"I AM NOT A DEMOCRAT."

On March 17, 1896, the Hon. William Jennings Bryan declared at Mount Vernon, Ill.: "I am not a Democrat."

What have Democrats to do with a man who has proclaimed that he is not a Democrat; who repeatedly boasted of his intention not to support a gold candidate or a gold platform; and who is now, after two years or more of intriguing with the Populists, the Populist candidate on a Populist platform?

It may seem like over-diffidence to object to boys jumping on the back part of wagons as long as the drivers do not object, but the frequency of accidents resulting from the practice demands that something should be done to abolish it, and thus prevent very serious mishaps, possibly fatal ones.

The figures given show the total volume of silver, including fractional coins, which were made subsidiary in 1853. The whole number of standard silver dollars coined up to 1872 was 7,623,428, from 1873 to 1891 the number was 422,824,530. And yet we are told that silver has been badly treated!

OUR Pottsville correspondent furnishes a chapter of the inside history of the Democratic county convention, and it will be read with much interest by voters of both parties. "Box," as he signs himself, is in a position to know what he is talking about, and whatever he says can be relied upon.

The Harrisburg News did itself proud in issuing a mammoth edition of twenty-eight pages. It contains valuable information of the capital of the state, and at the same time does much credit to the enterprising publishers. The News has become one of the leading dailies of that city in the space of one year.

J. HARRY JAMES, editor of the Ashland Local, occupied a seat in the press box at the Bryan anti-furcation meeting in New York. He informs a reporter that the Boy Orator is a very much overrated man, and that he resembles a man in Smoky Hollow. We may now expect to see the local firing shot into the Bryan camp from our friend Harry.

ON the same day that Bryan made his now memorable failure between New York, at Sherrill, William McKinley delivered a patriotic and able address to his old comrades. How different the two men view the silver question can be seen by the following quotation from McKinley's address: "I do not know what you think about it, but I believe that it is a good deal better to open up the 'mill' of the United States to the labor of American people than to open up the mine of the United States to the silver of the world."

The water superintendent has given sufficient warning to all consumers of water who are delinquent in their rents, and if the latter experience any inconvenience because the water is shut off, they will have only themselves to blame. The ordinance requires the water rents to be paid in advance, but the delinquents have been given thirty days notice to pay up. If it is not done at the expiration of that time, which is near at hand, the water will be shut off all delinquents.

We have no such thing as gold monome talion in this country and never have, and nobody proposes to establish it. We have today nearly $900,000,000 of gold. That is almost bimetallic. It is not proposed to demote silver, but simply to maintain the highest standard of value accepted by this country since its foundation, and accepted by all the civilized nations of the world with which we deal, and where we must maintain our credit. The free silver coin proposes silver monometallism, which would reduce our government to the level of the semi-civilized and pagan countries of the world.

As important case was decided by Judge Kinnypacker, at Philadelphia, this week, that is of particular interest to installment dealers. A man purchased a piano on the installment plan, with a promise to pay $5 per month, and the following day he sold the same piano to another party. He was arrested on the charge of larceny as bailed, and pleaded guilty. The judge told the accused that he made a mistake in pleading, adding that "a man may purchase a piano or any other article on the installment plan, and when he does so he gets the title to the property, and can do as he pleases with it."

The following extraordinary offer appeared in the Indianapolis Commercial Tribune of a few days ago. It is signed by John Egan, a wealthy Democrat of that city, whose ability to "put up" the money is vouched for: "I am (and have been for thirty years) a Democrat; but will now be $20,000 to $10,000 that McKinley will get every one of the Northern and Western States, I will bet $10,000 to $5,000 that McKinley will take Indiana by 60,000. I will bet $500 to $500 that McKinley will get seven of the Southern States. I will bet $30,000 to $10,000 that McKinley will be elected, and I will make a bet of $5,000 to $2,000 that Bryan won't get as large a vote as Greeley. These will hold good until Sept. 1."

