EVENING HERALD

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1896.

THREATENED WITH STARVATION.

Phable Condition of Wiling Workers in the Mill District of Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.—The condition of affairs among the idle textile workers in the Kensington district is daily assuming a more serious aspect. It is estimated that there are 20,000 persons at present out of employment. The most serious feature of the trouble is that the number is increasing every day. Unless they are relieved in a short time the distress will become appalling.

Three large mills, employing about a thousand hands, have already closed down, and the remainder are working on three-quarter, one-half and even shorter time. The depression is so great that starvation stares many in the face, and the financial panic of 1858 will not be a circumstance compared with the distress that is being endured by the idle workmen unless they are given an opportunity to earn a livelihood.

It is really pitiable to walk through the streets of Kensington. A reporter made a tour of the district, and found literally thousands of idle men and women—mill hands out of work—standing on the corners, a look of despair on their faces. They knew not where to turn for succor. Strong, able bodied men, ready and willing to work for the families depending on them, stood idly about, wondering what the end was to be.

The Wonderful Welsbach.

This is the lamp that makes gas bills small and gives three times the light of the ordinary dip. Figure it out and see if you can afford to be without it. If you don't want to save half your gas bills and get three times the light don't get the Welsbach.

L. J. WELKINSON.

The Coal Trade.

The anthracite coal trade is best described as quiet. The companies are keeping the output down to the estimated requirements, although they naturally are mining somewhat ahead of present actual consumption on account of the anticipated increased demand in the autumn. The August production was well within 4,000,000 tons, and the expected output for September will be no greater. Circular rates are fully maintained, and the Reading Companies last week advanced prices 25 cents per ton for all tidewater shipments from this city and New York harbor, and the other companies have made a similar advance, taking effect this week. The west-bound advance of 25 cents per ton already announced will come into effect this week and next Monday, according to the special arrangements of the various companies. The new circular for tide water points is based upon $4.25 per ton for white ash stove coal at Port Richmond and $4.50 per ton at Port Liberty. It is the restriction of output that is maintaining coal prices.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Take Laxative Bronze Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25 cents.

An Old Man's Folly.

John Billy, 58 years old, and a charge upon the county, has changed positions from the Alms-house to the prison and on a somewhat serious charge. He was removed yesterday on complaint of Adam Mort, of the Alms-house, who charged him before Justice Bitt, of Schuylkill Haven, with having illicit intercourse with a certain insane patient of the hospital. He could not furnish the $300 bail required so was sent to the usual place of detention.—Journal.

MAHANAY CITY MELANGE.

Much Interest Manifested Over the New Opera House.

SPECIAL TO EVENING HERALD. MAHANAY CITY, Sept. 1.—The event of interest here to-day is the opening of the new Kaiser opera house. It will be opened for the first time this evening with a lecture by Gen. Gordon. The building is 70 feet wide and 90 feet long, with a grand entrance 75 feet long and 14 feet wide. The stage is 35 feet deep, 70 feet wide and 75 feet high. There are 22 complete sets of scenery on 4,600 yards of canvas. There are 3,300 feet of rope rigging and complete electrical and gas equipment, including 75 footlights in three different shades of color. The stage is also amply supplied with traps and other mediums for spectacular and pantomime plays and the entire cost is placed at $35,000. The jury in the case of John Kenney, who was killed on the Lehigh Valley road near Barry's Junction at 2 o'clock on Sunday morning, returned a verdict of accidental death. The engineer who was in charge of the locomotive by which the young man was killed testified that when near the curve he blew his whistle and then turned for a moment to look ahead again he saw the form of a man lying on the track. He blew the whistle for "down brakes" and reversed his engine, but was unable to stop before passing over the body.

The truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. That's our motto; and we add leather, solid leather and nothing but leather. That's the way our shoes are built. FACTORY SHOE STORE, 7-15-97

Surprise Parties.

