REPUBLICAN NATIONAL TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF Ohio.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
GABRIEL A. HOHARI,
OF New Jersey.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR AND ATTORNEY GENERAL,
GARISHA A. GROW,
OF Shenandoah.
FOR COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE,
SAMUEL A. DAVENPORT,
OF Erie.

The latest reports from the seat of war state that "Hurdie" Edwards is still chairman.

Our Potomac correspondent furnishes an interesting letter to-day, bearing on the war of extermination inaugurated by one or two of the defunct factions. "Lex" apparently knows what he is talking about, and his suggestion that this factional fight is inopportune and should cease at once, will meet with the hearty approval of all Republicans, with the probable exception of those who are seeking the "bones and fishes."

WHATEVER dollars we have in this country must be good dollars, as good in the hands of the poor as the rich equal dollars—equal in inherent merit, equal in purchasing power, whether they be paper dollars or gold dollars or silver dollars or Treasury notes; each convertible into the other and each exchangeable for the other, because each is based upon equal value and has behind it equal security; good, not by the fiat of law alone, but good because the whole commercial world recognizes their inherent and inextinguishable value.—William McKinley.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN is a candidate for President, and besides being committed to the free and unlimited exchange of silver, also favors "free" coal, taking away all protection from over 300,000 coal miners and other laborers working at American mines. This policy may be "to the Queen's taste," but will meet with cold reception in the coal regions of this and other states. The British miners would be only too glad of the chance to put in a full week's work in supplying the American market with "free" coal. They care as little about the miners here as Mr. Bryan does.

THIS is a campaign of education, says the New York Advertiser. All parties to the controversy unite upon this proposition. And the letter of Major McKinley, of Ohio, formally accepting the nomination of the Republican party to the office of President of the United States, is in itself a liberal education. It presents the issues of the campaign—especially those of the currency and the tariff—in clear, concise, vigorous phraseology, perfectly intelligible to the least uneducated voter who can read the English language. There are in it no attempts at phrase-making, no flights of fancy, no essays into the realm of rhetoric. It is a plain, every-day, honest production—like the sturdy American who penned it. As a piece of campaign literature it is a gem of the first water, and Chairman Hanna should see to it that this letter of acceptance gets immediately into printed form by the millions, so that the masses in every state of the Union shall have the benefit of it before election day. Referring to free silver and free trade Major McKinley says: "One must be averted; the other corrected." This is a good slogan for the campaign. Let every Republican take up the cry, and let it echo and re-echo from ocean to ocean from now until November.

BABY POLITICS.
From a careful perusal of our county seat letter in another part of today's HERALD, it will be found that at least one or two of the candidates are playing a great game of baby politics—and believe that it will be a losing one.

The county chairman has been selected and his secretary and clerks named in accordance with the party rules. The members of the executive committee have been chosen by Chairman Edwards upon the recommendation of the candidates, and all preliminaries of the campaign are now complete.

While the selections may not be acceptable to all, nevertheless they are apparently the choice of the majority of those having the power of appointment, and all should acquiesce in the rule of the majority. Personal grievances should be put aside for the success of the ticket, which is an exceptionally strong one and commends itself to the voters of the county. Every man upon the ticket, from Congressman to Poor Director, is worthy the support of the taxpayers of the county; they have been chosen in an open and square fight, as the standard-bearers of the Republican party in this county, and as such are justly entitled to receive the united support of the party.

The one thing to be desired in this campaign, from a party standpoint, is Republican success. In the words of Mark Hanna, the thing to do is to elect McKinley, and we might add the Republican county ticket along with him. The campaign this fall is no important one. It is a presidential year and a member of Congress is to be elected from this district, who should be in accord with McKinley on the financial and tariff issues. Besides, members of the Legislature are to be chosen, to say nothing of the important county officials whose terms expire.

If these offices are to be controlled by Republicans the county chairman must be given the proper support. He and his execu-

LIVER CLOGGING.
LIVER SEE TO YOUR DIGESTION.
Not one person in a thousand knows that the cause of biliousness is the clogging of the liver by the poisons of indigestion. Not that the only proper cure for it is a tonic to aid the stomach.

But modern medicine declares the truth of it. And the Shakers have proved it by the wonderful success of their Shaker Digestive Cordial.

One of the most important uses of the liver is to arrest and destroy all poisons which try to find their way into the blood. When it is clogged, it can't do this.

Undigested food ferments and putrefies in the stomach, and the poisons of putrefaction clog and paralyze the liver, after which they find their way into the blood.

Here is the true explanation of all the distressing disorders and complications caused by indigestion. Shaker Digestive Cordial is the only tonic cordial which aids the stomach in a natural way to digest its food. By this means, it cures indigestion, restores the liver, and frees the blood from poison and disease.

Headache, weakness, nervousness, mental depression, weakness, bad taste, fever, flatulence, constipation, loss of appetite, anæmia, rheumatism, and many other disorders are relieved and cured by Shaker Digestive Cordial.

HARRISON ON MONEY.
Addresses a Great Crowd at Carnegie Hall, New York.
"ON REPUBLICAN RETIRED LIST."

