PROPERTY AND INDUSTRY.

Property is the fruit of labor. Property is desirable, it is a positive good in the world. That some should be rich shows that others may become rich, and hence is encouragement to industry and enterprise. Let no man who is homeless pull down the house of another, but let him work diligently and build one for himself, thus, by example, assuring that his own shall be safe from violence when it is built.—ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

If this thing keeps up Chairman Edwards will be "as big a man as Old Grant."

WOMEN in Japan are denied the privilege of riding the bicycle, the medical authorities of that country being opposed to the use of the wheel.

It is said Congressman Brannan will spring several surprises at to-night's public meeting in Pottsville.

It is the duty of every Republican to help Chairman Edwards pile up a big majority in Schuylkill county.

In Mexico, where the people enjoy the "blessings" of freer soil, the condition of the laborer is little worse than was that of the slaves in the Southern States before the war.

EDITOR ELLIOTT has signified his return home from "Bryan's country" by an editorial on the political complexion of that country. In some parts of it, he tells the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

A YOUNG postmistress in Indiana—she is said to be pretty, too—has been arrested for opening and reading love letters which passed through her hands. This recalls the case of a postmistress in a town not far away who asked for an increase in salary when postal cards were introduced, on the ground that her duties were greatly increased since she had to read all the postal cards in addition to her other duties.

LEHIGH CHURCH is daily old chap. When introduced to a lot of military men at New York he rather puzzled some of them with the inquiry, "How did you all become generals?" It is fortunate his itinerary does not take him through Kentucky as it would certainly puzzle him to know where all the colonels came from. Even Major Finney is busy searching the archives of the said old Journal office, for his war record to substantiate his title.

GENERAL DANIEL SICKLES, the old Democrat who fought for Hill's nomination four years ago, is not sitting on the fence with Hill now, says the Chicago Inter-Ocean. Sickles is a soldier, and always fights on one side or the other, and now he is fighting for McKinley. At the commencement of the Union veterans at Binghamton, N. Y., the other day, he made a speech in which he said: "As a war Democrat, I helped you to fight out thirty years ago. Now I am with you for another campaign."

THE election in Vermont today, the result of which will have some bearing on the Presidential election, is being watched with much interest by political prognosticators. The state is Republican, and for the past five Presidential elections has returned an average Republican majority of 23,219. In 1892, however, the majority was but 17,706. The state has an agricultural and manufacturing one—not great in population, but of the character that will spend an accurate index as to just how the Eastern farmer and his neighbor, the artisan, view the national situation. The Democrats should be willing to concede it a fair state for a test, for the reason that naturally in a state so convincingly Republican collecting personal ambitions almost necessarily create some schisms, and also because their gubernatorial candidate, Dr. Jackson, came out unequivocally on Thursday last for free silver, thus making the issue a direct one.

TASKS are about 250 persons in New York who are confidently expecting to perform on Wednesday an enormous feat that will put to blush the wildest imaginings of Jules Verne. Heaven is their goal, and a wayside stop of a thousand years at the North Pole is all that intervenes. This belief is gravely discussed and mathematically proven to their own satisfaction by men of evident intelligence and profound conviction. The sect which is thus preparing for immediate translation is the Apostolic Congregation, and in view of the believed imminence of the end of the world, it held a public meeting on Sunday and sounded a warning to the blind and unbelieving. The believers are almost all Germans, mostly working people, and so real is their faith that many of them have given up their situations, and with prayer and meditation are awaiting the flight to heaven on Wednesday. Out of a multiplicity of texts from the prophets, the Gospels and Revelation, Rev. Stutz, their pastor, has made a mosaic prophecy which establishes to his own satisfaction that Christ was born and died on September 2. By a further arithmetical combination which fixes the elapsed time between God's covenant with Abraham and the coming of Christ as 1800 years, he has fixed the present date. Nearly all the followers of the faith have come out of Protestant churches, principally from the Baptist Church. Their Sabbath is Saturday; they baptize converts in running water, and only baptize adults. They live simply and read the Bible intently.

THOUSANDS AT OCEAN GROVE.

Many People of Shenandoah Mingle With the Throng.

