CHAS. A. DANA TO DEMOCRATS

The Venerable Editor Refuses to Encourage Anarchy.

CANNOT SUPPORT THE 'BOY ORATOR'

He Advises All Voters of His Party to Vote For the McKinley Electors in the Present Grave Crists-The Supreme Duty of the Hour.

The venerable Charles A. Dana, the dis-tinguished editor of the New York Sun, refuses now, when socialism and anarchy threaten the welfare of the people, to support the so called Democratic party, precisely as in 1861 he refused to support it when it threatened the solidarity of the Union. He then became a war Democrat; was appointed by President Lincoln assistant secretary of war, in which position he rendered inestimably valuable service to the country. Now he is an honest, sound money Democrat, and as such, himself the staunchest of Democrats, advises all voters of his party to vote for the McKinley electors. The following, which appears as a signed editorial in the New York Sun, speaks for itself:

Some personal response seems to be due to the numerous friends who have sought from me an expression of my individual opinion as to the duty in the present political campaign of those who adhere the principles which hitherto have characterized the Democratic party.

The declaration of notions adopted in the name of the Democracy by the Chicago convention is for the most part so hostile to the doctrines which have prevailed in the Democratic party in the past, as to denand its rejection by all those who would not abandon the Democracy's essential ideas and best traditions.

The Chicago platform invites us to establish a currency which will enable a man to pay his debts with half as much property as he would have to use in order to pay them now. This proposition is dishonest. I do not say that all the advocates of the free coinage of silver are dishonest. Thousands of them, millions, if there be so many, are doubtless honest in with any ideal of integrity a change in the law which will permit a man who has borrowed a hundred dollars to pay his debt with a hundred dollars, each one of which is worth only half as much as each dollar he received from the lender.

The Chicago platform sanctions the use of the appointing power of the president in such a way as to control the federal judiciary in deciding questions of constitutional law. It contemplates a change in the personnel of the supreme court of the United States, to the end that the re-cent decision declaring the income tax unconstitutional may be reversed. Strange times, indeed, are these, when a man is told that, in order to be a Democrat, he must favor the imposition of an incomtax and the destruction of the independence of the judiciary!

Still more alarming is the clearly implied approval of lawless violence tained in the denunciation of what is denominated in the platform "govern-ment by injunction." Veiled in the laninjunctions, are enough to demand its rejection by all good citizens and the defeat of the candidates who stand upon it.

I regret exceedingly to find a disposition quite prevalent to array the west against the east in the discussion of these matters I see no occasion for making our differ-ences sectional. Here there is no political hostility toward the west, such as is as-pressed toward the east by some western newspapers and public speakers. Good citizens can perhaps best aid the cause of honest money and law and order by devoting more time to rational argument and less to inefficient abuse.

All questions relating to the tariff have some insignificant for the time being, in view of the possibility, however slight, that the abhorrent principles of the Chicago platform may prevail. The duty and the necessity to compass the final overthrow of that platform by assisting in th defeat of William J. Bryan are most in perative and solemn. This may most fertainly be accomplished by voting for lectors pledged to the support of W McKinley, but I have no quarrel w Democrat who adopts any other which seems to him equally well or better adapted to the same end

SHERMAN AND FORAKER

Columbus, Aug. 17.—The opening meeting of the Republican state campaign, which was held in this city on Saturday. was a great success in point of numbers and enthusiasm. The crowd of strangers in the city was variously estimated at from 15,000 to 20,000.

From 9 o'clock in the morning up until I o'clock, the hour of the meeting, the streets were filled with bands of music led marching delegations.

The meeting was held in a large tent on East Broad street, and when Governor Bushnell, as presiding officer, called the vast assemblage to order there were 19,000 people there. The heat was intense, and were several prostrations, but no an ovation. That extended to Senatorelect Foraker, who followed him was squally cordial and enthusiastic General Steward L. Woodford, of New York, also spoke, and replied in part to William J. Bryan's speech of acceptance, which he heard in New York. General Woodford was greeted with an immense andience at the night meeting, when he delivered another speech, and as he represented the views of the east on the financial question he was given the closest attention. Lieutenant Governor Jones presided at the night meeting.

Stein, who found that Lavondriskle had eleven cuts on the head and his chest and shoulders were badly bruised. The injuries were caused by blows from the trace chain that Krutuskie wielded At midnight Saturday Policemen Lee and Stanton and Constable Gibton were called to the cast end of Centre street to quell a dis-turbance in which five Hungarians and an equal number of men of mixed nationalities novice race was won by Fred. Gill, of Maha-fought. When the officers reached the scene noy City, in 2:331-5, the prize being a dress the fight was in full blast and five or six shots were fired by the Huna. The efficers fired an equal number of shots in the air, which had the effect of taming the Huna semewhat and they were made prisoners. None of the shots hit anybody. The Hungarians were arrainged before Justice Lawlor. They gave the names of Mike Fowluskis, Steve Wautan, Thomas Ploweins. Thomas Plausick and Malianov City, the third, a sweater; and bicycle shoes.

In my opinion, without reviewing the Chicago platform further, the declarations in regard to the currency, the supreme court, and the income tax, and the repression of forcible lawlessness by the aid of heave his dinner can and conferences the can be returned a Lithuanian had upset the can and senttered the contents. "Why did you and senttered the conductor. "Seat for LEDGERS, SINGLE AND DOUBLE ELTRY, do that?" asked the conductor. "Seat for people to sit; no place for can," was the Lithuanian's answer and Gillespie was so much provoked by the spoiling of his dinner as well as the offender's impudence that he momentarily forgot himself and struck the Lithuanian in the mouth. The latter has since applied to Justice Lawlor for a warrant for Gillespie's arrest and it is said the case will come up to night. People who were on the car are in full sympathy with the con-ductor and say that the Lithuanian was the real effender, as he was the only occupant of the scat on which the conductor temporarily left the dinner can and there was no occasion for his act. The case led to an exaggerated report in which the conductor was alleged to have beaten an unoffending passenger.