He Says the Republican Party Fronts the Destructionists and Trumpets Its Defiance to the Enemies of Sound Money.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Ex-President Harrison, acting as the eastern proxy of the Republican candidate last night, and struck the keynote of the election campaign in a speech to 5,000 people. Half as many people as composed the audience were denied admittance because of lack of room.

The enthusiasm was tremendous and the many points of the speech were received with hearty applause. The audience was a distinguished one, and from the early hour when they cheered the band's interpretation of "America" displayed their patriotism in every possible way.

The decorations of the Auditorium were entirely of the American colors. Flags were in many hands. Pictures of the Republican national candidate adorned the sides of the proscenium arches, which were festooned with silk linting. The lower tier of boxes was gay with beautifully dressed women and men in evening attire. Mrs. Harrison occupied one of the boxes with the family of Mr. Channey M. Depew.

There was a vocal solo, "Marching Through Georgia," then Channey M. Depew stepped to the front of the platform. When the hearty applause had subsided Dr. Depew, as chairman, addressed the meeting. When Mr. Depew sat down General Harrison stepped to the front. He was in evening dress in contrast to Dr. Depew, who was in a frock coat, and as he waited for the enthusiastic cheering to subside, looked in very good health.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I am on the Republican retired list not by reason of any age limit nor by the plea of any convention, but that the younger men might have a chance and that I might have a rest. But I am not a seceder, or disappointed or bedridden citizen. My interest in my country did not cease when my last salary check was cashed.

I hoped to add to the relief from official duties retirement from the arena of political debate. But the gentleman having in charge this campaign deemed to think that I might in some way advance the interests of those principles which are not less dear to me than they are to you by making here, in this great city, a public address. I thought they greatly magnified the importance of anything I could say, but I could not quite content myself to subordinate what others thought to be a public duty to my private convenience.

I am here tonight not to make a keynote speech, but only to express my personal views, for which no one else will be in any measure responsible, for this speech has not been submitted to the judgment of any one until now. I shall speak, my fellow citizens, as a Republican, but with perfect respect to those who hold differing opinions. Indeed, I have never had so much respect for so many Democrats as I have now.

That party has once more exhibited its capacity to be captured, and a party that cannot be split is a public menace. When the leaders of a party assembled in convention depart from its traditional principle and advocate doctrines that threaten the integrity of the government the social order of our communities and the security and soundness of our finances it ought to split, and it dignifies itself when it does split.

A bolt from any party is now and then a most reassuring incident and was no exception this evening. I shall speak, my fellow citizens, as a Republican, but with perfect respect to those who hold differing opinions. Indeed, I have never had so much respect for so many Democrats as I have now.

THE CUBAN REBELLION.
MAYNARD, Aug. 25.—The Epean says that, in consequence of the adoption by the chamber yesterday of the bills providing for the forming of the tobacco monopoly and the leasing of the Almaden silver mines, the government has sufficient resources with which to continue the prosecution of the campaign against the insurgents in Cuba. Therefore the raising of a loan has been postponed.

A Day Train Wrecked.
WELCH, W. Va., Aug. 25.—At Danlow the passenger train on the Norfolk and Western railroad ran into a fast freight at a curve, completely wrecking the passenger train and the engine and seven cars of the freight. Vernon, Bennett of the passenger train, was fatally hurt, and Floyd Turner, engineer of the freight train, may not recover. All traffic was delayed six hours.

Prohibition Candidate's Tour.
HEATON, Aug. 25.—Joshua Lovinger, prohibition candidate for president, will leave Baltimore early next month for an extended campaign tour through the entire country. He will visit the New England states first, and after speaking in all the principal towns there, he will go west.

Steel Mill Shuts Down.
CINCINNATI, Aug. 25.—Workmen employed in the Illinois Steel company's plant at Hammond, Ind., have been informed that the furnace fires will be drawn tomorrow, when the concern will close for an indefinite period. This will throw 400 men out of employment.

Fusion in Ohio Assured.
COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 25.—The Populist state convention at Springfield decided to accept the terms of fusion offered by the Democrats, and fusion on both the state and electoral tickets in this state is now assured.

Ministers Should Use Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

There is no profession, whose labor so severely tax the nervous system, as that of the ministry. The over-arrangement of the nerve centers of the brain by over work, frequently brings on attacks of heart trouble, and nervous prostration. Rev. J. P. Kestor, M. D., Pastor U. B. Church, London Mills, Ill., himself a physician, writes Feb. 25, 1895: "Heart affection and nervous prostration had become so serious last fall that a little over work in the pulpit would so completely prostrate me that it seemed certain I must relinquish the work of the ministry entirely. Heart palpitation became so bad that my auditors would ask me if I did not have heart disease. Last November I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure alternately with Dr. Miles' Nerve and derived the greatest possible benefit. I have just closed revival work of 30 weeks, preaching nearly every night and twice on the Sabbath. I can speak for hours without suffering as I formerly did. Hard working ministers should keep Dr. Miles' grand remedies on hand."

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on guarantee, first bottle will benefit or money refunded.