SPECIAL TO EVENING HERALD.
OCEAN GROVE, Aug. 31.—Shenandoah is represented at the great camp meeting here by many people, among them Rev. Alfred Hebecker, Messrs. Senior, Price, Glenn and Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Bird and Misses Sallie Wasley and Jennie Boyan.
In the great corps of regular workers in the meeting are Drs. Stokes, Hanlon and Andrews, Evangelists Yarnan and Boswell, Mrs. Grace Wiser Davis, Mrs. Amanda Smith, Mrs. Lizzie Smith, and also Misses Sites and Margaret Wang of Poo Run, Chas. W. Sunday, the 30th inst., at 8:45 a. m. Dr. E. Stokes commenced the great love feast meeting. Instead of using the bread and water it was celebrated by the 6,000 people shaking hands and the waving of the same number of white handkerchiefs. Such a scene and effect is indescribable. In one hour and ten minutes over 800 persons gave testimony, beside singing, reading and praying.
At 10 a. m. Bishop Malhall commenced the regular preaching service with an attendance of 9,000. He preached one hour and twenty minutes on the reality of our Christian religion and its boundless possibilities. His arguments were matchless and such a wave of enthusiasm swept over the audience that thousands shouted for joy. Eight thousand people sprang to their feet to show how many were Christians.
At 2:30 p. m. Dr. Hanlon's bible class was attended by 7,000 students and visitors. The principal question discussed was, "Do the children of parents in Germany and England obey them in a greater degree than the children of American parents?" The sympathy of the audience was with the United States, but data proved to the contrary.
At 3 p. m. Dr. J. D. Conwell, of Philadelphia, addressed 10,000 on the subject of "Summer Resolves."
Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock, one hour and a half before the time to preach the sermon, 12,000 people packed the great auditorium. This was a magnificent sight. Rev. T. De Wit Talmage, D. D., presided an eloquent sermon. His theme was "Christian Encouragement." The effect was wonderful, as he described the past and comparatively unthought of and unknown receiving their reward in glory. The speaker was at his best and shined like a Methodist with 10,000 others. It was the greatest day of camp.

The Bicycle Races.
The entries for the bicycle races at Lake-side, on the 31st inst., are the largest of any met in this section, the number being 49, thus assuring the affair much success. The entries are as follows:

A POISONED LIVER.

DON'T KEEP POISON IN YOUR BODY LONGER THAN YOU HAVE TO.

If your stomach poisons your liver the consequences may be serious.
What poisons arise in your stomach come from undigested food which has decomposed there. They are absorbed by your blood and go to your liver, where they paralyze its functions and make you bilious.
Finally they go into the blood again and are carried all over the body, disordering your different organs, and perhaps making you dangerously sick.
This is the origin of many diseases which are not always known for what they are.
The poisons of undigested food can only be got rid of by the use of a purifying stomachic, digestive tonic, like the Shaker Digestive Cordial.

A few doses of this wonderful cordial will soon clear away all undigested, fermenting, poisonous substances, restore your appetite, aid you to digest your food, purify your liver and blood of all dangerous poisons, and restore you to perfect health.
It will cure biliousness, indigestion, nausea, headache, dizziness, mental depression, weakness, fever, flatulence, constipation, loss of appetite, bad taste in mouth, stomachache, anemia, rheumatism, etc., where other medicines will barely give relief.
At druggists. Ten cents for a trial bottle. Write for free book to The Shakers, 30 Roade Street, New York.

New York's Gold Democrats.
STRAUSE, N. Y., Sept. 1.—The convention of gold Democrats yesterday chose Daniel G. Griffin as temporary chairman and Charles S. Fairchild for permanent chairman. The following were selected as delegates-at-large to the Indianapolis convention: Roswell P. Flower of New York, Charles Tracy of Albany, George Meece of Corning and Edwin Shepard of Brooklyn. The platform bitterly assails the Chicago platform in letter and spirit, and declares that every speech delivered by Candidate Bryan is "laced with inflammatory appeals to the poor against the rich."

An Armour in an Incubator.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—The only granddaughter of Phil Armour, the millionaire pork packer, is fighting for life in an incubator. The child was born last Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. J. Ogden Armour. The little girl was so small and so delicate that it was decided instantly that she must be confined to an incubator's care. It may be necessary to keep the child in the machine for several weeks. P. D. Armour's other grandchildren are two boys, children of P. D. Armour, Jr. On the birth of the boys each was presented with $200 by the grandfather. Should the little granddaughter live she will receive at least this sum.

General Miles' Tour of Inspection.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—General Miles, commanding the army, will on Sept. 8 leave the city on an extended tour of inspection of the northwestern army posts, going first to Chicago and thence through the northwest to Puget sound, where he wishes to look at the sites selected for the sea coast defenses under the revised projects provided for in the last fortification appropriation bill. The return trip will take him into southern California, and it will probably be well along in the fall before he returns to Washington.

Marylanders Off for Indianapolis.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 1.—The Maryland delegation to the single standard Democratic convention at Indianapolis left here at 2:40 yesterday afternoon on a special car attached to the Cincinnati and St. Louis express, going over the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern. The delegation had not decided whom it would support for the presidential nomination, and when asked whether they favored a third ticket in this state the answer was invariably "we have not yet made up our minds."

Denver Accident to an Aeronaut.

