NECROLOGY.

John G. Davis, a Venerable Citizen, Called to His Rest.

Many residents of the town will regret to learn of the death of John G. Davis, an old and highly respected citizen. He died last evening at his home on South West street, aged 87 years, after suffering a week from pneumonia. The deceased was a man who commanded the esteem of all with whom he came in contact and had the reputation of being one of the best read men in the county. He was also an experienced traveler and in social intercourse his general knowledge commended admiration. Mr. Davis was brought to this country from South Wales, G. B., when two years of age by his parents who located in Minersville. In 1871 he came to Shenandoah and became a coal operator. He had a small colliery on the western outskirts of the town and prepared for some time, but, with many others, went down in the financial crash of 1875. Mr. Davis served two terms of three years as a member of the local School Board, several years on the public library committee, and was also a prominent local secret society man, having been a charter member and Past Master of the Masonic Lodge and Shenandoah Lodge No. 593, I. O. O. F. In his travels during his early years Mr. Davis traveled through California, British Columbia, Nova Scotia, South Sea Islands and Australia. He was carried to California by the gold fever of '49 and devoted 10 years to gold mining in California, Nevada, British Columbia and Australia. The deceased is survived by his wife and three step-sons, Arthur, John and School Director William T. Trezise, and also by a brother, Ebenezer Davis, of Pittsburgh, and a sister, Mrs. Sarah Mathevar, of Durysa, Pa. The arrangements for the funeral will be announced tomorrow.

MAHANOY CITY MELANGE.

Two Poles Brutally Maltreated a Little Boy on the Street.

Special to EVENING HERALD.
MAHANOY CITY, Aug. 31.—Gustave Buch, 13-years-old and residing on West Mahanoy Avenue, was rolling a hoop last evening on South alley when a Pole named Mike Kinick tripped him up. Before the boy fell another Pole, named Alex. Seven, stepped up and kicked the boy on the temple. The victim was attended to by Dr. Bissell. The Poles were arrested and are held to await the result of the injuries. It is not thought they will prove fatal. A report got abroad that the boy had been murdered and created much excitement. The public schools of this borough reopened this morning. There are 142 pupils in the High school, an unusually large attendance. The enrollments in the other schools are fair. Two Poles on their way to Shenandoah were ejected from a Lakeside Railway car by Conductor James last night for refusing to pay fare and using foul language.

Edward, son of John Jenkins, of 200 North Union street, died, on Saturday evening at the home of his parents, aged 49 years, 9 months and 6 days. He succumbed to typhoid fever and, although a young man of good physique and habits, fell an easy victim to the disease. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock. The deceased was a brother of John D. Jenkins, the haritone singer, who played an engagement at Tumbling Run last week. Harry, a 23-year-old brother, is now suffering from the fever.

FENNELL.

John Norman, 4-months-old son of John and Ada Fennell, of Camden, N. J., died last evening from marasmus at the residence of the grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson, 218 North Main street. The funeral will take place on Wednesday, at 2 p. m.

Mand, wife of Samuel S. Steinbach, died yesterday morning at her home in Lost Creek from typhoid pneumonia, after an illness of one week. The deceased was 32 years of age and is survived by her husband and a son six weeks old. The funeral will take place on Wednesday, leaving Lost Creek for Pottsville at the 12:45 p. m. Lehigh train. Interment will be made in the Clares Barber cemetery at Pottsville. Mrs. Steinbach was a grand-daughter of Col. D. P. Brown, Superintendent for the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Company, and daughter of A. D. Brown, an official under the same company. In November 1894, she was united in marriage to Samuel S. Steinbach, an engineer on the Lehigh Valley civil engineering corps and the couple were living happily in a handsomely furnished home at Lost Creek. Mrs. Steinbach was a favorite in many circles and her death is deeply regretted.

Fortunate Occurrence.