In the present state of the public over-national politics the case of Mr. David Martin, of Philadelphia, is not exciting the interest it otherwise would. It will be remembered that the councils of Philadelphia held winter as to how a telephone company was granted valuable privileges, but as the witnesses of importance were out of reach it was a fiasco. Recently the Andrews investigating committee probed the same case and brought out the fact that Martin had received large blocks of stock in the company, and that he had been in consultation with the witnesses wanted by the councils investigating committee the day before he appeared to testify and deny all connection with the affair. These witnesses were at Trenton, N. J., at the time and it looks very much as if Martin kept them out of the way purposely. This testimony created a sensation which was not lessened any when Martin denounced it as perjury, and offered to go before the committee to testify, and asked that he be given the opportunity to do so. When the committee acceded to his request, Mr. Martin refused to testify unless he were permitted to have counsel, presumably to protect him. As innocent people don't need counsel to protect them Mr. Martin has placed himself in the position of having played a game of bluff and failed. This is the man who rules the councils of Philadelphia, and without whose sanction nothing is permitted to pass that body. Truly, the Quaker city is ruled by a dandy boss.

Tried to Lynch Their Employer. BELLEVILLE, Pa., Aug. 13.—David Thompson, of Cross Forks, narrowly escaped being lynched at the hands of his employees because he failed to pay them back wages. Thompson is a contractor, and employs a large force of men in the woods. He had not paid them off for some time, and they were getting desperate. He promised them the money on Thursday, but when the men went to get it the employer could not be found. They finally captured him, took him into the woods and strung him up to the limb of a tree. A foreman of Thompson's reached the spot at this time, and at the point of a rifle compelled the men to release him. Thompson, when taken down was unconscious, and the shock has affected him so much that his recovery is doubtful.

Constable Mobbed by Strikers. NEWCASTLE, Pa., Aug. 13.—The situation among the striking Italian quarrymen continues to be very ugly. Constable J. A. Andrews narrowly escaped being killed by them on Thursday. Andrews, in company with Policeman Reiser, went to Carbon with warrants for the arrest of some of the worst men. They had arrested two of them and Reiser had them in charge, while Andrews went after a third. While doing this he was mobbed by the mob. They would in all probability have killed him, but for the arrival of reinforcements. Andrews has three fingers ribs and is otherwise badly bruised.

Lyness Released on Bail. WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Aug. 13.—Farmington Lyness, who killed George Patterson two weeks ago in Potter county, has been released on bail after a hearing on a writ of habeas corpus. Lyness' wife, who is a remarkably bright and handsome woman, testified that the murdered man had been in her room, while on previous occasions she also said that Patterson's anti-mortem statement was false.

They Will Wed. Marriage licenses were this morning issued at Pottsville to George T. Brown and Minnie Schwartz, both of Wayne township. Michael J. Gibbons and Catherine Quinn, both of Shenandoah. Thomas Sengalla and Louisa Waaganskite, both of Shenandoah. Frederick Scholze and Annie Bachman, both of Ashland. William Miller and Sadie Nense, both of Ashland.

The Defender Home Company No. 3, of Turkey Run, is holding a picnic at Columbia Park today and the affair should be well patronized by our citizens, as the company is trying to raise funds with which to erect a building. There was a parade this morning before the picnic opened in which the company and delegations from the Columbia and Resene companies and the Turkey Run band took part.