DENVER, Sept. 1.—Ivy Baldwin, the well known balloonist, was seriously hurt by falling from his balloon Sunday evening. Baldwin has been making weekly ascensions and parachute jumps in this city. The wire carrying him into a tree. His arm was broken and he could not retain his hold on the bar. He fell about eighty feet. His right arm was broken in two places, his shoulder dislocated, and he was badly bruised about the head. It is believed that he will recover.

Killed by Exploding Dynamite.
CHESTER, Pa., Sept. 1.—An explosion of dynamite on a barge at Schooner Ledge, in the Delaware river, killed George Jones, of South Saltsville, Mich., and seriously injured Sydney Neff, of Detroit, and Owen Finlin, of Camden, N. J. The detonation of a charge which had been exploded under water caused a package of dynamite in Jones' hand to explode. One of his arms was blown off and his body was horribly lacerated. Neff was cut and bruised so badly that he may die.

Dashed Down Pike's Peak.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Sept. 1.—An engine with one car filled with passengers was coming down the cog railway from Pike's Peak yesterday a connecting rod broke and the engine dashed down the incline at a terrific pace. The engineer severed the connection with the passenger car, and then he and his fireman jumped and escaped injury. The passenger car was stopped by the brakes. The engine plunged into a ravine 100 feet below, and was split in twain.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.

Marvelous Results.
From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Bliss Junction she was beset with rheumatism, succeeded by La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery. It was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at A. Wasley's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

A Father's Pathetic Sufferer.
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 1.—Meklaher Diebold, a shoemaker of No. 101 Heron avenue, returned to his home from Wheeling, where he had been since Aug. 11. The first thing that met his eye was a short side notice, which had been posted on his door during his absence, and, drawing a revolver he shot himself through the head, dying in a few minutes. He was the father of a large family and was 61 years of age.

The Irish National Convention.
DUBLIN, Sept. 1.—It is estimated that 700 delegates will be in attendance at the opening session this afternoon of the Irish national convention. Michael Davitt, M. P., told the Associated Press correspondent this morning that he expected that more than 1,700 delegates would be present before the convention closed. Of the delegates at least 1,000 will come from Ireland and Great Britain.

MR. BRYAN AT CLEVELAND.

He Addresses Two Monster Meetings at Mark Hanna's Home.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 1.—Candidate Bryan has been the object of no other demonstration so well attended and so spectacular as that which the city of Cleveland gave him last night, and nowhere else, with the possible exception of New York, have so many people attempted to hear him talk. Two great meetings listened to Mr. Bryan, the first in the Central armory, where 10,000 people were packed; the second in Music Hall, which had 8,000, and afterwards he spoke to several thousand from the balcony of the Hollenden hotel. Bands and marching campaign clubs were numerous about the streets, and with thousands of strangers in its gates the city bore a holiday aspect.
Special trains brought out of town clubs in during the afternoon, 500 coming from Canton, two trains came from Akron and others from Lorain, Cuyahoga and other Ohio and Pennsylvania points. For two or three squares the streets about the depot were thronged when the cannon announced the arrival of the train on which the candidate came. There was a parade to escort him to the hotel and another after dinner from the hotel to the armory. The armory doors were thrown open at 7 o'clock, and in fifteen minutes after every foot of space was filled to the doors. Not only were the aisles jammed, but men were clinging to window sills high up and hanging in all sorts of impossible places. In both of the Cleveland halls, as in most of the other cities where Mr. Bryan has spoken, the police arrangements were utterly inadequate. The crowding last night was almost as great as at the James-town assembly last Saturday, and any sort of stampede would have produced a disaster. Workmen were in a large majority at both meetings. They were free and easy, peeling off coats, singing and disputing themselves generally in a good natured, turbulent way. Two of the first comers were "General" Coxy, late of the Commonwealth army, and his lieutenant and son-in-law, Capt. Brown. When Mr. Bryan came down the stage, escorted by Mr. L. E. Holden, of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, he inspired a fierce cheer, which continued for three minutes, and was again continued all the time the temporary chairman was trying to work in his speech. The armory audience was the largest Mr. Bryan has addressed indoors, except the one in Madison Square. The Music Hall crowd was half as large, and none left the hall. Charles P. Salem introduced the presidential candidate at the armory meeting, and Arnold Green at Music Hall. Besides the candidate speeches were made at the former place by Hon. M. A. Forman and Judge McMath.

Before his arrival at Cleveland Mr. Bryan made speeches at Chautauque, Mayville and Ripley, at the last place making 10,000 farmers gathered for the picnic of the Knights of Maccabees. At Madison the Republican club turned out with bands, banners and brass drum, cheering Mr. McKinley and howling at Bryan, but a shambolic fracas of an enthusiastic crowd of 2,000 partly free silver Republicans.

Electric Bitters.
Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the spring, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alternative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. Only fifty cents per bottle at A. Wasley's drug store.

Japan's New Premier.
