payne, who has held the position for the past two years. Edwards is opposed by Congressman Brumm and Senator Coyle and their friends, who want to retain the present chairman. Sam Losch and Jack Whitehouse favor the election of Edwards, who claims to have a sufficient number pledged to him to secure his election.

The contest is an animated one, and many of the leaders throughout the county are taking an active interest in the fight. Brumm and Coyle are for Payne because the latter

Beer Driver in Trouble

Martin Gebhart is a driver for the C. D. Kaler Brewing Company, of Mahanoy City, d he makes regular trips to Slabtown. On one of these trips it appears, from the evid-ence adduced before Squire McCormick, of that place, he made an indecent assault upon a young girl by the name of Katle Young, who is a servant at the house of Stephen Lear, upon two different occasions. evidence was conclusive of his guilt, and the 'Squire refused to accept bail. 'Squire Coyle of Mahanoy City, however, accepted bail in the sum of $500, furnished by James Mc-Ginty, for Gebhart's appearance at the next term of court.

That the perpetrators of these outrages invariably escape and succeed in eluding the efforts of escape and succeed in clothing the efforts of the officers sent out in pursuit, is to be re-gretted. Yesterday Frank Gilssinger, a farmer from Mahantongo valley, was attacked by three men, one of whom held the horse while the other two pointed revolvers at him and demanded his money. He had consider-able cash with him, but instead of handing it over he opened fire upon the men and after an exchange of shots they made a hasty retreat and the farmer proceeded on his way.