A surprise party was tendered Miss Florence Fox, last evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall, previous to her departure for her home in Philadelphia. The evening was very pleasantly spent, and refreshments were served. Those present were: Lutha Link, Millie Smith, Mary Llewellyn, Bertha Fortz, Ida Bierman, Verelia Kalbach, Ellen Wyatt, Helen Schmidt, Bertha Link, Laura Vest, Thomas Williams, John and Earl Kistler, Harry Morgan, Ray Marshall, Walter Bierman, Ray Hafner, Emory Straughlin and Leo Bitterman. Miss Fox was presented with a beautiful ring by her guests.

The home of Mamie Dooley, on West Centre street, was the scene of a large gathering of little girls who tendered her a surprise party and presented her with a nice plate, cup and saucer. Games were indulged in and refreshments were served. Those present were: Margaret Morrison, Annie Bakus, Agnes Bettridge, Annie and Mary Eisenhower, Annie Shore, Katie McAlle, Katie and Lizzie Flaherty, Annie Dengler, Sophia Beyer, Katie Wilcoxon, Annie Johnson, and Nellie and Mary Haughton, Mamie Wade, Ella Stanton, Mamie Martin, Mary Dengler, Mattie Rakus, and Frank Pascel, Paul Mushbaugh, John Morrison, Thomas and John Bettridge, John and Martin Rakus, Sylvester Brennan, James Sculan, James Haughton, Charles Cosgrove and Mr. and Mrs. Dooley, Mr. and Mrs. Eisenhower, Mrs. George Knott, Mrs. L. Rakus, Mrs. F. Mushbaugh and Mrs. J. Haughton.

At the Hospital.

The following are among the patients being treated at the Miners' hospital at Fountain Springs: William Lunas, 27, Gilberton, Draper colliery, piece of coal removed from eye; Mike Krizinski, 47, Mt. Carmel, employed Mountain colliery, simple fracture collar bone, due to a fall of coal; Mary McCaffery, 15, Ashland, sprained right wrist, sustained by tripping over carpet; Stephen Trathen, 9, Ashland, lacerated wound right forearm caused by falling on an upturned ax; Andrew McCormick, 21, Honesville, loader at Hammond colliery, triple fracture of thumb, while playing ball; Anthony Kounis, 28, Buck Mountain, miner, severe sprain of the ankle, caused by a fall of coal; Maggie Kane, 28, Shenandoah, inflammation of the wrist.

Underground.

The Indian Run mines and workings are rapidly becoming a great source of interest to many of the visitors to this region. To-day it was visited by Misses Annie Green and Mary Glanscy, of Germantown, accompanied by J. M. Mullabey, who under the guidance of E. C. Malick made a trip through the entire mines which contains 25 miles of railway. This being the initial trip of the visitors to the coal regions, they were greatly impressed with its numerous points of interest.

Deny the Report.

The item published by the Hazleton Standard to the effect that Michael Dwyer, of town, was arrested in that city and fined $7.50, is without foundation. The young man referred to has never been in Hazleton, and at the time of the alleged arrest he was at his work here. It is suspected that some one is using his name, as young Dwyer bears a good reputation, and the authorities at Hazleton are being imposed upon.

Laid at Rest.

The funeral of Edward Jenkins took place from the residence of the parents, on North Union street, this morning. Services were held at the house, which was attended by many friends of the deceased. The Keynotes Gymnasium Club, of which he was an active member, attended the funeral in a body, and presented a beautiful floral tribute in the shape of a large wheel with a broken axle. The remains were taken to Frackville, where interment was made.

Letters Granted.

Letters of administration were granted to Jessie B. Entwistle on the estate of Samuel M. Entwistle, late of Port Carbon, deceased. Also to Sarah Smith on the estate of Alexander H. Smith, late of Tanques, deceased. Letters testamentary were granted to Thos. P. McGovern, on the estate of Patrick McGovern, late of Bally township, deceased. Also to Levi M. Paul on the estate of David M. Paul, late of Port Carbon, deceased.