They All Come Back To Hood's Sarsaparilla. "There are fads in medicine as well as in other things," said a busy druggist, "but the most remarkable thing about Hood's Sarsaparilla is that customers who try other remedies all come back to Hood's, and this is why the enormous sales of this great medicine keep up and continue the whole year round, steady as a clock. "Why is it?" "O, simply because Hood's Sarsaparilla has more real curative merit than any medicine I ever sold." This is of daily occurrence in almost every drug store. Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured more sickness, and made more happiness through restoration to health than any other medicine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the standard - the One True Blood Purifier. are the only pills to take Hood's Pills with Hood's Sarsaparilla. BROMO-KOLA ALCOHOLIC, NERVOUS AND BILIOUS HEADACHES. Carmel, Lehighton, Mauch Chunk and other points. It is expected there will be three thousand men, five bands and numerous drum corps in line, and great preparations are being made for their entertainment. The annual convention of the American Demonstration Association, under whose auspices the demonstration is held, will convene in Citizens' Hall at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Work of Foot Pads. The holding up of individuals by foot pads has struck this town. Last evening as James Corrigan, of West Coal street, was passing out West street towards Coal, with a newly purchased pair of shoes under his arm, he was suddenly confronted by two men at Raspberry alley, who demanded the package. Corrigan at first did not accede to the demand, but was compelled to, as he was set upon by the men, one holding him while the other took the booty. He has no clue to the highwaymen. It occurred at 9 o'clock last evening. Saved His Daughter. Another instance where Thompson's Diphtheria Cure was the means of saving life comes from Charles Karlicher, of South Williamsport, Pa., who says: "Several months ago my daughter was taken with a severe case of diphtheria. Our physician did all he could until she became so weak that he had to give her up. I used Thompson's Diphtheria Cure and she recovered. I credit her recovery to this excellent remedy, and words fail to express my appreciation of the medicine." Sold at Kirlin's drug store at 50 cents a bottle.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Leader Schoenfeld, of the striking tailors, said today that there was a scheme on foot for an early settlement of the strike, but refused to give the details out. All of the contractors in their line of trade have signed the new agreement. Hanna Awaiting Chairman Jones' Decision. CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Chairman Marcus A. Hanna left Chicago this afternoon for Cleveland, where he will spend Sunday. He may go to New York on Wednesday, making a hurried visit before returning to this city. The Republican leaders at the headquarters are anxious to know whether Senator Jones means to bring the Democratic national committee to Chicago and establish an office here. The Democrats think he will eventually decide that Chicago is the best place to direct the battle. As soon as the question is settled the Republican managers will plan the remainder of their campaign accordingly.

BLOODSHED IN CLEVELAND. Three Men Shot in a Fight Between Strikers and Non-Unionists. CLEVELAND, Aug. 15.—Three men were shot and one badly wounded in a conflict which occurred last evening between a party of the Brown company strikers and several non-union men who were going home from the works. Two of the wounded men are non-unionists, the third is a striker and the fourth a spectator. The names of the injured are: J. W. Caldwell, non-union, shot in the thigh and struck on the head with a billy; George Plumb, non-union, shot through the abdomen, will probably recover; Thomas Evans, a striker, shot in the back, badly hurt and may die; William Laury, a bystander, struck in the face with a telegraph insulator and badly hurt. The trouble occurred nearly two miles from the works, at the corner of Wade Park and East Madison avenue. A number of the non-unionists live in that vicinity, and eight or ten of them were going home from the works together. Just as they turned the corner a crowd of strikers who had been in hiding behind a saloon attacked them. Stones were hurled, and George Plumb, one of the non-unionists, pulled a revolver and fired. Plumb was then shot, as he claims, by Henry Snell, a striker. The firing became general, at least twenty shots having been exchanged. The fight lasted only a few minutes, and as soon as it was over the strikers disappeared. The police had not anticipated any trouble in that section, and it was some time before they arrived on the scene and began an investigation. Ambulances took the injured men to hospitals or their homes. The police have arrested J. H. Whittlan, a striking machinist, formerly employed by the Brown company. He was seen to throw a revolver, all the cartridges in which had been fired, through an open door into a lumber shop. The Brown company strike has been extended to Pittsburg. The strikers learned a few days ago that the Schaff Foundry and Machine company, of Pittsburg, was doing work for the Brown company and sent a representative there. He sent back word yesterday that he would probably succeed in getting the patternmakers, machinists and iron molders of the Schaff company to strike. Old People. WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Commander Melville commented on the above cable as follows: "It seems a most extraordinary condition of affairs that the two principal officers of the Fram should have been found so far away from their ship and separated from the other members of the ship's company. The meeting of Nansen and Jackson is to be considered an extremely apt one for the former. If his chronometer and watch had stopped he had lost his reckoning, and without doubt would have perished had he not met Jackson. It is extraordinary that nothing is said definitely of the whereabouts of the Fram beyond the fact that she was abandoned in 84 degrees north latitude."