While the Harvest Home services were in progress in the Trinity Reformed church last evening the incandescent lights suddenly went out, leaving the congregation in darkness until oil lamps could be procured. It was explained by the officials of the electric light company this morning that the occurrence was due to a short circuit in the church brought about by changing the location of the lights in making the decorations.

Ten Started and Five Finished.

Ten Pottsville and Mahanoy City wheelmen participated in a century run yesterday, from Pottsville to Reading via Hamburg, to Lebanon, via Womelsdorf, to Pinegrove and home, about 108 miles. They covered the distance in about fifteen hours, allowing deductions for meals, sightseeing and accidents. There were only five who finished without accident to their bikes.

Harvest Home.

The interior of the Trinity Reformed church presented a splendid appearance last evening, the chancel and altar being elaborately decorated with fruits, flowers and grain of the season in commemoration of Harvest Home services. A sparkling fountain in full play and a realistic miniature water mill scene were striking features in the midst of the decorations. A small stream of water kept the wheel of the mill in operation. Rev. Robert O'Boyle, the pastor, preached an excellent harvest sermon.

REGISTRATION OF VOTERS.

State Chairman Elkin Sends a Reminder to County Chairmen.

State Chairman Elkin has sent a letter to the chairmen of the various county committees calling attention to the necessity of looking after the registration of voters. Under sections 9 and 3 of the registration act of 1885 it is the duty of the assessor of each district to be present at the election house during two secular days before the Tuesday next following the first Monday in November. Under this arrangement the registration this year will fall upon Tuesday and Wednesday, the first and second days of September, from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. and from 6 p. m. to 9 p. m. The assessor will sit during this time for the purpose of hearing and acting upon applications to be made, or relating to names upon the original registry list or are sought to be placed thereon or struck therefrom as provided in the act. The list thus revised is to be returned to the county commissioners on Sept. 2. The completion and correction of the registry list is one of the most important preliminaries to the general election. With co-operation on the part of the chairmen and the voters, this important detail will be given proper attention.

Killed by a Fellow Lunatic.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 31.—Samuel Wallace, an insane patient at the Dixmont Insane asylum, died at 3 o'clock in the morning in the hospital department from the effects of an assault made during a murderous frenzy by a fellow insane patient, Harry Heimbach. The killing was done with a tin utensil, Wallace having been beaten to death. Nothing was done to the slayer, he being an imbecile. A little stricter watch is kept on him than before. The dead man was 62 years old, and was a charity patient from Butler, Pa. He was a married man, having a wife and family at Butler.

Big Office Building Damaged by Fire.

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 31.—The six story Coal Exchange office building, the exchange office and the retail stores underneath were damaged by fire yesterday morning, causing $150,000 worth of damage. The fire started in the elevator shaft from some unknown origin and burned savagely for four hours. The building was erected in 1885 at a cost of $100,000, and was the first large office structure in Scranton. Its front and other walls are unharmed, but the upper floors and roof are practically ruined.

Knocked Out in Six Rounds.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 31.—"Jimmy" Ryan, of Cincinnati, after conceding eight pounds in weight to "Paddy" Purcell, of Kansas City, was knocked out by Purcell in the sixth round yesterday afternoon. The battle occurred just across the Kansas line, at a point twenty miles south-west of this city. The men had signed to fight to a finish in waterside weight. Ryan weighed in at 145, but Purcell was eight pounds over.

It is given out by the free silverites that Senator Tillman will again speak in Pennsylvania, from September 10th to the 20th. He will address meetings at Shamokin, Hazleton, Wilkesbarre and Carbondale, in the coal region, and will invade the "enemy's country" further and speak at Philadelphia. It is unfortunate for the Republicans that the Senator cannot be induced to again visit this country. While we cannot have Tillman with us always we still have Wilhelm, who is booked to speak at St. Nicholas tomorrow evening.

A case of much interest to the people of this and other boroughs has just been brought to public attention in Reading, where the first attempt to enforce the payment of taxes by imprisonment for many years in Berks county has taken place.