In the Orphans' Court.

In the estate of John C. Quinn, late of Pottsville, deceased, the return of the sale as made by E. D. Smith, trustee, was confirmed nisi, to become absolute in ten days if no exceptions be filed thereto.

In the estate of Daniel S. Kromes, late of Wayne township, deceased, court awarded inquest in partition as prayed for, returnable September 28th, 1896.

In the matter of the estate of Dewalt Faust, the court confirmed nisi the return sale of real estate.

Thomas May Thorpe Coming.

Thomas May Thorpe, of New York city, has been engaged to address meetings in Schuylkill, Northumberland and Luzerne counties. He will make his first appearance at Mahanoy City on the evening of September 10th, and at the following places later, in the order given, delivering six addresses, at Shenandoah, Ashland, Shamokin, Pottsville and Hazleton. He advocates the financial principles of the Chicago platform, speaking under pay of the Democratic National Committee.

PITTY POINTS.

Happenings Throughout the Region Chronicled for Hasty Personal.

The oyster season opens to-day. Don't forget to register to-day. Butler township schools opened yesterday. The McKinley and Holart club of Wiggins has elected officers. Over 5,000 passengers were carried by the Lakeside railway company on Sunday. Miss Ruth Williams, of Gilberton, left yesterday for Bowling Green, Kentucky.

Hersker's new opera house, at Mahanoy City, will be completed by October 1st. The Taxido club, of Mahanoy City, will give another social at High Point park this evening.

Messrs. Toole and Brownmiller continue to bring in the ballot boxes as the contest court requires. The county convention of Christian Endeavors will be held in Pottsville on October 10th and 11th.

Ashland's school funds are short and that long delayed $9,000 state appropriation would come in handy. Hon. John Wannmaker and Samuel J. Randall, Jr., will speak at Lewisburg on Thursday evening next.

The Lehigh Valley Coal Co. have decided to tunnel from the Mammoth to the Primrose vein at the Centralia colliery. The mayor of Hazleton is again after illegal liquor dealers and threatens to prosecute those who continue to violate the law.

Major A. D. Jenkins, formerly of Pottsville, died at Bloomfield, N. J., and his remains were interred at the former place to-day. Leutz, Lilly & Co., operators of the Park Place colliery, are said to violate the semi-monthly pay law, and the workmen are complaining.

On Saturday evening at eight o'clock, Mr. Gustav Miesner, and Miss Augusta Stein, two well-known and respected young people of Ashland, were united in marriage.

To Rebuild the Logan Colliery.

There is a well defined rumor that the Lehigh Valley Coal Company have decided to rebuild on the site of the Logan breaker, which was destroyed by fire a couple of months ago. It is said that the work of clearing up the debris of the old breaker will be begun this week, and will be the preliminary work to the erection of a structure that will be complete in every modern detail.

Deaths Recorded.

To Visit Sunbury.

The Chinese Viceroy, Li Hung Chang, who was received with such eclat in New York, will pass through Sunbury on Sunday next about 1 o'clock, en route from Washington to Niagara Falls.

Suffered for Twenty-Four Years.

There is no use at all in people suffering from any throat affection whatever, when speedy and permanent relief is at hand. Mrs. D. A. Smith, Jersey Shore, Pa., writes: "I had been troubled with a crouped sore throat for twenty-four years, and Thompson's Diphtheria Cure did me more good than all the other I tried and used. The same medicine cured the sore throats of my children. Would not be without it in the house, under any circumstances." Sold at Kirkin's drug store at 60 cents a bottle.

Literary Notes.

General Horace Porter's personal recollections of General Grant, which The Century will publish beginning in November, are to be called "Campaigning with Grant." General Porter first met General Grant at Chattanooga; he soon became attached to his staff, and was with him constantly from that time until the close of General Grant's first term as President, during which he was Grant's private secretary.
